1. Prologue

This one would be the Re-write I suppose... I decided that 'the big whatever' (You get the point) would be added in later chapters, probably chapter 14 or so on.

Disclaimer: I don't own How to train your dragon and Frozen, however I do own the Ocs which are Ji and Miwayumi.

Prologue: Good Bye Berk

No one's POV

A brown haired guy with a bit well built body shape, not muscular but some outlines can be seen when naked of course, he wore a green shirt with brown coat, has a dark blue pants and with a gray shoes. He entered his dad's car as his dad drove through the road towards Arenville.

*Hiccup's POV ****

My name is Hiccup Horrendous Haddock, pretty weird name, I know I know. It's not really a best name but I guess dad just likes it that way. I like to play instruments, invent stuff and draw, as I travel to Arenville it seems that it wouldn't be different, as far as I'm concern at least I could try to have friends this time. My life in Berk wasn't really great in fact most kids just bullied me for 13 years. I'm just grateful that I'd be able to escape such life, there was one girl that didn't bullied me though I couldn't say she's better since she just ignored me, my first crush and she never bothered to acknowledge my existence. I've been living that way ever since my mom died, she's the only one who actually accepted me, she liked little things I do to help, she was the only who actually supported me and as far I thought, maybe she was the only one who love me. She always tells me that there's always people that who would like me for who I am and not gonna be like my cousin Snoutlout and his friends. I'm not really a kind of a popular to people so far in Berk I'm just an outcast so here I am towards a possible new home.

No one's POV

It took a while, Stoick and Hiccup have passed the sign board saying 'Welcome to Arenville, Enjoy your stay', Hiccup looked through the window and saw that it has more technology than Berk, his excitement is completely building up as he imagine such possibilities on his invention, Of course if you live in Berk which is a province and compare it to a big city like Arenville, it would be a no contest. After few minutes they arrive in a huge house, not too huge though. Hiccup looked around and can see that this place maybe more crowded but still peaceful. Hiccup smiled as he looked around more and saw a group of people, he might not know about people much but it doesn't mean he can't imagine if they would be nicer than his previous home.

Hiccup's POV

My dad parked in front of the house's garage. He got out of the car first then I opened the door as I got out, closed it afterwards. I inhaled deeply as I looked around I saw some people talking, a black haired guy, black eyes guy wearing a light blue cap, black jacket opened seeing the white shirt underneath the jacket with black pants and a black and white shoes and a girl with brownish orange hair wearing a pink jacket closed and a light blue pants with pink shoes. As the more I watched I could see that the girl was somewhat arguing more with the guy but it seems the guy just talked to her passively as if he was completely have no interest on their conversation. My dad spoke "Alright Hiccup, here's our new home. So far I'm concerned that you've been living alone your whole life. I'm very sorry son, I know that I've been distant all these years... I hope this make this up to you", I looked at my dad eyes widened, I nodded and smiled at him then replied "Thanks dad", he walked in front of the door, he took the key on his pocket and inserted it on the key hole, he opened the door then looked towards me and said "Welcome home son". I smiled again at him as I entered the house.

No one's POV

Hiccup went inside the house as he inspected how this seems to more a mansion to him since his life style wasn't really a fancy one. He admired almost everything, his dad spoke "Alright Hiccup, Tomorrow you'll be going in a school called Arendelle High , so just want to wish you good luck and make allot of friends, and your mother and I love you very much"

~Meanwhile at the Two arguing people~

Miwayumi's POV

I spoke "You saw the guy who was watching us?", Ji replied lazily "Mhmm, he seems a nice person, we could probably just introduce ourselves to him tomorrow or if he goes to school we could just talk to him there", I nodded as I saw Kristoff and Anna walking towards us, I greeted while rushing towards Anna to tackle hug/glomp "Hello Anna", she stumbled a bit then regained her balance as she looked at me then replied "Hello Miwayumi", she looked at Ji and said "Hello, Ji", Ji only responded with him tipping his hat. I pouted and looked at him then asked "Why don't you just greet people normally?", Ji stared at her passively and plainly replied "Overrated". I fumed as I walked towards him ready to smack his head, Kristoff and Anna laughed while Anna held me, preventing me to smack the lights out of Ji, Kristoff spoke "Alright you two, you've been best friends for like since 3 why can't you guys just get along". I snorted and said "Well, I would be fine with him if he had been livelier, you can actually can tell that a graveyard is livelier than his personality".

Anna and Kristoff snickered as Ji just sighed, Ji spoke "Look, just get over it, anyway so Anna how's your sister? Still being cold as usual?", Anna looked down sadly then replied "Ah well.. She's still cold", Ji sighed and said "still afraid to trust I see.. but it maybe she's afraid of something.. oh well, I'm not a cold person expert", I snorted then retorted "Like you aren't a cold person?", Ji face palmed and said "There's a difference between a cold person and a passive person". I huffed and looked away at him as I turned around, Kristoff and Anna just chuckled awkwardly at Ji.

Meanwhile in Asgard...

No one's POV

Helmdal spoke "Thor... we need a champion now. Otherwise Midgard would fall in to chaos". Freya spoke "We simply cannot rush things. The child needs love, if anything the champion must be sensitive and finding a sensitive warrior is difficult". Thor sighed then spoke "No need to worry friends, I think one would be on his way and is a potential of becoming our champion. Odin has already have too many problems, I guess we could ask for his wisdom if needed but I do not wish to worry father more". The gods nodded at each other.

That's all for now folks...

Chapter 1: Rendezvous

~Hiccup's Room~

-DAY-

Hiccup's POV

The sunlight hit my eyes as I started to stir up. I slowly opened my eyes then sat up, I rubbed my eyes gently then stretched my arms as I yawned. I looked at my clock, it says 7:00 AM, I thought "_I still have an hour to prepare and get to school_". I stood up as I head towards the bathroom, I took my clothes off then took a bath, brushed my teeth. I dried off and put some clothes on a simple blue shirt, dark blue pants and gray shoes and wore my customized watch. I walked down strairs as I saw my dad sitting while reading daily newspaper as he drinks coffee on the table. I greeted "Good morning Dad", he looked at me then said "Good morning Hiccup, so ready for a new day at school? Or try to impress girls?", I blushed at his statement about impressing girls then replied sarcastically "Oh yeah", I flexed out my muscles then continued "Who can't ignore this fishbone muscles", my dad laughed lightly and said "Just don't impress too much, you'll be swarmed". I replied sarcastically "Will do", then thought "_Meh, as if I, Hiccup Horrendous Haddock, can actually impress a girl? It would be the end of the world if I did"._

I took 2 pieces of bread on the table as I put it on the toaster, waited about 5 minutess more or less, the bread sprang up, I carefully took out the bread then put some butter and cheese on it. I waited a 10 seconds more or less to cool it down a bit then ate it, I looked at my watch as I saw that I still have 30 minutes to go to the school. I went upstairs to my room then took my pack then immediately gave a quick goodbye to my dad then went out of the house. I waited at the bus stop, after a few minutes the school bus arrived, I went inside then greeted the bus driver "Good morning sir", the bus driver smiled then nodded and said "Good morning to you as well fellow, have a seat", I looked around and saw there are some fairly vacant seats, there were some people who are intimidating, some looks nice and some with poker faces. I saw a empty seat then started to walk towards it as the bus moved, suddenly a random jerk put his foot on the way then I tripped, I fell but suddenly I felt a hand on my shoulder, keeping me from falling down.

I traced the hand and saw the guy from yesterday the one that seems to be passively arguing with the girl, he's still wearing the same hat from yesterday, he warned but not threateningly "You better be careful...", I nodded then said "Thanks", I looked over him and saw the girl from yesterday, she was napping on his shoulder then I thought "_Maybe this two are siblings_", I continued walking towards the vacant seat behind the guy's seat. I looked around through the window. I thought "_It's annoying that all places have assholes lurking around"._ I sighed in annoyance and let myself enjoy the view.

~Arenhigh~

-DAY-

After for awhile we arrived, I'm very nervious, I maybe a sophomore but I am a new kid on the school so it's just bad as being a freshman. I exited last as I took out my schedule then read it. I headed towards my class but suddenly the freaking douche bag that tried to trip me on the bus along some of his friend blocked my path and said "So, so you're the new kid, sorry about the foot lately. It was a completely accident, I mean I was just stretching and stuff you know. Anyway do you play sports?". I thought sarcastically "_Yeah sure, stretching...". I sighed inward then answered "I don't play sports much". He spoke with fake tone of sadness "Oh, too bad, well at least we could have another 'audience'". I nodded lazily clearly that he was doing the nice guy act. He continued "Alright good talking to you bud, later". Suddenly a guy from the bus spoke behind me "You better ignore that guy, he may be act like a nice guy but he's really a complete asshole", I nodded then said "yeah, It was complete obvious, so anyways I'm Hiccup Horrendous Haddock".

I expected him to at least make fun of my name but he just stared at me with half lidded eyes look then asked "Hiccup?", I nodded but to my surprise he didn't mocked my name but the girl beside him giggled. She spoke "Well, the names Miwayumi Nekroma and this zombie", she pointed at the guy then continued "is Ji Gragerd", Ji tipped his hat at me, I looked at them strangely then asked Miwayumi "Is he like that?", she sighed then said "Yea I know, he's such a zombie, but still my best friend", I chuckled a bit then said "He's not that bad", she smiled "Yep" she slap playfully Ji's back as he stumbled forward a bit but remained balanced, he spoke "Don't mind the Amazoness", she retorted "What was that zombie boy?", Ji asked as he looked at her unamused then spoke "Zombie boy?", she huffed then smack her fist onto his shoulder lightly then dragged him back to class after saying "Bye Hiccup, talk to you later", I nodded then said "See ya". I headed towards my class, I got lost a bit then after a while I found the right room, I knocked then went inside and saw that the class was about to start.

The teacher looked at me then asked "And you are?", I replied "Hiccup, Hiccup Horrendous Haddock", the class laughed except the one familiar face and a guy, the guy who wasn't laughing was Ji who was staring outside the window, the teacher spoke proudly "Now young man my name is Weselton Dredicufelous, introduce yourself to class yourself to you class mates", I nodded and faced the class and said "Hello, I'm Hiccup Horrendous Haddock, it's nice to meet you all", as expected most of the boys in class with half of the girls in the room laughed at my name, there was some of the girls staring at me as if they're gonna eat me alive, this sent shiver to my bones. I looked at Mr. Weselton as he nodded at me. He spoke in authority "Alright class be quiet, Hiccup try to-", he was cut off by the door opening as a beautiful girl came, the attention now was focused on her, she had light blonde hair, blue eyes she wore a blue shirt, dark gray skirt, a bit above the knee length, she was walking towards me.

Watching her walked towards me just made my heart skipped a bit then I saw her eyes flinch a bit almost split second then returned to cold expression as she said "Move", I immediately gave a path which confused me that there's other paths, I shrugged it off then looked at Ji who was clearly smirking. I sweated nervously, usually Ji was a emotionless dude but now he's smirking. Weselton continued "Alright Hiccup why don't you sit behind Ji and right side of Elsa's seat since it seems that it's the only vacant left", I looked around and saw that what Weselton said was true, I looked at him then nodded. I immediately walked towards my seat between the window and Elsa, I looked at Hiccup who was back to sightseeing, then I noticed as if I was being watched, I looked at my left and saw Elsa looking at me then quickly averted her eyes snorting. I clearly was confused what's wrong with her, I sighed then took out my note book as I started to doodle, I felt the feeling of being watched again and just ignored it.

~Cafeteria~

~DAY-

The class passed as it's lunch time, I took a tray as I move to the side to get the foods that I wanted, after paying I walked out of the way and looked around then I saw a enthusiastic Miwayumi waving her hand at me gesturing me to sit with them, I smiled and thought "_Wow, 2 friends already in a day_", I walked towards them then looked at Miwayumi who was holding Ji's hat and greeted "Hello Miwayumi", she replied "Hi Hiccup", I looked at Ji then greeted him as well "Hello ji", he just nodded back at me much to Miwayumi's annoyance but seemed to suppressed it well. I sat besides Ji and placed my tray at the table, suddenly a guy and girl exclaimed in unison "Miwayumi, Ji", I looked at them and saw a brown haired girl and a blonde haired dude, Miwayumi hugged the strawberry blonde haired girl as the guy greeted Miwayumi "Hello Miwayumi, Ji", Ji nodded while he was about to take a bite of lunch Miwayumi glared at Ji as she spoke "Can't wait for others?", he replied "Hungry, I refuse to starve myself", she sighed as the guy and girl snickered.

Miwayumi spoke "Ah, Hiccup let me introduce to you" she pointed at the brown haired girl as she continued "That's Anna", then she pointed at the blonde guy "That's Kristoff" then I realize that he was the guy who didn't laughed at my name on the class, I was really grateful for that. I greeted at them shyly "Hi", they chuckled lightly then Anna spoke "Hello Hiccup", Anna sat beside Miwayumi while Kristoff sat beside me, we had a small talk for awhile as the lunch ended, we bid farewell except for Ji, he, Kristoff and I have the same schedule, Anna and Miwayumi have the same schedule, they're both freshmen. We walked towards the class as Ji was unconsciously leading but suddenly I got in thought of things like what adventures could he have now and how it's amazing to have friends. I snap of my thought and saw that I was far behind, I immediately rush towards them but then suddenly I bump to someone, we both fell as the person fell on top of me, our books and notebooks wasn't scattered on the floor since it was inside our pack, I tried to speak but then I saw it was Elsa, I froze in shock.

She was rubbing his head then quickly covered her mouth as she felt pain on her teeth, then she looked at me then immediately stood. I stood up as well as I spoke "I'm sorry, um.. Elsa was it", she nodded and apologized as well "Sorry..", I picked up her pack and mine then gave her pack to her, she snatched it on my hands immediately then said "Thanks". She immediately looked down to cover her blush then rushed towards her class, I just watched on how awkwardly she act. Miwayumi and Anna said that Elsa was always been cold to people but now she looked like if she was gonna be caught on fire, she was really nervous then Ji spoke "Jeezâ€| what happened to your lip?", I asked confused "huh?" then touched my lip with my fingers and felt a sting, winced a bit then looked at my fingers and saw blood, then I realized that Elsa and I practically kissed. I now understood why she was clutching her mouth in some sort of in pain. Ji casually said "Wow.. I never thought you work that fast Hiccup". Kristoff looked at him incredulously as I blushed knowing what he meant.

I pulled my handkerchief then started to wipe away the blood on my lips as I winced every time my handkerchief and my wound on my lip met. Kristoff asked "What are you talking about?". Ji just turned around towards the class then said "I'll tell you later Kristoff but we must get to class first", he nodded unease. We entered the class as I looked around and saw Elsa looking at me then immediately turned away, I could see a tint of red on her cheeks then thought "_I thought she was supposed to be cold, I guess she really isn't cold person. Glad to know that she has emotions_". I blushed as well as I remembered what just happened lately, we immediately took a seat as Ji suggested to seat near Elsa, by mean we he meant I, of course he said that indirectly but it was fairly obvious. I looked at Elsa again then she caught me looking at her then we both looked away blushing, suddenly the Teacher came.

~After class~

We left the class and saw Anna and Miwayumi waiting for us, we walked towards them greeted, we talked about some stuff as my dad came, he honk the horn on his car as I bid farewell to my friends then ran toward my dad as I opened the door then went inside and closed it afterwards, I opened the window as I waved at my friends and they waved back at me, I smiled as I felt great on having friends for the first time. My dad asked "So, Hiccup, how was your first day at school?", I smiled at him then said "it was great", he smiled back then nodded, I spoke "Thanks dad for bringing me here", he laughed heartily then said "No problem son", we may have been live at Berk, but Dad seems to be have connection to rich people.

~Ji's POV~

Kristoff asked "Alright Ji, what happened?", I smirked, this caught the attention of the two girls, Miwayumi asked "What's Kristoff talking about?", I chuckled slightly then said "Hiccup..", she raised an eyebrow as Anna asked "what about him?", I said smiling "You're sister... if you've noticed then you've known that she was covering her mouth", Anna nodded then said a bit worried tone "So what has it got to do with Hiccup?", I smirked then said "Hiccup's lip have a small cut on it", they thought for a second but didn't seem to understand what I was implying, I sighed then said "Hiccup and Elsa kissed", Anna and Miwayumi widened their eyes as they jaw dropped then exclaimed in unison "WHAT?!", I immediately covered my ears, Kristoff dead paned "Way too blunt buddyâ€¦", I shrugged then said "But it still did happen", Anna spoke a bit happily and spoke "Oh my God, Elsa's first kiss was with Hiccup", she knew that Hiccup is a very kind person if the two would be together she would definitely would be fine by it.

She squealed in delight as Miwayumi asked "so how did the two kissed, I doubt that either of them just kissed randomly", I smirked then said "Actually that's what just happened", Anna and Miwayumi jaw dropped as Kristoff and I laughed at them as I said "Just kidding, they bumped each other, since the two was rushing that they didn't even bother to look at their surroundings, as they bump Hiccup's lip pressed on Elsa's teeth hard, that's why Hiccup's lip has a cut on it", Anna and Miwayumi sighed in relief as they both glared at me then Anna said seriously "Don't ever joke about my sister", I smiled softly and said "Of course, you love your sister dearly... but who knows he might help her to come out of her shell after all she did observed him thoroughly and blushed at the time she got caught by him", Anna smiled then said "Wow, I guess your right", Kristoff asked "So how are we gonna do this? Prom?", Miwayumi said with a eat shitting grin on her face "Definitely, Elsa always seem to win without even trying, we just needed Hiccup to be the Prom King for Elsa".

Anna and Miwayumi nodded at each other as I asked with unamused look "Really?.. that fast, it has completely high chance of back fire you know", they both and sighed as Kristoff spoke "I know how about, we invite Elsa to come with us making the two hang out and after a while we invite the two in a blind date to each other, they'll definitely wouldn't know what coming towards them", we all nodded. I spoke "Alright, we'll go with Kristoff's plan then to Miwayumi and Anna's plan so now tomorrow Anna you invite Elsa to join in cafeteria with us", Anna nodded then replied determined "Will do", Kristoff chuckled lightly at her, then Miwayumi spoke "Hey Ji, we should try to invite them to the amusement park since Hiccup is new here we might as well use it as an opportunity to bring the two together", I thought for a moment "_Or we could pretend to be the bad guy and make Hiccup look like the hero, but it has a terrible backfire_", then I nodded and said "I guess that's a great idea", Miwayumi smiled at me then squealed.

I spoke teasingly to Anna and Kristoff "We can also make a double date", Miwayumi asked "Double date?", I smirked then said "Oh, you know, Kristoff and Anna dating and all, we might as well make it a double date to add Hiccup and Elsa". Anna sighed as Kristoff blushed, Anna spoke "I can't actually believe that I'll be joining in plan to make my sister fall for guy she just met that we don't even know about completely", I sighed then said "Yeah, but I can tell Hiccup's a nice person and wouldn't become like Hans, I knowâ€¦ I felt that he was very lonely in his life", Miwayumi patted my back as she said solemnly "Ji..", Anna sighed "fineâ€¦ but if he hurt my sister, he won't be able to reproduce", Kristoff flinched since we both knew what she meant.

Welp... there you have it.

Chapter 2: Surprise

~Hiccup's Room~

*~DUSK~

Hiccup's POV

Dad left for a while to get some groceries. I was working on my roof, doing assignments and stuff, eventually after finishing half of it. I stood up and walked towards the window and opened it, after opening it I saw a dark haired puppy across the street, breathing heavily as it's right lower leg seems to be missing, I thought it was probably birth defects. I looked at him and saw myself before, young, vulnerable, weak and desperately wanted to live, not survive but to live. I don't know why but I quickly ran out of my room then out of my house and rushed towards the puppy, but of course I had to look of for any cars passing through the road. I carried him over to my house at my room then fed him slowly, he still can't eat well since he's severely weakened. I looked at him and thought about his missing leg. I took measure tape as I measured his other leg. I left him for a bit complete with some milk and water when he needed.

I went to the garage as I took a 3-by-4 wood as I drew some basis of a leg to replace the puppy's missing limb and adjustable so when he grew it wouldn't be a problem, I shaped the wood to a somewhat square shape with smooth edges, I took a drill then created hole a hole where I can put a metal rod but with a flat square end, it took hours to complete it, eventually my dad came and asked "Son, what are you doing?", I replied while not taking my eyes off the prosthetic leg "Oh, well... I found a puppy and he's missing a limb so I thought I could give him a prosthetic leg". He sighed then nodded and said "Well, you took him so he's your responsibility". I looked at him then nodded and said "I will dad..", his face softened as he continued to walk wherever he was going. I wipe some sweat then took the prosthetic leg then went back towards my room. I looked at him his eyes were half lidded as he stare at me, I look at him sadly then walked towards him then kneeled and petted him earning a whimper from the poor puppy.

I spoke solemnly "Don't worry bud, I won't hurt you", he stopped whimpering as he just close his eyes due to exhaustion. I whispered at him "_Don't worry bud. I wouldn't let anything bad happen to you_". I stood up as I look at the clock it says '11:35 pm', I thought sarcastically "_wow I can't believe dad took allot of time just to buy groceries, now I need something to strap this prosthetic leg toâ€| hmm.._", I thought for a moment on what should I name the poor dog, he's still a puppy so he's probably has no teeth yet then I thought "_no teethâ€| that's it! I'll call him Toothless_", I nodded at my decision. I suddenly remembered that I still have homework to do, I quickly rushed towards the kitchen to fix myself a sandwich and created some more for later snack, I went to my room as I quickly sat and place the plate of sandwiches at the other table. I opened my notebook as I continued my homework, it took awhile as I look at my clock and says '2:47 am', I thought "_crud..._", I set up alarm incase that I won't wake up early, I lazily walked towards my bed then lie over it as I sleep.

~4 hours and 13 minutes later~

-DAY-

The alarm rang as I tiredly woke up, I sat up then yawned tiredly as I extended my arms and stretched. I decided to just hit the showers to at least that may wake me up, after awhile I came down stairs as I quickly took some bread didn't even bother to toast it, dad saw that I was completely sleep deprived, he asked "Are you alright son?", I nodded then I remembered that I still didn't have food for Toothless, I immediately took some milk and pour it in a bottle, I rushed towards my room as I took a cushion to place the bottle near Toothless as the nipple facing downward for Toothless to easily just suck out the milk. I then remembered that I also forgot my pack, I looked at the table and saw that my notebook is still there, I quickly took the notebook and put it on my pack at my shoulder as I rushed downstairs as I looked at my watch it says '7:30 am', I rushed towards the bus stop, after few minutes the bus came as I entered, I greeted the bus driver then I noticed something then thought "_Hmm... how come Anna and Kristoff don't use bus_", I just shrug it off as I find a seat behind a napping Ji and Miwayumi as usual Miwayumi was still napping on Ji's shoulder.

~Arenhigh~

-DAY-

After awhile we arrived, I looked around and saw Ji and Miwayumi walking towards Anna and Kristoff. I walked towards them to greet them, we greeted each other as Kristoff asked "Hiccup are you alright? You look tired", I yawned then replied "Ah, well I haven't had some sleep", Ji spoke "Probably because of Mr. Weselton's homework right?", I nodded then replied dramatically "yeah, his homework is a slave driver", we all chuckled at this statement knowing that it's true. Suddenly Anna called "Elsa!", I looked at where she was looking at as she waved her hand. I saw Elsa still looking beautiful, I blushed at that thought. I immediately shrugged the thought off as Anna continued "Over here Elsa, come join us".

Elsa's POV

I heard my sister called me as I looked at where the sound came from, I saw her with her friend but to my surprise that she was with Hiccup, I looked at him deeply as I blushed profusely, I tried to recompose myself as I thought "_Come on Elsa, he's just another guy.. another cute guyâ€¦| No Elsa don't think of something like that. Remember guys are jerks, Hans cheated on you and tried to hurt you and your sister.._" I frowned at remembering that painful memory. I walked towards them hesitantly, as I approached them I noticed Hiccup's lip has cut on it, I remember about what happened yesterday that I accidentally kissed Hiccup, I blushed furiously at that thought, sure I had a boyfriend but we never really kissed or anything, we hugged and that's all there's to it, he noticed me looking at him. I immediately looked away as I said "Let's go or else we're gonna be late". Ji spoke "She's right-", Ji paused as he rushed towards Hiccup then caught a rugby ball hurled towards Hiccup's head, he gripped the ball tightly as it popped.

Hiccup's POV

I gasped as Hans and group came, one of his thug spoke "What the heck man? Why did you popped the ball", Ji retorted with half lidded eyes "why did you threw a ball at a crowded place?", they weren't able to retort as Han's thugs was about to gang up on Ji as Miwayumi and Kristoff stood beside him, Anna and Elsa didn't stood beside him since they're not capable of defending themselves from such as 'thugs' and they knew what kind of person Hans really is. Hans spotted Elsa beside Hiccup then approached her spoke "Settle downâ€¦| there's no need for starting trouble, besides I wouldn't wanna be late for class", he grabbed Elsa's hand as he bowed slowly as he was about to kiss Elsa's hand but suddenly I snatched her arm as I yanked it out from Hans grip, he glared at me as I glared back at him then he just walked away as his thugs left with him. I really hated guys like him, kind of reminds me of Snotlout when trying to impress Astrid.

Anna's POV

I smiled at Hiccup on how he defended her sister. I noticed that my sister blushed furiously at the moment Hiccup and Hans glared each other, of course she tried to act cold again as she composed herself then snatched his arm back. I thought "_Hmm... I guess Hiccup just really have the effect of breaking people's barrier I suppose_". Hiccup apologized "I'm sorry", he rubbed the back of his neck in embarrassment. I giggled silently at them, Miwayumi spoke "that was quite a show Hiccup, very impressive but for now Hans is right we should go now while we still have time, Weselton has very low tolerance on tardiness", we all nodded as Miwayumi and I separated from the others and headed back to our respective class, I thought "_I guess Ji could be rightâ€¦| Hiccup's really a nice guyâ€¦|_".

Hiccup's POV

We went back to our class I noticed that Elsa has a tint red on her cheeks while Kristoff was smiling and Ji playing with his hat as he appeared to be thinking. I sweated nervously as they acted a bit weird except Ji, after awhile we arrived at our classroom then sat on our respective seats. I looked around and saw Kristoff, I felt bad Kristoff since his seat was far from us then I looked at Elsa who was staring at me then looked away in a some sort of snob. I sweat dropped at her attitude but couldn't help but to stare and admired her beauty, after a few minutes I noticed that she kept glancing back and forth towards me as I realize that I was staring too long. I blushed then whispered "_Sorry.._", she tried to look at me straight face as her lips twitched a bit then nodded, I looked in front of me and saw Ji who still seemed to be in a deep thought as he stared outside the window.

Ji's POV

I carefully looked towards Hiccup and Elsa as they somewhat interacted, I saw how they just made themselves look like fools, I laughed inward as I thought "_Second day and you've completely breaking outer shells, wow, I hope that thought about you making Elsa came out of her shell to be true, it would be a sight to see Hans face when he saw that those two are dating_", I noticed that he was turning around to face me as I quickly looked outside as I stare outside the window. I sighed then thought "_I wonder what kind of cheap tricks would Hans be planning next_".

Hiccup's POV

Mr. Weselton came as I prepared myself then tookout my notebook, but then I realized that I forgot my pen at my room, I sweated nervously as I whispered towards Ji "_Psst.. psst.. Ji_", he seemed to not notice my whispering. After few tries and still not responding, I sighed as I looked around and saw the Elsa is the only possible person to be able to borrow a pen since the person behind me looks very intimidating and pissed off, I don't have the guts to disturbed a pissed off guy. I remained looking forward as I whispered to Elsa "_Psst.._", she heard it as she looked around. I whispered again "_Psst.. Elsa.._", I looked at her withot turning my head, she looked at me with a confused look. I whispered again "_May I borrow an extra pen if you have please_", she stared at me for a second then she took an extra pen as she lamely tried to give it to me as if she was handing me some drugs. She immediately faced forwards as she looked at me with the corner of her eyes, I smiled at her and whispered "_Thanks_", she looked down.

Elsa's POV

I looked down as I tried to hide my blush, he seemed to have not noticed as I sighed in relief, a folded paper was thrown at my table, I unfolded it and looked at it, it was doodle of Ji himself giving thumbs up. I looked at him and saw the him smirking then suddenly I noticed another folded paper that came from my left. I unfolded it as I looked at it, it says 'Wanna go out for lunch later?'. I looked at the person on my left then pointed someone at the back with his thumb. I saw Hans who was smiling innocently at me with a look of gesturing 'What do you say?'. I looked forward again with a huff then sighed as I thought "_I hope Anna invites me to have a lunch with her. I can't stand being around that jerk and pretend as if nothing happened_".

~Cafeteria~

-DAY-

Hiccup's POV

After awhile of class we headed towards the cafeteria, I noticed that Elsa wasn't near to be seen and thought "_I wonder where did Elsa went, maybe she takes lunch somewhere else or she doesn't at all_". Ji, Kristoff and I immediately looked for a table as we decided who take the first shift and the second but of course we have to wait for the girls to come, we used the term shift to know who will sit and wait until the other came so once that the other one came he/she'll sit to reserved the spot we sit on, we played rock papers scissors but then Ji spoke "It's just you two, I don't mind being the last", we played, I won then I smiled triumph as Kristoff grunted childish as I chuckled lightly and Ji tipping his hat downward a bit then smiled. We bought our food as I bought first then Kristoff then Ji. After a while the girls came, Anna and Miwayumi greeted in unison "Hey guys", we greeted back, Miwayumi immediately took away Ji's hat as she put it in her bag/purse. Ji pouted much to Miwayumi's pleasure, then I noticed that Elsa's with them, Anna spoke "Guys, if you don't mind I brought my sister along", we all nodded in acceptance.

Anna sat between Kristoff and Miwayumi, as I found myself in between of Ji and Elsa, I found this very awkward position as I realize that I still haven't returned her pen yet and I planned to borrow one from Ji. I was going to say something when suddenly Hans and his thugs came, I looked at Ji who smirked then left us as I excused myself also as I forgot that I don't have a beverage yet so I left a few seconds after him. I bought some milk as I opened it then headed back and saw that Han's was gripping Elsa's arm tightly as she was struggling to get away from him. Feeling my blood boil, I rushed towards them as I took his hand off Elsa as I unconsciously wrapped my arms around her waist then pushed Hans away. Hans stumbled back as he slipped then fall.

Elsa's POV

I was completely stunned as Hiccup wrapped his arms on me. I could practically feel his toned arm around my waist as I blushed. I looked down to hide my blush then I saw him pushed Hans easily. I admired the strength that Hiccup displayed as I felt my heart skipped a beat, Hans immediately stood up as he was about to retaliate at Hiccup but suddenly we heard Ji exclaimed "Watch out!", then saw a canned drink hurling towards Hans, Hans just looked towards where the sound came from as he saw a can inching from his face as he got hit in the face at his right eye, we looked at Ji as we saw him out of balanced or at least that's what he wants us to think. Hans stumbled a bit as spoke "This isn't over Hiccup and Ji", they walked away while Hans was clutching his right eye. We walked towards Ji, Hiccup still haven't realize that his hand is on my waist, I faked coughed, he looked at me confused as I politely pointed at my waist. We looked away blushing profusely as I said "Thanksâ€¦", he replied lamely "uh.. no problem".

Hiccup's POV

We looked at Ji who was brushing off some dirt as if the fall didn't even hurt a bit, he spoke "Nice one Hiccup", I smiled at him and said "Thanks, if it wasn't for your fake fall we would've been in a bigger mess". Ji said smiling "Oh, so you've noticed", we chuckled a bit as we headed back to Kristoff and others, we saw them eating as if nothing happened, Ji asked "so what happened to let's eat together?", Miwayumi smirked as she mimicked what Ji said yesterday "Hungry, I refused to starve myself". Ji sighed as we chuckled except him, we sat down in still same spot, I looked at Elsa and saw her arm was bruised. I asked "Are you alright?", she smiled lightly as she said "I'm alright", I nodded as I looked at the guys and saw their faced was completely shell shocked except Ji who just focused eating who didn't even bother to listen. I asked at them "What?", Anna asked in disbelief but happy "Elsaâ€¦ did you just smiled?". I replied confused "yeah she did so what?", Anna, Kristoff and Miwayumi looked at me incredulously then I looked at Elsa who was raising an eyebrow.

After that even we just continued eating with a complete awkward silent, I asked "So, why are you guys acting strange?", they sweated nervously as Ji answered "Well.. it seems that Elsa or should I saw Ice queen smiled which is extremely rare", I looked at Elsa who was fidgeting a bit then I said "Oâ€¦ kayâ€¦ soo we might as well head back to our respective classes, we don't wanted to be late, and Elsa, may I just keep the pen for today, I kinda left mine at my room", she turned around then stuttered a bit as she spoke "S-sure". I raised an eyebrow as I spoke "Thanks", we parted ways for now as we headed back to class. Kristoff whispered towards me "_Nice, going with the forgot the pen style_", I blushed as I slumped a bit then whispered back "_Look, I just really forgot my pen alright. I guess was just really sleepy this morning since I didn't have much sleep_". Kristoff just kept smiling at me then I noticed that Elsa remained at the back and was thankful that she didn't heard any of what they've talked about.

*Elsa's POV ****

We parted ways with Anna and Miwayumi, well I wouldn't be surprise if the two felt bad that they couldn't come with us, after all they're still freshmen. Suddenly I heard a faint whisper as I saw that Kristoff and Hiccup whispering something, I tried to get near them but I just couldn't hear them completely, I sighed in defeat then thought "_I wonder what are they talking about_". I noticed that he was going to turn around to look back as I just kept facing forward to look like as I just watching where I am going, he looked forward again much to my relief, we just headed towards our class.

~Few hours later~

The class for today was finished as we outside this time I stayed with Hiccup's group as they would be with my sister, after thinking awhile ago I decided to at least hang around with my sister. We saw them patiently waiting for us as they chat a bit, we walked towards them we greeted each other as Hiccup spoke "Uh.. Elsa here you go", he handed me the pen I lent him this morning I took it from his grasp as he spoke "Thanks", I nodded and said shyly "No problem", suddenly I saw a rugby ball hurling towards Hiccup again, I exclaimed "Watch out!".

dun, dun, dun. alright, that's all for chapter 2. **

Chapter 3: Hans **

Elsa's POV

Time went slow as I watched the rugby ball hurled towards Hiccup, I thought "_Hiccup! No!_", I watched the ball hit towards Hiccup, the ball hit the back of Hiccup's head. Time resumed to its normal pace, I watched Hiccup stumble as he clutched his head in pain then he groaned weakly. I immediately rush towards him to check if he's either fine or damaged. I looked at the others as I saw different emotions, sadness, astonishment, anger and rage. Anna covered her mouth closed as I can see tears building on her eyes while Miwayumi's eyes were widened in shock. Kristoff frowned as I clearly can see that his really angry but what scared me the look Ji's face, pure rage. Ji walked towards where the ball landed as he bent down and took it he seemed to began to calm as I can see again the blank look on his face. Hans and his thugs came as one his thug spoke innocently "Ah, you've found the ball, may I have it back". Ji just gripped the rugby ball tightly with a half lidded eyes staring at Hans and his thugs, the ball exploded as he just threw it back at him, not hard just a regular pass.

The thug spoke "What the heck was did you do that for?!", he gripped Ji's shirt. Hiccup recovered from his daze as we walked towards Ji as the others followed, the thug spoke "That's the second ball that you've popped asshole!", Ji yawned in mockery as he replied "That's the second time you've threw a ball in public", the other thug spoke with a hint of smug tone "Come on man, it was just an accident", Ji politely spoke "Will you please get your hand off me", the thugs just laughed at him. Hiccup was going to retaliate but I just held his wrist, he looked at me in confusion as I just shook my head. I don't know if Ji can handle this situation but I won't let them harm Hiccup again, Ji gripped the thug's arm with his left hand that still holding on to his shirt as he used his right hand to uppercut his arm making a crack sound, the thug screamed in agony "Ahh! My arm!" as Ji glared at them as he gripped his hands tightly. Hans just watched as his thugs charged at Ji, Ji stood as he waited for the right time. Suddenly, my grip slipped as Hiccup ran towards the Thug behind Ji, the first thug just cocked his fist then punched Ji, Ji just crouched down to avoid the punch.

Much to the Thug's surprise that suddenly he realized that Hiccup's fist was inching on his face, Hiccup twisted his waist to give more force in the punch. The punch went in contact as it hit the thug's nose. The thug stumble back a bit as he began to feel dizzy then passed out then suddenly another thug charge Hiccup's side. Hiccup noticed it as the thug just kept charging then Ji spun then swiped the Thug's feet with his feet, the thug slipped as the momentum just too much to make him fall. Hiccup used the momentum as he gripped his right fist with his left hand then aimed his elbow the thugs face then he put allot of force on his elbow for it to make a great impact on the guy's face, it resulted as the thug got hit on the face giving him a black eye. Hans' eyes narrowed then spoke "That's enough, you win this round Hiccup, but this isn't over yet, you better prepare yourself and you too Ji for we would have the last laugh", Ji spoke to Miwayumi "Did you get that?", we looked at Miwayumi who secretly filmed what just happened. Hiccup asked "What the heck is that guy's problem?".

Kristoff, Anna and Miwayumi sighed then Ji explained "Well, it seems that he thinks that you and Elsa are a thing now". Hiccup and I blushed as Hiccup asked "Why the heck would he think that? It's not like Elsa would actually like me that much". I felt a sting on my heart as much to me what he said was true but I can't help to feel sadden. Miwayumi sighed then answered "Well, he's kinda possessive and seeing you close to Elsa just ticked him off", Hiccup and I blushed then he spoke sarcastically "Oh great.. it's only been three days in this town and I already have a psycho dude wants to kill me, what's next Anna and Kristoff are a thing now?", Miwayumi fake coughed and said "They already are, long ago actually". Anna and Kristoff chuckled lightly at Hiccup as he sighed then asked "So, what should we do? I don't want a psycho to stalk me because he thinks Elsa actually likes me, as if that could even happen", at that words I felt as if something was pulled out of my chest, it hurt deeply but I had to compose myself and conceal my emotions.

Hiccup's POV

As much as I would like to be close with Elsa but it would be just too fast, I mean it's been only three days since we meet. She's a lot like Astrid, beautiful, popular and intelligent so she's way out of my league. Ji spoke "well, we could at least walk together, I mean we are going in just one direction", I asked "yea but how about those three?", Miwayumi smiled "Well, as much it is awkwardly convenient but we all are neighbors in a way since we're like just 1-3 houses apart", I jaw dropped at that statement and said unsure "Alright..". We started to walk to our homes as I thought "_I always thought Elsa and Anna too look like rich people, probably they live in a mansion or a big house like the one 7 blocks away from the house_". We walked in a quiet peaceful breeze but suddenly we saw Hans and his thugs in front of us, they were 6 of them this time.

~Cue Katekyo Hitman Reborn OST - Overwhelming~

I spoke sarcastically "Oh greatâ€¦ just when I thought I would finally have a peace of mind when the assholes came back", the thugs encircled us, they weren't many people at the time so we couldn't ask for help.

Ji spoke lazily "Ughâ€¦ look we got no time for thisâ€¦ I still got to feed my dog", I agreed "Yeah, me too". Miwayumi added "And cat". Hans mere huffed then spoke "too bad, but it seems that neither of you will ever get the chance to feed them at all", he snapped his finger as they approached us slowly then suddenly charged, we covered Anna and Elsa. Ji shoved his hands on his pocket as he kept side stepping, avoiding them with ease but suddenly Hans charged behind him while was distracted, he pulled out a knife then lounged forward. he managed hit Ji as Ji just punched him away. Ji fell down clutching his wound then immediately stood pretending that didn't happen even though its evident the blood is soaking his shirt.

Hans smirked as Ji tried to not let the wound affect him. Kristoff kept blocking attacks and countering them when they already attacked, but to my surprise Miwayumi is dominating them, with a pair of scissors, she flicked her hand a bit as she swing her hand then started to cut the thugs, Kristoff and I just managed to knock over 1 guy while Miwayumi took down 4 of them easily.

~Music end~

I walked slowly towards Ji then whispered "_Remind me to not maker her mad_", Ji shrugged then nodded nonchalantly. Anna rushed towards Miwayumi then her eyes gleamed with admiration and said "That's soo COOL! Miwayumi", Miwayumi posed then blew her pair of scissors as if it was a spoke lamely "Nah, it's nothing", suddenly Ji stumbled a bit then fell to his knees then Hans laughed maniacally as we looked at him then started retreating with his thugs.

We didn't bother to care about them as we just rushed towards Ji. Anna spoke "Kristoff, we got to take Ji to the hospital quick, we could call for an ambulance but it's near so we could just take him there". Kristoff nodded then lifted Ji's right arm then hang it on his shoulder for support, Miwayumi did the same as well, Ji wanted to protest and said that he could walk but Miwayumi just lightly punched his shoulder then said "Idiot, you need help, please just let us help you". Ji gritted his teeth, he hated feeling weak. Ji sighed in defeat and said weakly "fineâ€¦". Anna spoke "Hiccup, Elsa you two go on ahead. We'll take Ji to the hospital", I nodded dumbfounded as Elsa spoke seeming hesitant "S-sure", we split up as I can see the worry on their faces. Elsa and I started to continue to walk, I looked over to Elsa who seemed to be in a deep thought. I know that something was a miss, I asked "Alright spill it, what do you know about that Hans psycho?", Elsa looked at me then flinched a bit then sighed, she answered "Wellâ€¦ he's an asshole who tried to hurt me and my sister..", she looked down sadly as I felt guilty, I spoke solemnly "Sorryâ€¦".

I noticed that she was covering her arm, I asked "are you alright?", she winced slightly then replied "yea.. I'm fine", it would be a bit believable if she didn't winced, I grabbed her uninjured arm gently as we both stopped, she spoke "What the heck are you doing? Unhand me you brute", I just stared at her in concern.

~Cue I say yes - Ichiko, piano (Wedding Version)~

Elsa's POV

The moment that I saw the concern look on Hiccups face, I felt an electricity flowed in my body for a bit then sighed in defeat. I looked away as he looked at my bruised arm, he spoke worried "Elsa, things like this should be treated not left alone", he paused for a bit as he seemed to be in deep thought then continued "let's stop by my house for a minute so we could put some ice on it", I blushed at what he just said but seeing the concerned look on his face, it just made me felt safe and a bit comfortable. I sighed, nodded and said in defeat "Alright", we walked a for awhile. We reached Hiccup's house it was fairly sized not too big and not too small, he opened the door as he walked in. I hesitantly followed as I thought that he may do something horrible to me. He quickly walked towards the kitchen as he took some ice and milk, I thought "_What the heck is he supposed to be with the milk?_", he wrapped the ice on a clean cloth and gave it to me as headed upstairs with a bottle of mild, I felt curious of what he's gonna do with the milk upstairs.

I carefully followed him, I walked silently as I saw a room slightly opened and guessed that it could be Hiccup's, I was going to walk away not wanting to disturb him but suddenly I heard a faint voice "It's okay buddyâ€¦ so how you doing?", then suddenly I head a quiet bark, it was a bit enthusiastic but weak. I slowly crept towards Hiccup's room as I took a peek, I was surprised on the revelation I saw a limping puppy nudging a kneeling Hiccup with friendly affection, the puppy then noticed my presence as he growled, Hiccup looked confused as he asked the puppy "What's the matter bud?", the puppy then glared at me, Hiccup looked at where the puppy was glaring, I took a step back then Hiccup stood up and opened the door, he looked at me and surprised and asked "Did you need something?", I shook my head and said "no, sorry I was just curious why you brought a milk upstairs when you could just drink it down stairs".

Hiccup shook his head and said "That was not for me but for him", he pointed towards the puppy, then continued "So yeah... Toothless, meet Elsa" he pointed his hand towards me then he spoke "Elsa, meet Toothless", he pointed his hands towards Toothless, the puppy still growled, he just walked over him then kneeled, he started to pet Toothless, Toothless collapsed then purred much to his delight, Hiccup then thought for a second, he stood up then walked over his desk and took a wood that had metal that connected to it, he then started to unstrapped his belt, I blushed and covered my face with my hands but I felt like my hands opening a bit to at least create enough vision to peek at his body if ever he planned to strip down, I silently cursed my hormones at that, then it surprised me that he didn't stripped but instead he went to the closet and took two belts then somewhat attached it to the thing, he then walked towards Toothless who was wagging his tail in happiness, Hiccup connected the thing on Toothless's missing limb, I now realized that it was a prosthetic leg for Toothless. He spoke "well buddy, I hope you'd be fine with that, I'm sorry that it's the only thing I could do", I felt my heart beat rapidly as my cheeks heated up, I felt admiration towards Hiccup's kindness.

Toothless then tried walking with his new artificial leg, he stumbled a bit but didn't fell since Hiccup was there to assist, ready to support when he would fell. I watched them for a bit then I realize that I have to place the ice on my arm, I gently placed the ice on my arm as I felt It's stings lessen a bit, few minutes later as I watched Hiccup and Toothless play a bit, I couldn't help but to giggle sometime when Toothless dominates Hiccup despite their size. We talked for a bit, I learned soo many things about Hiccup, he was sort off like me but it seems that he lived in an opposite way of how I live, he lived with constant berate of other and sometimes himself but even that.

He lived with freedom in a way since his life people also wanted him to become something that he is not but that didn't stop him from being himself, while I lived in a constant praise and admiration of others but never had freedom, they always wanted me to be someone they want but not what I wanted. Hiccup spoke "Alright let me take a look on your arm", he walked towards me then gently held my arm as he inspected it then said "Alright, it seems that bruise stopped spreading, now you need to go home and put a warm compress on it", I nodded then kissed his cheek in gratitude.

I spoke "Thanks",he looked away as I could still see his face getting redder. I couldn't help myself but to giggle at that sight, he replied still avoiding eye contact at me "No problem", we walked downstairs as we saw his dad, we could practically see the shock and proud on his face , his dad spoke "Ahem... Hiccup, it's nice to see you bringing your lovely 'friend' to your room but I just hope that whatever you did upstairs wasn-", Hiccup and I knew what he was going to say as blushed profusely then Hiccup immediately defended "No, dad we didn't do anything like that", his dad smiled and said "Good, as much as I'd like grand kids but it'll be too early don't ya think".

Hiccup spoke "look dad, we didn't do anything beside healing her?", Stoick raised an eyebrow and asked "Exactly what kind of healing, did you put your thermometer inside her?", Hiccup and I blushed furiously as I spoke "No, we didn't do anything like that, just cold compress", I kept glancing over Hiccup who just buried his face on his hands in embarrassment.

~Music ends~

His dad just laughed and said "Relax kids, I'm just messing with you, now it's practically late so Hiccup why don't you escort this lovely lady back to his house", Hiccup nodded said "okay", we walked outside as then towards my house, I lead the way. Hiccup spoke "Should we call your sister? We could get an update on what happened to Ji", I nodded as we stopped a bit then took out my phone as I dialed her number. We waited for a few seconds until Anna answered her phone, Anna answered, I asked "So, how's Ji doing?", Anna replied "Well, he suffered severe bleeding luckily Miwayumi was blood type AB positive and Ji was also AB positive, anyways I'm heading back now, Kristoff will make sure I get home safe and sound so don't worry", I sighed for a bit then replied "fine".

Anna suddenly asked "So how was your walk with Hiccup?", I blushed for a moment and said "It's fine, we had to stop a bit in his house as we put some ice on my bruise, no thanks to the that asshole", I could practically hear Anna giggling, she spoke "Alright, later, give me all the juicy details, bye", I faced palm at my sister's wrong accusation. She ended the call as I put my cel on my pocket then sighed, we continued to walk as Hiccup asked "So how's Ji?".

I sighed then replied "He's fine, though he did suffered severe blood loss, thankfully Miwayumi was there to save him", Hiccup sighed in relief then said "Those two might seem to be water and oil but still managed to stick together", he chuckled a little at his own statement, I replied "Yeah..", I glanced over him, he caught me looking at him then asked "what?", I looked away then replied "So, why did you decided to take Toothless?", he sighed for a bit then replied "Well.. at first I feel terrible on his condition, when I saw him, I saw myself, wanting to live, not to survive but to liveâ€¦ like I said before, I wasn't exactly what people wanted me to be til my father realized that I won't be what he wanted me to be so he decided to accept that fact, I was soo grateful for him, if it wasn't for him I wouldn't even met you guys", he then whispered the last part "_Specially youâ€¦_", I blushed at that statement and pretended to have not heard what he just said. We walked a for a while in a complete awkward silence.

We arrived on a huge mansion, he looked at the mansion in a awe and said "Wow, this place is huge". I giggled a bit then said "Uh, well Hiccup, thanks again", he nodded and said "No problem, and don't forget put some warm compress on it", I replied "I wil-", suddenly I was cut off by a whistle that sounded behind me, we looked at where the sound came from and we saw Kristoff and Anna smiling. Anna rushed towards me, Kristoff followed in a bit slower pace, Anna tackle hug/glomp me as I stumbled a bit but balanced immediately, Kristoff spoke "Well, I certainly did thought that you'd be already home by now, but it seems that you two had a change of plans, so what did you guys do?", Hiccup explained obliviously "Well after you guys left I noticed that Elsa was in pain due to the bruise that the dickwad left so we had to stop by my house to prevent the bruise to spread", Anna and Kristoff smirked as Anna said "Alright, thank you Hiccup for taking good care of my sister", she stressed out the word care in a sarcastic way, Hiccup raised an eyebrow as I looked down trying to hide the blush.

Hiccup spoke "Alright since we're already here so, see you guys tomorrow", we all nodded as we bid farewell to each other. Meanwhile with Khione, Khione spoke to herself in awe "Aww... my little girl's already all grown up". She sighed in amusement but then thought "_I better talk to Aphrodite before she starts messing with my daughter's love life_".

Thanks for reading guys, sorry if I didn't put powers but it's a bit overused I did already onced so yeah. It wasn't Hiccup having Ice powers but dragon powers, if pairing were based on similar powers that would be ridiculous no offence Jelsa is just weird, cuz it was modern time when people did actually can see Jack plus if having ice powers deserved him to be with Elsa then why not Sub-zero from Mortal Kombat or Toshiro from bleach, so yeah no offence just a thought.

Chapter 4: Feelings?

Elsa's POV

Anna and I walked towards our house as she just kept following me behind, we arrived at the kitchen as I took a kettle then poured some water on it and put it on a stove as I turned on the stove, after awhile the kettle is warmed as it whistled, I let it cool for a bit then poured it on a water bag and slowly put it on my bruised arm, twenty minutes later, I went to my room as I will bid goodnight for her since she didn't even left my side, but then suddenly she spoke "Spill it", I asked confused "Spill what?". She grinned then asked "What did you do in Hiccup's house?", I sighed then calmly said "Like I said he just put some ice on my bruise", Anna smirked then asked "Anything else?", I thought for a second then remembered Toothless. I spoke "Ah yes..." I paused for a moment as Anna spoke enthusiastically "I knew it! So what did you two do?". I just shrugged then said "Well he introduced to me Toothless, watched them two played in his room, fed him and that's about it".

Anna spoke with gleam with her eyes, I sweat dropped at her antic then she asked "Woah, you've been in his room?", I nodded then said "Yes, why?", Anna then smirked and asked "Are you sure you didn't do anything else in Hiccup's room?". She paused for a bit then gasped as her eyes widened then asked "Did you two?", I blushed profusely and replied harsh than I planned "No!", she looked at me confused. I explained "no, we didn't do anything beside anything what I just said", she sighed in relief then said "That's good, as much as I see Hiccup as a nice person, I still wouldn't like for him to go that fast, I mean you two already kissed and based on what I heard I guess you two just made your first kiss". I looked away as I asked innocently as possible "What are you talking about? We didn't even kiss, and how would you know that Hiccup haven't even kissed someone yet besides his family?", Anna spoke teasingly "Tsk, ts, ts, lying to your own sister, Ji already figured it out on the first day, just like he said on the first day I noticed that you have been covering your mouth and by the looks of it you've been in pain and for Hiccup well he didn't hide it, a cut on his lip and your teeth aching soo much coincidence", I blushed at her statement and thought "_Ji knew from the beginning, oh crud_".

Anna's smiled grew larger as she continued "and as for knowing that Hiccup haven't kissed anybody" she paused as she frowned sadly then continued "Well he's just like you sometimes", I raised an eyebrow in confusion then thought "_Like me_", I asked "what are you talking about?", she sighed then said "Well, he might smile in front of us, but I know you, you may be able to hide your negative emotions from others but not me and Ji, we both know what you've been through as for Hiccup we could see that he had the same look you had despite of him smiling and laughing at times, someone who's afraid of people", I just stared at her contemplating on this revelation as I realized on how Hiccup's empathy towards almost everything, with that puppy he even saw himself on that poor dog. Anna spoke "So Elsa, please be nice with Hiccup, you may despise guys but he's a guy who had been so similar to you", I glared at her then asked "Why are you so keen on Hiccup and I should be together?", she replied with tearful eyes "Because, it takes a person who understood someone's pain for that person can actually mend a broken person. Elsa, I love you but you just push everyone away, Hiccup isn't Hans, you've been in his house, so did he even took an advantage on you?".

I felt guilty by the words that she just said, I sighed in defeat then replied "Noâ€ he was just been a sweet man to me, thank you Anna". Anna smiled then said "No problem, just if Hiccup turned out to be the person you would like, don't push him away, he might be your partner, everyone deserves happiness, so why not you", at those words Anna left me as I contemplated on what she just said as I thought "_Maybeâ€ maybe not, if ever that I found a special person for me, I hope that he doesn't let me goâ€_", I entered my room then closed my door as I walked towards a mirror then asked myself "is Hiccup the one who could make me happy?", I looked away from the mirror as I continued "or be a nightmare just like Hans?", I sighed with this unsure feelings, I slowly walked towards my bed then lied on it, I just kept thinking on what Anna said and Hiccup's actions, it seems that Hiccup was seeming to be a very sweet caring person, I just kept thinking as I fell asleep.

Meanwhile in Asgard...

Thor spoke "I finally chose our champion...". Sif asked curiously "And who's that my love?". Thor smiled slightly then answered "Hiccup Haddock". Freya gasped in astonishment then asked in disbelief "You mean... the reincarnation of six path?". Thor nodded then explained "Yes, though he doesn't know it yet and it's really an interesting choice since seeing him fancy the daughter of Khione however he's on his fifth reincarnation so he's still an average person" (A/N: Yes, sage of six path but not the freaking OP in naruto, that shit is just way too OP for this kind of fanfic and am not really a fan of too OP stuff, powerful maybe but not OP). Freya nodded then giggled and spoke afterwards "I suppose, It's kind of unusual that you thought of that but I like it". They laughed lightly

~Few days later~

~Hiccup's Room~

-Saturday-

Hiccup's POV

It's morning and Saturday so it means no classes, I woke up Toothless as I got him to get up with stumbling like the first time he used the prosthetic leg, he's very mischievous a very clever puppy, his dark fur makes him hard to detect at night as he could blend easily with the dark, he is now more active, too active if you'd asked me. I casually walked towards him as I pat my lap where he could lie down, he lied down on my lap as I just gently pressed the nipple of the bottle on his mouth as he just happily sucked out the milk, suddenly my door burst out open as I saw Anna, Kristoff and a very distant Elsa, when I said distant I meant just farther from me. I exclaimed in shock "WHAT THE?! What the heck are you guys doing here?", they ignored my question as they just spoke in unison "Awwwwâ€ he's so cute", I sighed then asked calmly "Ughâ€ guys what are you guys doing here?", Kristoff replied "Well, we headed here to pick you up, so we could pick up Ji at the hospital", Anna walked towards me then started to pet Toothless much to Toothless's delight as he purred while sucking milk.

I frowned sadly knowing Ji's condition as I realized that Miwayumi wasn't with them, I asked "so where's Miwayumi?", Kristoff smiled then answered "Oh, well she's already there, she never left except when she had to go to school but always immediately go back to hospital, it's weird that they seem to be arguing as always but more like berating but despite that it may sounds 'unfriendly' they're still the bestest friends of each other". We all smiled at that statement, we waited for a while for Toothless to finish the whole bottle, Anna and Elsa just petted Toothless on my lap to kill time but I sometimes noticed that Elsa was glancing secretly towards me, it weirded me out but at the same time it made my heart flutter as I felt that a weight on my chest had been lifted. We walked out of my house, I refused to leave my Toothless as I carried him, he wasn't ready for distant walking more like only few meters before he becomes extremely tired, Kristoff spoke "Aren't gonna leave your dog at home? Pets aren't allowed in the Hospital", I replied lamely "Well the keyword is 'in' so there's your answer".

Anna asked confused "You're not coming?", Elsa frowned a bit but managed to immediately wipe it off on her face as I replied "I am, just not inside, I don't want to leave Toothless alone", I looked at Toothless on as he gummy smiled at me, though it seems that it has teeth but just not fully grown out, they all smiled at me as they just nodded in acceptance, Anna teasingly said "But of course we couldn't let you Hiccup stay outside, someone would have to stay with you," I raised an eyebrow as I looked at Kristoff, he spoke "Sorry dude but I'm staying with Anna, Anna is Miwayumi's friend girl, you know how it is with girls", I sighed then spoke with sarcastic tone "No, I don't know anything about girls and I feel that asking someone to stay with me is just so obviously been picked forcefully by a one sided conversation", Anna and Kristoff chuckled in amusement as Elsa and I looked at them with unamused look. Anna sweat dropped then Anna said "Wow, you two have matching reactions, cute", I just shrugged while Elsa looked away a bit snob if you'd ask me but I guess that's just who she really is, but there's probably more since the look she gave me at my room with Toothless is different.

~Few minutes later~

~Arenville's Hospital~

We arrived shortly as I waited near the entrance as Elsa stayed beside me since of Anna and Kristoff's 'excuse', Anna spoke "Alright guys, you two wait here while Kristoff and I help Miwayumi out with Ji", I nodded as Elsa hesitantly nodded, the two left as it was just Toothless, me and Elsa. I asked trying to have a small talk "So how's your arm?", Elsa looked at her 'used to be' bruised arm then looked back at me and said "Ah well, it's fine, thank you for the cold compress". She then looked away as she just kept glancing back at me as I replied "Well, it's no problem, it's just a shame that the dickwad actually hurt Ji and you, I mean guys supposed to not hurt ladies, they're beautiful and soft", I sighed in disappointment.

Elsa's POV

I blushed lightly at the show of Hiccup's respect towards women. I can already see that he's very different from Hans, he doesn't think of women as a trophy or a pleasure machine. He just admires them, I could practically hear my heart beat as it rapidly beat. I asked "Ah... I see, is there any particular reason why you don't like

Hans?", he thought for a second then replied "Well, first off he tried to throw a ball towards my head only to succeed on second try, secondly he hurt a beautiful lady". I blushed profusely as I thought "_He thinks I'm beautiful, but why should I careâ€| everyone thinks I'm beautifulâ€| but how come when he says it, it feels specialâ€|_", he continued "I mean you shouldn't hurt women, I believed that women are what completes men, men can't live without but it doesn't mean you have to force them and besides we all came from our mothers and treating women with such disrespect is like treating your mother with such ghastly manner. I mean I did have a crush with some girl beforeâ€| ".

I could practically see the sadness on Hiccup's eyes, his misery drives me to walk towards him then hug him warmly but of course I restrained myself well, he continued "She doesn't even know that I existâ€| but then seeing that there's no way for her to like me, I avoided herâ€|", this intrigued me, I thought "_Why would you avoid someone you like?_". I asked "Why would you avoid her?", he smiled sadly at me then said "for her to be happy, I know that I couldn't make her happy, so why should I be an obstacle for thatâ€| as much it was difficult for me to let it go (A/N: no pun intended), besides she doesn't even notice me so I guess I shouldn't be forcing myself towards her", he then smiled brightly at me, I felt sting on my eyes as I looked away immediately as I now see Hiccup in a new light, he was a very sweet person, he's definitely a good guy, I spoke "That's nice Hiccup, very unselfish of you", he then replied proudly "Of course, you would give up the things for the people you love, but of course she was only my crush so I didn't give up much, in fact it freed me from my delusions", I smiled warmly at him as I could see his cheeks turned red as he looked away embarrassed as I giggled inward.

No one's POV

Unbeknown to them that their conversation was recorded, Anna left a recording device at Elsa's dress, well being a friend with a stealth specialist has its perk, Toothless suddenly licked his master's face as Hiccup groaned "Oh, come on you know that's hard to wash out", Toothless made a imitation of a mockery laugh. Elsa couldn't help but to giggle at the scene, Hiccup looked at her but then went in daze as he watched Elsa giggled beautifully. Elsa noticed that Hiccup's staring at her as she blushed then she brushed her hair and asked "is there something on my face or hair?", Hiccup blushed as he replied "Well, nothing it's justâ€| you looked very beautiful when you giggle". They both looked away as Elsa just kept brushing her hair while Hiccup whistled innocently, suddenly Ji and others came as Kristoff whistled in amusement then spoke "Wellâ€| this is a very interesting sight", Hiccup and Elsa almost jumped from astonishment. Anna then walked towards Elsa while smiling, this send creeps towards Elsa as she felt shiver on her bones.

Anna then suddenly took something on Elsa's shoulder as it turns out a somewhat wireless microphone, then they noticed that Miwayumi was holding a laptop as Elsa and Hiccup blushed profusely then said in unison "WHAT WAS THAT?". Anna spoke innocently "nothing, we just recorded your conversation on the laptop, we haven't yet heard the conversation as we were planning to listen to it when you two are away", Ji commented to Miwayumi "wow.. these two are already in sync, at first I thought Anna was just exaggerating but it seems I was wrong", Miwayumi giggled as Kristoff laughed heartily then Kristoff spoke "oh trust me there's more to it than that, did you know that Elsa got in to Hiccup's room", Miwayumi and Ji spoke in unison "Ooooh/oh?", Elsa and Hiccup blushed as Elsa asked accusingly to Anna "you told them?", Anna spoke innocently "Well, I didn't. you know I don't keep secrets with my boyfriend so he told them not me", Elsa sighed in defeat as Miwayumi smirked then asked playfully "So did you two did something very intimate?..", Hiccup blushed as Elsa's face turned red then replied defensively "We didn't do anything".

Miwayumi was still smirking "Oh? So why are you two in his room? I mean you don't need to be in his room to do anything you know? Unless..." Elsa and Hiccup quickly blurted out in unison "No!", Elsa continued "he just asked me to come to his house to put some ice on my bruise, no thanks to dickwad". Miwayumi nodded then asked "then why were you two on his room? The ice is at the Fridge I believe so maybe you didn't get a cold compress.. maybe a very 'hot' compress", Hiccup fainted as Elsa blushed furiously then exclaimed "WE DIDN'T DO ANYTHING". Anna, Kristoff and Miwayumi laughed at Hiccup and Elsa as Miwayumi said "Calm down Elsa, we're just messing with you", Ji walked towards Hiccup then kneeled towards him then started poking Hiccup as he spoke "I think you guys broke him..", he then noticed the dog whimpering as he nudges his unconscious master, Ji sighed then spoke "Miwayumi, do you still have that smelling salts?", she nodded then walked towards Ji as he handed him some smelling salts, Ji took it as he placed it in front of Hiccups face.

Hiccup immediately sprung up back to his conscious state as he said somewhat confused "Huh? What?", Kristoff teased "Welcome back to the waking world". Hiccup then blushed as he remembered why he fainted, he immediately stood up followed by Ji. Ji spoke a bit weakly "Alright, enough teasing", Elsa and Hiccup sighed in relief as Hiccup spoke "thanks Ji", Ji then continued "As of now I just wanted to hear what Anna have recorded", Elsa and Hiccup suddenly jaw dropped as they spoke in unison "You can't/ Oh, you've got to be kidding me", Ji ignored them as he walked towards Miwayumi then Anna spoke in authority "Alright! To Hiccup's ROOM!", Hiccup asked "Wait, why my room?", Anna replied "Because you've got cool stuff in your room plus I noticed you both have a electric guitar and a acoustic guitar though I could swear I saw a bass guitar there", Hiccup sighed and said "Yeah.. well I do have those but come on, do I get a say in this?", Miwayumi smirked then simply said "nope". The group started to walk towards Hiccup's room.

Elsa looked away from Hiccup as she patted his back while she spoke "don't worry, your room isn't that bad..", Hiccup sighed then said "Yeah", Miwayumi spoke "Oh, I forgot, since you play instruments why don't you sometimes come in Ji's room, it's a bit big and it's where he and Kristoff have a jam, I watched it everytime, they're good, so you could join in", Anna replied "That's terrific idea, me and my sister could come over as well, we like music as well but we prefer to sing than to play instrument", Elsa asked "why is it that even I supposed to come over to Ji's room just to listen?", Anna replied "Oh come on, don't you at least want to listen to what Hiccup play", Elsa blushed as she just didn't replied while Ji shrugged and said "Well, you guys could come over and Hiccup could join the jam as well if he would like to?", Hiccup thought for a moment then said "Sure, I guess we could jam", Anna spoke cheerfully "Great, we're so gonna be there, we could start tomorrow", Kristoff spoke "Wow, you're too eager to hear me play", Anna smiled at him then said "Of course I wanna see how my boyfriend play, I suggest you let Hiccup do vocals specially when its romantic songs", Anna and Kristoff smirked as Ji just tipped his hat down as he smiled.

Hiccup and Elsa sweated nerviously as the group just stared at them with mischievous looks including Toothless.

*Chapter 5: Extravaganza ****

~Hiccup's Room~

-Dusk-

Hiccup's POV

We arrived at my room, I placed Toothless gently on his personal bed then he started to nap, Ji and the others were amazed, Anna took the mask attached to the wall and asked "Hey what's this thing?", she wore the mask then looked at us (A/N: the mask looked like the one on a game called Dishonored but has more functions, I don't own that game so yeahâ€¦ I wish I doâ€¦). I replied "That's a mask that I invented, it has multi functioned mask, it has night visions, thermal, and it's lense can zoom in up to ten miles with a perfect sight and my personal touch it's not heavy as it looks plus its comfy unlike some other masks that irritates the skin".

Miwayumi spoke in awe and curiosity "Ooooh, sounds like my thing, let me try", she approached Anna, Anna removed the mask then gave it to Miwayumi, she smirked at me then asked "Do you use this to spy on girls?", I blushed as Elsa and Anna looked at me in somewhat accusing looks, I waved my hand in defense and said "No, I wouldn't do that, well more like never have the guts to do that, I learned that nothing is more scarier than a enraged woman". Miwayumi, Anna and Elsa nodded sagely as Miwayumi spoke "That's right, glad to know that you know that important knowledge".

Miwayumi cheerfully wore the Mask then looked around, Ji spoke unamused "Tch, I bet that you're gonna use that to spy on all of the cats in Arenville's Pound", we all snickered except Ji who looked bored as usual and Miwayumi who laughed and proclaimed proudly "That's right, and soon I'll rescue them all", Ji sighed as Kristoff, Anna, Elsa and I burst out laughing. Miwayumi pouted and said "Oh come on, it's for a good cause", we ignored her as Elsa took some circular metals on the table (A/N: This is a clue for Hiccup's power), Elsa looked at it then saw that it looked like a silver bracelet with crystal-like-quartz embed on it she asked "Hey Hiccup, is this a bracelet?", I replied "Yes, that's a silver bracelet bit the quartz aren't just embed onto it, there's a hole in that bracelets that are connected to the holes in the quarts", Elsa inspected it thoroughly as Anna asked "So what does it do?", I replied "I uhh.. wellâ€¦ it's umâ€¦", Ji looked at me then cut me off as he spoke "Anna, I don't think it's something Hiccup would like talk about", this caught the attention of Elsa.

Elsa's POV

I looked at Hiccup in disbelief and thought "_I wonder why Hiccup won't tell us, these things are beautiful_", Anna sighed then nodded in acceptance, Kristoff teased "Maybe he's suppose to give it to his girlfriend". I felt my chest tightens by Kristoff's words, thinking of Hiccup having a girlfriend just made me feel gasping for air, I managed to maintain my neutral facial expression as I thought "_So what? As if I care whether Hiccup has a girlfriend, it's not like I am interested on him_", I still felt the tighten on my chest but just chose to ignore it, Hiccup shook his head then said honestly "I don't have a girlfriend, back at Berk people don't really like me that much, people just ignore me, I used to be a disaster magnet, wherever I go disaster happens so yea no girl would be even interested at me, a lot of inventions but zero girlfriend".

Ji and Kristoff approached Hiccup then patted his back in comfort, I thought "_Oh Hiccupâ€|_", Ji spoke comfortingly "Don't worry, every person has their match, at least that what Miwayumi said", Miwayumi interject "DAMN RIGHT!", We all chuckled at that except Ji who tipped his hat down then smiled, he continued "People deserves to be happy, it just that they make some decisions that prevent it, you need to make the right decisions for you to choose to be happy, and do it in the right wayâ€|" Ji looked at me at the corner of his eyes then smiled and looked back to Hiccup then continued "Just waitâ€| she out there waiting".

I looked away then blushed, Hiccup nodded and said unsure "Alright..", Kristoff spoke trying to lighten up the mood "Alright, time to play a game!", Anna clapped her hands then suggested "Ooooh, How about truth or dare", Ji shook his head then lamely said "No", Miwayumi glared at him then asked "What do you mean no?", Ji replied "Overused gameâ€|", Miwayumi pouted then pleaded with puppy eyes an all "Oh come on, pleaaaaaseeeee", Ji sighed then spoke "Ughâ€| fineâ€|", we all sat on the floor then Anna asked "Alright, who's first?". Miwayumi spoke "Oh, I know, why not the kill joy?", she smirked then smiled evilly at Ji. Ji sweated nerviously then sighed in defeat then said "Fineâ€|.", Miwayumi asked "double Truth, Double dare or Truth and Dare?".

Ji sweated nerviously then said "This.. won't go well for meâ€| alright truth and dare", Miwayumi and Anna grinned evilly at Ji, Miwayumi asked "Alright, Who's your first crush?". Ji thought for a second then answered "Anna", We all gasped and turned to look at Anna then Anna asked surprised an in disbelief "Me?!", Ji faced palm and said "Dude of course not you, she's my classmate in first grade though she's older than me by a few months", Anna sighed in relief as Miwayumi still grinning evilly said "I dare you to take off Anna's clothes".

Anna blushed, I was suppose to protest but was stopped by Kristoff who stood in front of Anna in defensive stance. Kristoff spoke seriously "No way I'm letting you do that Ji", Ji spoke calmly "Don't worry Kristoff, I wouldn't do anything you wouldn't like or at least hurt you intentionally", Kristoff's face softened then gave way towards Anna, Ji continued to walk towards Anna, Ji kneeled towards a blushing Anna, he looked at Kristoff then gave him a thumbs up, Kristoff saw that then smirked, we looked at Kristoff as we thought why would he smirk, Ji looked at Anna then he started remove her socks then started to walk away back towards where he sat.

Anna sighed in relief as Miwayumi spoke a bit annoyed "You forgot to remove her shirt and pants", Ji and Kristoff smirked at Miwayumi then Ji spoke "since socks are considered as clothes and you didn't even said remove all of her clothes", Miwayumi pouted as she spoke whining a bit "Fine... but I'll get you next time", Ji spoke "Alrightâ€| let's seeâ€| ah, Kristoff, you know the drill", Kristoff thought for a second then said "Double dare, Hah!", Ji tipped his hat again then said "I dare you to flirt with Miwayumi and Kiss Anna's neck for thirty seconds", Miwayumi exclaimed "WHAT!", Anna blushed and said seductively "Be quick about it and come here Kristoff".

Kristoff blushed furiously then gulped nervously, he hesistantly walked towards Miwayumi, he spoke "Hello, be-" he was cut off by Miwayumi punching him at the face, he recoiled a bit then asked "What was that for?", she spoke proudly "I dislike flirting so yeahâ€|", Ji snickered as Kristoff asked "You know that this was gonna happen don't you?", Ji tipped his hat again then said smiling "Of course though I should have recommended you starting by calling her 'Foxy-chan'". Miwayumi blushed then exclaimed "I told you not to call me that!". Ji sighed in amusement as we all burst out laughing except Kristoff who rubbing his cheek in pain, Kristoff then walked towards Anna, he kneeled, Anna wrapped her arms around Kristoff's neck and smiled lovingly at him, Hiccup and I gulped in a bit of envy and anticipation as Anna tilted her head for free access to Kristoff, he slowly leaned closer then nibble first, Ji started to look at his watch to keep track of time.

Ji's POV

Thirty seconds later I looked towards Kristoff and Anna, Anna was now moaning while Kristoff hungrily kissed Anna's neck then looked around as he saw Hiccup and Elsa gulped with their faces are red while Miwayumi who was recording the scene with her cell phone for black mail I guess, I spoke "Alright times up", Kristoff slowly looked towards Anna and kissed Anna passionately, Hiccup and Elsa was still staring at Anna and Kristoff, I sighed then thought "_Wow those two are getting carried away and the other two are somewhat excited_", I spoke again "Enough, continue that when you're two alone, unless you two have the guts to get naked in front of these three" I pointed at Elsa, Hiccup and Miwayumi.

Miwayumi protested while still recording "Come on, let them continue". Kristoff noticed what was Miwayumi doing, he immediately moved away from Anna who pouted and wanted more. Anna panted as Elsa had to recompose herself and Hiccup faked cough as he started to look around innocently, I sighed then said "Alright Kristoff you know what to do", Kristoff nodded and said "Alright Hiccup", Hiccup sat straightened, Kristoff spoke "You know the drill Hiccup", Hiccup nodded and said "I'll go what with Ji chose, Truth and Dare". Kristoff smirked then looked at Ji and Miwayumi, Ji and Miwayumi nodded.

Hiccup sweated nervously as Kristoff looked towards him and asked "Alright, Hiccup who's your first crush?", Elsa leaned closer intrigued at what Hiccup's answer would be. Hiccup sighed then spoke solemnly "ummâ€| Astridâ€| Astrid Hofferson", Kristoff's face softened then asked "You probably made those bracelet for her huh?", Hiccup slowly nodded.

Elsa's POV

I looked at Hiccup as I listened intently. I thought "_Astrid huh.. she must be pretty..._". Kristoff asked "She must be pretty huh?". Hiccup nodded then answered "Yea- wait, enough just say the dare". Kristoff snapped his finger and said "Oooh, so close... anyways Hiccup, I dare you toâ€|", he paused then looked at me then smirked and continued "well you get to choose, its either do what I did to Anna but instead of doing to Anna you get to that to Elsa", I blushed profusely then protested completely embarrassed "WHAT?!", Kristoff continued "Or... grope Elsa... for a minute" , still blushing profusely I exclaimed "THERE'S NO WAY THAT'S HAPPENING!".

Anna spoke trying hard not to laugh "Elsa... calm down", Elsa sighed then said in defeat "Fineâ€|", Hiccup gulped and asked hesitantly "Sooâ€| which one the kissing lips or the neck or groping for a minute?". I looked down as I struggle to fight back and hide the blush. Kristoff smiled and teased "Kiss on the neck, unless you would like to kiss her or even grope her, but of course you two already did the kiss part so either the neck or groping I suppose", Hiccup gulped and started to approach I slowly. I just sat there frozen, I looked at Hiccup nervously as Ji nudged Miwayumi. Miwayumi nodded and took out her phone to record. Anna smiled innocently at us, Hiccup slowly leaned towards my neck, he whispered "sorryâ€| just a dare", I nodded as I tilted my neck a bit, I bit my lip as I closed my eyes and prepared.

I felt Hiccup's lips touched my bare skin, it felt amazing, he just pecked it gently. I kept biting my lip to avoid moaning, after awhile he now kissed my neck. I can't suppress it anymore as I whimpered in pleasure, it just really felt good... soo intoxicating, addicting... I felt my heart rapidly beat, few seconds later he hungrily kissed my neck but still gentle, I wrapped my arms around his neck as I started to silently moaned.

Anna's POV

I watched Hiccup still holding back despite it was clearly that he was getting turned on, I smiled at Hiccup's gentle and caring nature. I held Kristoff's hand and looked at him smiling warmly, he looked at me and smiled back then we watched Hiccup and Elsa. Elsa was moaning which was a sign that she was getting in to it or really turned on. I looked towards Ji and Miwayumi, Miwayumi was smiling evilly while Ji was somewhat taking a nap either uninterested or just wanna give the two some privacy. Few minutes later Hiccup stopped, Elsa whimpered a bit, I laughed inwardly at my sister. Kristoff whistled and said "Took you two long enough", Hiccup froze then asked "How long was I kissing Elsa's neck?".

Ji stirred up then sat up straight while Elsa panted still blushing, I can see the marks on Elsa's neck, Kristoff replied "I don't know, few minutes?". Hiccup and Elsa blushed and asked in disbelief and unison "What?!". Kristoff smirked and asked "Wasn't it Ji was supposed to time that one?", Ji who smiled then said "Nope, you are since you made the dare", Kristoff laughed innocently and said "Ooops, my bad", Hiccup and Elsa just looked down embarrassed", we all laughed except those two. Hiccup spoke "Alright "Anna you know the drill".

I nodded and said "I pick double truth", Hiccup nodded and asked "Alright, Would you prefer to kiss Toothless or Kristoff's foot?", I yelled "What kind of Question is that?!", Hiccup smiled and said "Just a question", I sighed then said "Toothlessâ€¦", Kristoff asked in disbelief "What? You rather to kiss a dog rather than me?", I snorted then said "Yeah, If it's your foot, it smelled like something crawled up on there and died", Kristoff looked down in embarrassment as we laughed at him, I asked "alright what's the next question?", Hiccup asked "alright, if you didn't met Kristoff would you date Miwayumi?", I thought for a second then said "yea... I guess I could". Kristoff jawed drop as Miwayumi and Elsa looked at me incredulously as Ji just stared at me with confused look. Hiccup spoke awkwardly "Oâ€¦.kayâ€¦. that's too much information for me to handleâ€¦". I just giggled at their reaction and said "Alright. Elsa you know what to do". Elsa sighed then said "Double truth", I nodded then asked "Alright, which would you rather date Hiccup or Hans?". Elsa blushed profusely and started to stutter "I-i.. U-umâ€¦ H-hiccup... ", she looked down completely embarrassed.

I smirked then said "Alright, now did you like how Hiccup kissed you on the neck?", Miwayumi and Kristoff cooed in unison "Ooooooh". Elsa's entire face turned brightly red, she spoke quietly "I... uhh... did", I pretended to not hear it and asked again smirking "I'm sorry what did you say", Elsa looked away and spoke louder "I did... enjoy it...", Hiccup blushed then looked away from Elsa as Ji decided to spare the two from the awkwardness and spoke "Alright awkwardness is over, see ya tomorrow guys , Hiccup bring an electric guitar if you're coming and the rest, if you're going to my room be sure to be there around 1pm, I'm on spring cleaning so yeah", We all nodded as we all bid farewell and left Hiccup's house.

~Next day~

-Ji's Room~

-1:05PM-

Hiccup's POV

I arrived five minutes late, I brought my electric guitar, I walked inside the room and looked it was surprisingly huge, I spoke in awe "Wooah", I then noticed that everyone was already here, Anna and Elsa was sitting on a sofa. Ji spoke "Alright we start the jamming with an introduction for the newbies so yeah". Ji continued "the first time who entered my room will sing what your life whether it is now or before". I hesistantly nodded then Ji continued "of course viewers are as well expected to make an introduction", Kristoff spoke "Alright who goes first?". Anna suggested "Oooh, why not Hiccup?". I asked feeling that this whole thing was a set up "me?". Anna nodded, I sighed then looked around and saw instruments, I thought for a moment and saw a piano, I walked towards Ji and Kristoff and whispered them the song, they nodded as I walked towards the piano. I started to play.

~Cue the music, Echo by Jason Walker (A/N: I don't own the song)~

I sang as I completely forgot that there's even an audience, I remembered my life on berk.

(FLASHBACK to when Hiccup's a three year old)

I walked peacefully then suddenly Snotlout pushed me and said "What's up useless? Liking the dirt much?", he laughed as Tuffnut mocked "Oooh, he's gonna cry", Ruffnut continued "Don't mock him or else he's gonna tell his dad of his patheticness", they all laughed at me I started to sniffled a bit and looked around and saw Astrid just staring at me then left as if nothing ever happened.

(FLASH BACK END)

I started to get too emotional and sang with more feelings then I remembered on Valentine's day.

(FLASHBACK to Valentine's day when Hiccup's 7 year old)

I worked hard on the forge, I was making a crafty axe for Astrid, and she loved hunting so I guess I could give her something she would like for Valentine's Day. I went outside then looked around for Astrid, I noticed that there was a flower above the hill, I ran towards it then pluck some for Astrid. After plucking I continued to look around Astrid, I rushed towards the shadows of houses trying to sneak and since I rather not deal with Snotlout and his friends when suddenly Snotlout appeared out of nowhere and tripped me, he spoke "ooh it looks like useless wants to give someone a valentines gift", he looked at the flowers I plucked, he smirked then said "ooh flowers, pretty classic don't ya think", Tuffnut and Ruffnut laughed then suddenly Snotlout stepped on it harshly and said "Ooops, looks like I stepped on something", they all laughed evilly, I pleaded "Please Snotlout leave me alone", he smirked then kicked me on the ribs, he spoke "As if".

He then noticed the Axe, it was well made, I should know since I made it, It took me allot of effort and time just to make it, I poured it even my feeling s for Astrid. He spoke "oooh what do we have here", he bent down and picked up the axe, I tried to snatch it away from him but he just kicked me away , he inspected it then said "This is good..." he still kept inspecting it as Ruffnut and Tuffnut did as well, Ruffnut spoke "Woah, this is amazing, heh too bad that useless wouldn't even able to give it" she laughed then Tuffnut commented "Should we break it?", Snotlout spoke "nope" , he looked at me grinning evilly then said "Don't mind if I borrow this would ya", I pleaded "No, please ,It took me a while just to make that", they all laughed then Snotlout spoke "too bad useless", then suddenly Astrid came.

Snotlout rushed towards her and said "Oh, Astrid I got you something", she looked at him incredulously, he handed her the axe that I gave, she inspected it and said "Wow, this is awesome ", Snotlout bragged "Yep... I made it". Astrid spoke "Thanks... " she left.

(FLASHBACK END)

I tried to hold back my tears as much as possible.

~Music Ends~

I looked around and saw that Kristoff looked at me sadly as Ji tipped his hat down but still could be seen that he's frowning, then I looked towards Elsa, Anna and Miwayumi who looked at me with mixed confusion and sadness.

That's all for now.

7. Chapter 6

I got the idea for Hiccup's element thanks to Guest C so yeah, thanks dude. While Elsa's remains the same. Not much really gonna happen with their powers, the ideas for powers on Hiccup were similar format for Kaze no Stigma in some view and I don't own that anime.

Disclaimer: I don't own How to train your dragon and Frozen.

Chapter 6: Feelings part 2

Hiccup's POV

I felt something flowing on my face, I reach it and brush it off with my hand, I look at it and saw that it was tears, it wasn't sweat since its pretty cold here. Kristoff looked at me with concern and asked "You alright Hiccup?". I immediately brush of my tears with my arm and said "Yeah, I'm alright". The concerned look at Kristoff didn't fade and said "Alright", Ji and the other clapped awkwardly then Ji said trying to ease the moment "Alright who's next?", I thought sarcastically "_Oh great_"

Elsa's POV

I looked at Hiccup with such concern, I felt my chest constricts as I thought "_I wonder what kind of memory of Hiccup remembered, it's definitely bad, judging from the song he used for his introduction is.. very lonely.. like me.. Hiccup.._". I snapped out of my thought as Anna awkwardly volunteered hoping to break that emotional moment . Anna asked "Do you guys mind if I make a duet with Kristoff?", Ji and Kristoff shrugged as Miwayumi said unsure "I guess you could do that". Anna stood up with excitement and went towards Kristoff then Hiccup tried to walk towards an empty seat but Anna stopped him said "Hiccup, please play the piano while me and Kristoff sing". Hiccup nodded and went back towards the piano, he sat on the chair as Anna walked towards him then whispered the song, he nodded then Anna walked back towards Kristoff.

~Cue the music, It's you by Road & Ashe (A/N: I don't own that song)~

Hiccup started playing as Anna sang, they sang in a sync as I kept glancing towards Hiccup while having some attention towards my sister and Kristoff, I noticed that someone is watching me, I looked around and saw Miwayumi who was smirking, I looked away from her as I remained my attention towards my sister, Hiccup and Kristoff, I could say that Hiccup is very talented with music, the way he sang lately was beautiful yet sad. I sighed then thought "_Anna and Kristoff really sang great together, I hope that they stay together unlike what happened to me and Hans_".

~Music Ends~

Miwayumi and I clapped as Anna and Kristoff bowed in sync as well, I thought "_How much sync are these two_", Anna spoke cheerfully "Thank you, thank you, now Elsa it's your turn", I sweated nervously as I see that there's no escape now. I sighed in defeat and walked towards them as Anna walked towards an empty seat and sat on it. Ji asked "so what song are you gonna sing for us?", I thought for a second whispered to him, he looked at me incredulously then said "wow I guess you guys chose acoustic songs for today", Ji walked towards Kristoff and whispered then went towards Hiccup then whispered what he whispered to Kristoff. Kristoff went towards the drums then sat on the seat and get ready as Ji went to his closet and rummage some stuff, few seconds later he came back with a violin, Miwayumi spoke in interest "Oooh, it's been a long since you play violin Ji, I hope you're not rusted", Ji sighed then said "I hope as well". (A/N: Don't ask how they knew random songs, its just convenient for the story)

~Cue the Music Let it go (A/N: I don't own that song, and I guess it's too obvious for that)~

Hiccup started play first, I sang afterwards, then few seconds later Ji joined as he started to play the violin then Kristoff joined as well, I sang with more feeling as I felt that I got lost in the moment as I remembered the days with Hans.

 (FLASHBACK TWO YEARS AGO) **

I was walking at the park with Hans, we enjoyed the company of each other too well, I suddenly saw a chocolate shop as I myself have loved chocolates, I looked at Hans, I was excuse myself a bit then headed towards the chocolate shop but then suddenly he spoke "Hey Elsa, I got to get something back there", he pointed behind him with his thumb, I looked behind him and saw some sort of shop I guess. I nodded then said "Alright, meet me back here alright?", he nodded then I rushed towards the chocolate shop, feeling my excitement I couldn't help but to giggle. I entered, I looked around for something delicious, I saw a beautiful crafted chocolate, it has a figure of a snowflake. I smiled then went towards the cashier, I spoke "Can you get me that chocolate please", I pointed towards the snowflake then saw something beside it, it was a heart shaped chocolate, I thought for second " I guess I could give it to Anna", I smiled at that thought and said "And the one beside it as well the heart shaped one", the guy nodded as he carefully took the selected chocolate and wrapped it nicely, I paid for it then said "Thanks", he replied "Thank you ma'am, please come again", I nodded then exited, I went back towards the place where Hans and I supposed to meet.

_I waited for an hour, I looked at my watch impatiently, and then huffed in a bit irritation, I looked around and saw something unusual, I saw Hans talking to a girl, I secretly walked towards them. I hid behind a wall as I peek and listened on what they're up to, Hans spoke "You're the most beautiful woman I've seen", I gasped at hearing those words, the girl giggled and said "Oh my, aren't you a sweet heart", she placed her hand on his chest then leaned towards him then gave a peck on his cheek. I felt a bit betrayed but I didn't jumped to conclusions as I thought "Maybe she's a cousin or a siblingâ€| Han's won't betray me". Hans chuckled then said "Of course, say.. would you mind if you, me have a lovely dinner tomorrow, I'm completely free tomorrow night, so you in?", the girl giggled and answered "sure, how about 8 pm?", Hans nodded and said "Alright", the girl smiled at him then leaned towards him as Hans leaned as well then they kissed passionately. I felt my world shattered in to a million pieces, I clutched my chest as I ran away as my tears flowed onto my face, I didn't looked back as I just kept running towards my house._

~2 days later~

Han's and I broke up, we didn't talked and even saw each other, I was walking peacefully at the school's garden, it was completely quiet, not much people wander much here anymore. It's lunch break but I don't feel like eating, Anna tried to convinced me to move on and cheered me up, her efforts was futile, I did moved on but the feeling of been betrayed still stung. I sighed as I kept wondering aimlessly, suddenly I was pinned on a tree, I looked at the perpetrator and saw it was Hans, I exclaimed "What the hell do you think you're doing?!", Hans smirked and said "Oh please, as if you're not enjoying this", he then he moved his right hand between my thighs as he then tried to lick my neck, I tried to shove him away but quickly shrugged it off as he then tore some of my clothes as I cried for help, luckily there was a teacher wandering then saw us, the teacher exclaimed "HEY! What do you think you're doing?", Hans smirked then said "Nothing, she was forcing me to take her virginity, her seduction was too much for me to handle". I fumed and exclaimed in fury "AS IF! YOU PERVERTED BASTARD!", the teacher spoke in authority "Stop, you two", he pointed both of us then continued "in principal's office".

~Few minutes later~

The principal spoke "Elsa, I'm quite surprised that you tried to seduce this young man, you should know better with such stature", I protested "But sir, he tried to molest me and I'm the one getting a punishment, can't you see my torn clothes?", Hans smugly said "Oh please, you and your seductive tactics, letting a principal to look t your exposed flesh". I fumed and gritted my teeth in frustration, the principal nodded and said "Elsa, you're here by getting Detention for 6 months", I spoke in disbelief "What?!", the principal spoke in authority "And that's final". I looked down and defeat then glared at Hans with such hate". I then thought "Men are bunch of liars and completely blind, no more I would have feelings for men, conceal my feelings and don't feel anything towards them"

~week later~

_I was with my sister trying to do some bonding stuff as to take off my mind from Hans and men, it was night and dark as we immediately ran towards our house, but suddenly we we're pinned on a wall by men, Anna cried "Elsa!", she was immediately knocked out by a chop from the back of her neck thanks to an asshole, then suddenly Hans appeared, I didn't even hoped that he was gonna save us but then suddenly he walked casually towards Anna as if the thugs wasn't even there, he picked her up as he used the wall as a support, Hans spoke "Oooh, you've got some fine sister, mind if I take her for awhile", I exclaimed "YOU WOULDN'T DARE!", Hans smugly replied "Or what?, as if you can do anything in such fragile body of yours, don't worry after I'm done with your sister you'll be next", I fumed as I was consumed by rage, I blacked out. I then suddenly saw that the whole place was completely frozen and Anna was still unconscious, I looked around and saw Hans and his thugs were also unconscious then I looked at my hands, I'm visibly shaking in fear as I thought "what have I done? Did I do this?", I immediately carried my sister and ran towards our house"_

(FLASHBACK END)

I sang a bit uncomfortable as my voice was getting a bit shaky but then I remembered the times with Hiccup, I closed my eyes as I just flowed with the song.

(FLASHBACK)

Hiccup spoke "Elsa, can I borrow an extra pen if you have one please", I stared at him curiously and thought "Eh?.. that's all?", at first I thought he was just acting to be a nice guy so he could get closer to me and asked me to do something they like as I just willing to do anything they want, but it seems that he just wanted to have a pen so Weselton wouldn't chew his butt off. I took my extra pen and gave it to him secretly, he just smiled at me then said thanks, I felt my cheeks heated up as I could feel the sincerity on that voice then nodded at him as I looked down in embarrassment.

(FLASHBACK END)

I smiled at that memory then I opened my eyes, I saw that my sister was smiling but I could see some tears on her eyes as I thought "_is she crying?". I closed my eyes then remembered another memory.

(FLASHBACK)

Hiccup rushed towards me then snatched my arm off from Hans's grip then his arms snaked around my waste as he didn't even noticed that his milk was spilled on the floor, I felt his toned muscle as I forced to not blush in front of these people, then I saw the Hiccup shoved Hans away from us, Hans stumbled and fell on his butt, he was gonna retaliate but Ji with his 'accidental slip,' we managed to stay out of trouble.

(FLASHBACK END)

~Music Ends~

The song was finished as Ji, Kristoff and Hiccup stopped playing their songs, Anna spoke in awe "That was beautiful Elsa", Ji and Kristoff nodded as Hiccup spoke in awe "Wow, you've got really such amazing voice", I blushed profusely as I looked down in embarrassment. Miwayumi suddenly suggested "Ooooh, I know why don't Hiccup and Elsa sing together, Kristoff and Anna had a duet so why not them?", Hiccup raised an eyebrow then looked at me, I looked back at him then shrugged. Hiccup spoke hesitantly "I guess we could do that, but I won't speak for Elsa if she would or would not sing". I smiled inwardly at that and said as if it doesn't matter "Sure, it's no big deal", but in truth I am completely excited to try to have a duet with Hiccup. I walked towards him then whispered a suggestion, he thought for a second then nodded, he walked towards Ji and Kristoff then whispered, they nodded then Ji gently placed the violin on a small table, he then took an electric guitar as he strapped it to his shoulder, I stood up then walked towards the bass guitar then strap it on my shoulder.

Anna's POV

I smiled at them as I could sense that Miwayumi's suggestion would turn up to have a positive effect. I thought "_Hiccup, please mend my sister's broken trust on men, I believe that you're not a man like Hans, I can see as well that she's starting to like you, please break her out of her shell_".

~Cue the Music, Another heart calls by All American rejects (A/N: I don't own that song as well)~

They started playing their instruments, I heard a giggle then looked around and saw that Miwayumi was giggling evilly, I couldn't help but to smirk, she was recording this on her phone, she didn't even bothered to try hiding since the attention wasn't focused on her. I just sat and watched at them playing their instruments as Hiccup and Elsa started to sing, it was completely an amazing duet, despite that they only tried to have duet once they already managed to make a synchronized duet, I'd say it wasn't really a beginner's luck or anything but just shrugged that thought. At first those two were a bit hesitant and unsure but after awhile they began to feel the rhythm as til they managed to sing in a amazing sync as they pour some emotions on the song.

~Music Ends~

The music ended, as Hiccup and Elsa panted, it was clearly that they put allot of effort and some emotions on the song, they looked at each other then blushed and looked away. I smiled at them and said "Wow, you two did great", Kristoff continued "You bet they did, that was really amazing you two, I kinda feel jealous that Anna and I didn't even got to do that in first try", Elsa and Hiccup just blushed brighter and said in unison "Thanks../Uh.. yeah..", Miwayumi clapped her hands gaining attention, she spoke "Alright, jamming session's over, Ji and I still have to rescue the cats in the pound", Ji sighed then said "Ughâ€| yeahâ€| and she's really pushing it", Kristoff, Elsa, Hiccup and I chuckled at that. We bid farewell to each other as we headed back towards our houses but before we can go, Elsa walked towards Hiccup, she kissed his cheek and said "Thanks", I couldn't help but to squeal inward, Kristoff and Miwayumi jaw dropped at that scene as Ji tipped his hat down then smiled while Hiccup blushed then stuttered "u-uhhâ€| i-it's n-nothing.. e-even though i-I don't h-have a-any idea w-why your t-thanking m-me", Elsa just shook his head in amusement then walked away from Hiccup.

Hiccup's POV

I was clearly surprised that Elsa kissed me, at least my cheek, I was completely have no idea how to react on that, we separated as we headed back towards our separate homes, after awhile I sensed something, I looked up as I could see the thunder clouds, I panicked a bit then ran towards my house, I'm a bit paranoid when it comes to safety but hey who could you blame for wanting safety. I just ran but suddenly a lightning had struck me, I was completely electrocuted.

No one's POV

Hiccup was twitching as he got struck by lightning, he blacked out, unbeknown to him while he was struck by lightning a mark was imprinted on his neck, it was a shape of a lightning or Pikachu's tail (A/N: I don't own that pokemon and any pokemon at all). After awhile of twitching, he stirred up as he immediately sat up, he looked around, he was unconscious on a street, he was thankful that he wasn't unconscious on the road, it could've been trouble or worse he got squashed by a car. He sighed in relief, he stood up as he remembered that he was struck by lightning, he looked at his clothes, there were some burned marks and some parts were torn, he spoke sarcastically "Oh great, new fashion design", he rolled his eyes then ran back towards his house but noticed something, he looked up at the sky again then saw that it was clear and night, this caught his attention, he thought "Night?! Oh crap, I hope dad isn't that worried", he dashed towards his house. He arrived panting, his dad asked worried "Hiccup, Where have you been? I've been worried sick, I tried to call your friend Ji, Kristoff and Elsa".

Hiccup was gonna say something but then he heard the names, he spoke "Wait.. how did you get their numbers?", Stoick laughed then stated proudly "I didn't get the nickname 'Stoick the Vast' for nothing lad", Hiccup sighed then muttered "of course..", Stoick didn't hear that then Hiccup spoke "Well, I just looked around dad", Stoick raised an eyebrow then inspected his son, he spoke "With torn clothes?", Hiccup rubbed the back of his head then sheepishly spoke "Well, I got lost around and there was some bush with annoying thorns", Stoick sighed in relief then said "Alright, just be careful next time Hiccup and try to at least send me a message if you're gonna be away for awhile. Hiccup nodded then said "Sorry dad", Stoick nodded back . Stoick spoke "Well, dinner's ready". We ate in relative silent, Hiccup thanked for the meal then headed back upstairs with milk and a bowl for Toothless, Hiccup felt weak.

He tiredly placed a bowl in front of Toothless and poured a bottle of milk on it, Toothless smiled and barked happily at Hiccup but then he looked at Hiccup closer and saw he was ill, Toothless whimpered in empathy towards Hiccup, Hiccup smiled at Toothless then petted him in comfort, Toothless barked happily then drank the milk as he lick it all up. Hiccup lied down on his bed and slept, after few minutes Toothless slept as well, few hours later, Hiccup tossed and turned.

~Hiccup's Dream~

Hiccup was at a snowy mountain, he looked around but suddenly a lightning struck in front of him as debris scattered then he covered his face as he crossed his arms defencively. Suddenly a man spoke "Hiccup, you're chosen, as of now an unstable female needs your help, I gave you some of my powers to protect yourself, I know that it wouldn't really protect you from it but you don't necessarily have to defeat her, just make her stable, she's very fragile. Hades is now have a contract with Hades, a greek god, Norse gods aren't sympathico but still managed to keep such differences at bay, it's your duty to protect her, understand?", Hiccup asked "Wait, who are you? Why chose me? And who's her?", the man chuckled a bit "First of I'm Thor, god of thunder, secondly I chose you since you're empathy to almost everything is outstanding and thirdly you'll know her when the time's right, although you already met her", Hiccup raised an eyebrow and asked "Really? Waitâ€| this is just a dream isn't itâ€| and you're not real", Thor spoke "Yes this is a dream, but no this is real, and I'm very real my friend, you've been struck by lightning earlier and live as if nothing happened".

Hiccup asked "Wait.. how did you know that?", Thor smiled then placed his hand on Hiccup's shoulder and said "I'm real my friend and I've chosen you for this task to save a poor maiden for making this place a icy tundra.. please, save her", Hiccup nodded seriously and said "I will", Thor smiled then said "Alright.."

~Meanwhile Elsa's Dream~

Hans spoke "Hades, it seems another guy tried to take Elsa, what do you think shall we do?". Hades spoke with such anger "Of course, if only you've stopped your womanizer urge this wouldn't have happen", Hans spoke in fear "I'm terribly sorry", Hades spoke seemed to be calming down "Since you've already possessed some of my powers, just eliminate the boy with stealth and finesse", Hans spoke "Understood, Hiccup would be eliminated".

~Dream end~

Elsa woke up, breathing heavily as she thought "_What kind of dream was that?" _She looked around and saw the whole room was frozen she panicked then thought "_If that was true, oh no... Hiccup, I hope that dream wasn't real_", she immediately wore her gloves then went back to sleep, in her sleep she murmured "Hiccupâ€¦".

That's all for now... Not much really changes, there were some changes lately that would only take effect on the later chapters.

8. Chapter 7

Well sorry guys for my terrible grammar and for picking Greek gods vs Norse gods seems better than Norse gods vs. Roman gods, at least in my perspective. Had some research in this fic. Expect to see Jack, Merida and Repunzel in chapter 13 guys. :) would not be changing anything on this chapter.

Chapter 7: Chosens (A/N: Cheesy I know)

~Anna and Kristoff's dream~

~No one's POV~

Anna and Kristoff were in a beautiful garden, filled with different kinds of butterflies, flowers and some trees. Kristoff asked in disbelief "Anna?", Anna squealed and said "Kristoff!", they rushed towards each other then embraced each other lovingly. Suddenly a feminine voice have been heard by the two, she spoke "Ah, Anna and Kristoff", Anna and Kristoff were astonished as they looked around, they saw a beautiful woman. Anna asked "Excuse me but, who are you?", the woman smiled and spoke "My name is Frigg, the goddess of marriage, motherhood and keeper of domestic arts", Kristoff raised an eyebrow while asking "Alright, what does a goddess of marriage, motherhood and keeper of domestic arts want with us?", Frigg chuckled lightly then said solemnly "I need you guys to look after two person, my son already gave your friend a blessing to aid you from, as of now your sister Elsa was the daughter of Khione, greek goddess of Snow, Hades, god of the underworld knew that with her he could use her as a hostage to defeat Boreas the god of North wind" (A/N: Well they said in some myth Khione had daughter with unknown man).

Anna and Kristoff were beyond shocked by this revelation, Kristoff asked unsure "Um.. not to be rude but isn't it said to be against the rules of gods to interfere with the lives of mortals?", Frigg nodded sadly and said "Yes, but it didn't said that we can't but it doesn't mean we can't influence them, though heed my warning, protect your sister Anna, there are people who would aid you for that, as of now Hades has already have influenced some people", Kristoff rubbed his temples gently as he spoke "Alright let me get this straight, Elsa is in trouble and your son gave a blessing to a 'friend' to protect from a god of underworld? And you expect us to manage to fend them off?", Frigg nodded, Kristoff sighed as Anna rubbed his back in comfort, Anna smiled at him. Frigg couldn't help but to smile at the scene, she spoke "Alright, it's time to wake up, you two would be late if you still kept sleeping"

~Meanwhile Ji's Dream~

Ji was standing in front of a mountain cliff as he could see a great view of a forest. A voice was heard behind his back, Ji turned around and saw a man with unique armor, Ji asked lamely "Who are you suppose to be?", the man spoke plainly "Hoenir". Ji nodded and said casually "cool", Hoenir spoke "you have great skills with swords, yet you don't show it, I wondering why", Ji sighed then answered sadly "Promiseâ€¦", Hoenir inspected Ji as he walk in circles around him, Ji asked "What are you doing?", Hoenir nodded sagely and said "Yes, you're fit, as of now a friend of mine needs help, just protect a child named Elsa, that's all I ask", Ji nodded weirded out but of course he wouldn't let any friend of his get hurt, Hoenir nodded back as they just looked at the scenery in enjoyment and peace in a completely utter silence.

~Meanwhile Miwayumi's Dream~

Miwayumi was sitting on a hammock as she was petting her pet cat, the cat purred as someone spoke behind her she spoke "Hello child", Miwayumi raised an eyebrow and spoke unamused "and you are?", Freya shook her head in amusement then spoke "My name is Freya, goddess of love, beauty and attraction", Miwayumi asked clearly uninterested "Uhuh.. so what does a goddess like you want anything to do with me?", Freya smiled at her then spoke "Straight to the point then, alright I need you to protect a child name Elsa, as of now I guess some concerned gods have already saw that Hades, god of the underworld is plotting something heinous acts, we already sent Hermod to send a message to Zeus but didn't head our warning, as of now they believed that their brother Hades is innocent, and of course since Greek gods and Norse gods aren't really in a good relations, Greek gods sought that we only wanted to tore their trust at each other so we could eliminate them". Miwayumi sighed then spoke "Alright, though I can't actually believe that this is really happening but wait.. this is a dream right?", Freya nodded then Miwayumi asked "So how would I know if your warning is real?", Freya soothingly spoke "My warning is very real child, your friends have already have been warned you may ask them for you to confirm your suspicions if you want".

~Hiccup's Room~

-DAY-

~Hiccup's POV~

I woke up, I stirred up slowly then sat up gently, I raised my arms as I stretched, I sat for a moment as I thought about a weird dream "_I wonder if that dream is real or not", I stood up as I was gonna pack all my stuff when I touched my pair of scissors suddenly my lamp went towards the pair of scissors as it seemed to be attracted to it, I nearly jumped in surprise as my lamp was detached from the socket as it sailed towards the pair of scissors and stick onto it like it was been glued to it. I thought "_What the?..", I dropped the pair of scissors as it appears to be that the lamp detached to the pair of scissors, I thought for a second "_Thor isn't he a god of thunder?... wait a minute, each electron is surrounded by force called electric field, so when it moves it creates a second field which is a magnetic field when it flowed into a some sort of conductor the bracelets, I could definitely use it all I need to do is to put some wire onto it so it can act like a bulb plus coat the it with anti magnets to nullify the magnetic field caused by the electricity when electrons flowed in a current through a conductor, well that's if I don't wear rubber shoes meh just to be safe then".

I noticed that it was still dark outside so I looked towards the clock and saw it was 5 am, I sighed in annoyance. I looked at Toothless then saw him sleeping comfortably. I hoped that there's still magnetic foil shield at the garage, I wore rubber boots then took the bracelets then headed towards the garage, it took allot of time and effort but managed to finish it, luckily I was able to smelt the silver then took out the quarts, I took some copper wires, once I had the half of the silver brace shaped with some holes in and on it, I carefully placed the quarts on the embed areas as then attached copper wires in trail in the holes, I then did the other half as well then after doing the same I attached it to the other half, once I finished the first I did the second one as well, it took time but it was worth it, I wouldn't want to attract soo much attention. I managed to finish it, I looked at my watch and it was 7:20 AM, I panicked then wore the bracelets and rushed to take a bath upstairs, after taking a bath I didn't bothered to toast bread for breakfast, just took two slices of bread then rushed off while eating them. I was clearly as I just took a regular bus and ran all the way through.

~Arenhigh~

-DAY-

-8:23 AM-

I arrived my classroom, Mr. Weselton spoke "Oh Hiccup, it's nice of you to join us late", I thought sarcastically "_Oh great, just great, what a beautiful day_" I lowered my head in embarrassment and said "Sorry, Mr. Weselton", he replied "Sorry doesn't cover up mistakes Mr. Haddock", he just pointed towards my seat and glared daggers at me, the class laughed at me though Ji as usual just stared out side while Kristoff smiled at me and Elsa looked at me with such straight face. I immediately walked towards my seat, as I walked to my seat a jerk put his foot on my path, I didn't noticed it as I just kept walking then tripped, I fell but managed to use my hands to break the fall, the jerk just smirked at me as I stared at him uninterested, that wiped his smirk on his face then glared at me, I just stood up then brushed off some dirt as if nothing happened then continued to walk back to seat, nobody laughed at that scene, I was merely confused on why, I looked around as they just stared at me surprised. I looked at Ji who still not even caring to bother and look then Kristoff who just started to write something on his notebook.

I looked at Elsa who just stared forward not even glancing sideways, they just looked at me with such interest in their eyes, Mr. Weselton spoke "Alright class, pay attention", the class now faced forward towards Mr. Weselton except Ji who ignored Mr. Weselton, I suddenly noticed my wrist, I saw the bracelets as the embed quarts seemed to glow beautifully then I felt being watched, unlike last time who was just Elsa but now I could say quarter of the class was staring at me, I'm not sure if it's me or the bracelets, took out my stuff as I prepared myself for whatever Mr. Weselton had in stored for us. I then glanced on my left as I saw Elsa staring at my bracelet, I faked cough quietly, that snapped the daze out of her, she then looked at me with such confusion, I sighed then just listened to Mr. Weselton.

~Cafeteria~

We managed to meet up at quickly, we didn't even have to save seats since we got early dismissal, We sat down at our table, Kristoff noticed the bracelets then asked "So Hiccup, I thought you were gonna give that bracelets to a certain special lady".

~Elsa's POV~

I blushed profusely then looked down trying to hide it, it seemed that Hiccup didn't notice as he answered "Ah wellâ€¦ I guess it's not going to happen since I doubt I would have a special lady?", I felt a bit stung at those words and thought "_Hiccup, I believe you will, so you must as well_", Anna spoke a bit furious at Hiccup giving up "Don't say such thing as that Hiccup, remember what Ji said we all have our paired person", Ji spoke defensive for Hiccup "Yes I did that, but doesn't mean you have to rush it", Anna sighed then Kristoff asked about the bracelets "So Hiccup, those are nice bracelets but I don't remember that it glows like that, care to explain?". That intrigued me as well, it doesn't looked like there's a battery slots or even powered by battery, he sighed then replied trying to come up with excuse "Ah well, you see it's kinda rechargeableâ€¦ um.. it's complicated sorry", Kristoff nodded in acceptance. Hiccup glanced at me then noticed that I was wearing gloves, he asked "Uh.. Elsa, why are you wearing gloves at summer?", they all stared at me incredulously, I replied with a cold manner "Yeah well, it just felt nice to wear gloves today, does it bothers you?".

Hiccup waved his hand in defense and said "No, no, it's just very unusual, very uniqueâ€¦", I frowned then he continued "What? Unique is good, heck it's awesome", I blushed at that compliment as Elsa and Miwayumi snickered while Kristoff and Ji smiled but of course Ji tipped his hat first before smiling. Miwayumi glared at Ji then quickly snatched his hat and said annoyed "How many times did I told you to stop wearing your hat indoors", Ji sighed in defeat and said "Whatever", a tick mark appeared on Miwayumi's head then she balled up her fist then punched Ji at the shoulder, Ji winced a bit then said plainly "Ouchâ€¦", Anna and Kristoff laughed at him, Ji just pouted much to Miwayumi's amusement. Ji suddenly asked "Soâ€¦ anybody had the dream?", Miwayumi, Kristoff, Anna and Hiccup face became serious, they all nodded, Ji sighed and said "I can't believe that you guys dreamt as well", I looked at them confused as I asked "What dream?", Hiccup sighed then was gonna say something when Ji cut him off by putting his hand on Hiccup's mouth, Ji spoke "Well, as much as I want for Hiccup to tell his dream about you and something like a tropical vacation with only two of you but, I prefer Hiccup not to get carried away", I blushed lightly but had the doubt of him telling the truth.

Anna's POV

I looked at my sister with such sadness but quickly shrugged it off, we're doing this for my sister's well being and we would protect her no matter what, I bet Hiccup did as well swore to protect her no matter what, Kristoff tried to sooth the awkward moment by teasing Miwayumi "Anyways, the last time we played truth or dare Miwayumi wasn't able to choose", Miwayumi sweated nervously, Ji spoke "well it stopped on Elsa so she's gonna ask her", Elsa nodded then thought for a second, she spoke "Alright Miwayumi, Double truth, Double dare or Truth and Dare?", she thought for a moment and said in triumph "Double dare, Hah!", I raised an eyebrow then she asked "Alright, now I dare you to tell me the truth on what dream are you guys really talking about", we all looked at each other nervously, we cursed the loophole in the game as we thought for a moment, Elsa impatiently said "Wellâ€¦ I'm waiting", we all sighed in defeat, Miwayumi spoke quietly in defeat "Alrightâ€¦ the truth is we dreamt of such tragedy about youâ€¦. Though the gods said that there was someone that have been blessed to protect you from Hades, we still didn't know which was that person", Elsa nodded in acceptance then spoke again "Alright I dare you to find that person", Miwayumi sweated nervously then sighed again and spoke "Ughâ€¦", she looked at them, she asked "alright so guys, please tell me whoever you are that have been blessed", Ji sighed then spoke "It wasâ€¦", he paused for a bit as we leaned closer at him and thought that maybe he was the person but then continued "not me", we faced dropped while Miwayumi just punched him at the shoulder again and said "I was asking who was it, not who wasn't you jerk", Ji just sighed then muttered "I was just saying it wasn't me", she huffed then I spoke "Ah well, it wasn't me and Kristoff since we had been in one dream".

We knew that there's only one of remaining and Miwayumi asked in disbelief "Hiccup?", Hiccup sighed then said "Alright, it's meâ€¦ I was hoping that it's going to be a secret but it seems that it won't be", Elsa blushed then spoke stuttered "A-alright, s-so you're a-assigned to p-protect me r-right?", Hiccup nodded in defeat as he looked down, I sighed sadly as we were about to plan to help her without her knowing to reduce the stress that she's been through, Elsa then spoke "It's Hans, Hans is Hades's disciple", I asked "how do you know?", she spoke sadly "well, at first I was confused why I'm having that dream, it seems they're going to dispatch Hiccup", Hiccup's eyes widened and asked in disbelief "Me?", Elsa nodded and said solemnly "I'm sorry Hiccup, I didn't knew how you got in this mess", Hiccup just smiled at Elsa comfortingly and said "At least we're all together with this, no one would abandon each other right".

We all smiled at that statement then nodded , Ji spoke "Right, no one should be left behind, though Miwayumi and I still have training, I'm quite getting rusted as well Miwayumi is", I asked "rusted?".

Miwayumi smirked then said confidently "you'll see", we raised an eyebrow at that proclamation. Elsa asked intrigued "So, Hiccup, what blessings did the gods gave you?", Hiccup shook his head then said "I wouldn't use my abilities just for the heck of it as much as possible I wouldn't want to use it at all", Ji nodded at that then said "Hiccup's right if he kept using it, sooner or later he would be attracting unwanted attention", Elsa sighed in defeat and said annoyed "Fine" Hiccup nodded in appreciation and said "Soo much for secrets, I guess we should have just acted normally", Ji sighed seeing their error and said "Yeah I guess we should have", we all sighed at this except Elsa who was pouting. I spoke trying to ease the tension "Alright, so far now Elsa knew that we're going to protect her from now on, Miwayumi and Ji seemed to be more useful at this than Kristoff and I, and I assume that Hiccup will take care of Hans", Miwayumi nodded then continued "Yes, so far, Hiccup you should train to use your blessings more properly, Ji and I already figured out what was the blessings, thanks for the clue with your bracelets". I asked "So how did you guys figure it out?", Ji lamely spoke "easy, the bracelets, it has an element that will tell you a clue then the quarts and finally I assume that there's some kind of anti magnet on it right?", Hiccup gulped nervously then said hesitant afraid to give clue to Elsa "yes..".

Elsa glared at Ji but not hostile, Elsa spoke "Tch, jerks, why can't you just tell me? It's not like that it has any effect on me..", Ji sighed then spoke "look it could be just fancy sword or anything, why are you so keen on finding out".

Elsa's POV

I thought sadly "_I just wanted to know, I hate feeling like a freak when I remember that I have powers I hate it.. I could have harmed Anna and Hiccup_" I sighed in defeat the spoke "look I'm just curious nothing more, nothing less". I could tell that Ji and Miwayumi didn't bought my excuse but nodded nevertheless. Hiccup spoke comfortingly "look Elsa.. it's better you not knowing, it could harm you and I don't like you being hurt one bit", I blushed lightly at his speech and couldn't help but to nod in acceptance, he smiled at me lightly then said "Don't worry, we all are going to protect you no matter what, we won't let you be harmed ever again", I looked down a bit guilty, I spoke sadly "fine thanks guys.."

Chapter 8: Hiccup Horrendous Haddock

~Hiccup's POV~

I spoke "Alright guys, we should head back to class now, lunch time is almost over", we nodded then bid farewell, Miwayumi and Anna separated from our group as we headed back. Few minutes later at Drama class, I sighed in annoyance, I really don't like this class much though I'm a bit eased knowing that Ji and Elsa was with me, I'm kind of surprise that Ji even picked a class like this, I looked at him then saw him taking a nap as I thought "_Of courseâ€|_", the teacher spoke "As of now, we're going to have a school play, and everybody would have to audition for this play", I thought "_Ughâ€| how much worse can this get?_", suddenly a random girl asked "So what play are we talking about sir?", the teacher answered "Ah, yes, it's sleeping beauty", I sighed then thought "_I could already tell that this would be a painâ€|_", I took out a water bottle out of my bag then I drank the water, suddenly another random girl spoke "Oooh, How about Elsa as the Princess?", the teacher spoke "I guess she could..", then another girl quickly added "And Hiccup would be the prince", I gagged as I almost spit out some water, I coughed a bit as I tried to recompose myself while the class awkwardly turned towards me as they looked at me like I grew another head.

Elsa's POV

I blushed lightly as the girl suggested that Hiccup and I would be the leading roles, suddenly Hiccup coughed, we all looked at him thought I feel concerned on what's wrong with Hiccup, he just laughed sheepishly as he rubs the back of his head in embarrassment and said "Sorry, please continue, though please, I don't think that's a good idea", the teacher asked "and why is that?", I looked at Hiccup curiously as I thought "_Doesn't he like the idea of us playing such romantic play? Waitâ€| no Elsa.. don't think of something like thatâ€| Men are disgusting loners, greedy murderers and jerk sociopaths, butâ€| Hiccup's different_..", I sighed as I don't know what to think about Hiccup, he's not like other men, he's just really a nice guy. The teacher continued "Alright, I guess we already selected out leading roles, Hiccup exclaimed "What?!", we looked at him again as the teacher spoke "You got any questions Mr. Haddock?", Hiccup nodded then asked "Don't we get auditions first before you choose which roles benefit for us?", the teacher sighed then said "yes, but it seems that you two fit these role perfectly, Elsa is a talented woman as I could say you have as well, your talents with arts are simply amazing, it's a simple chance to show us what your truly capable of", I inwardly felt light as I feel a bit excited on the play.

The teacher asked "So, anyone ready for the audition?", he looked around and saw Ji sleeping, he sighed then spoke "could anyone please wake up Mr. Gragerd", Hiccup nodded then shook Ji trying to wake him up, Hiccup spoke "Ji, Ji", Ji started to stir up as he looked around, the teacher spoke "it's nice for you to join us Mr. Gragerd", Ji just rubbed his head then yawned tiredly. I thought "_He's soo carelesslyâ€|_" the teacher continued "Alright, so Ji as of now since you preferred sleeping in my class you'll be one of the seven dwarves", I laughed inwardly at him as I tried to imagine Ji to be one of the dwarves, Ji asked lamely "Dwarves?", the teacher nodded and answered "Yes, dwarves", Ji lamely asked "Can I just be a tree or something?", the class erupted with laughter as I couldn't help but to giggle, the teacher faced palm and said simply "No, there's not tree as a character but as a setting only", Ji asked again "Can I just be a stage crew?" I'm not really good at acting", the teacher asked a bit disappointed "then why enrolled in a drama class?", Ji thought for a second then spoke "I have no idea, I really don't remember enrolling into this class in the first place though I just thought I'll wing it".

The teacher's eye twitched for a moment then spoke "Ah well.. you'll be one of the seven dwarves", I laughed inward as I thought "_Probably Miwayumi's work, I think she wanted Ji to show more emotion but this is just hilarious_", Hiccup sighed at Ji's lame excuse though it did sound like Miwayumi's work obviously.

~Moments later~

~Mall~

-DUSK-

After class we decided to go to the mall for awhile, well it was mostly Anna and Miwayumi's idea but we just came nonetheless. I'm not really a fan of shopping with boys but at least it means we get extra hand for carrying stuff. Hiccup groaned and asked "Exactly why are we even here?", Ji asked "yeah.. It's not like we're even needed here", Miwayumi sighed then spoke "Ji, you and I going to need to buy leg weights, you used to be fast but since you hit by Hans means you're becoming slower than you used to be, and Anna and I have to buy clothes since we're girls", Ji and Hiccup faced palm as Kristoff placed his arms on Ji and Hiccup's shoulder then said "heh, girls, don't worry we could do some guy stuff later, let the girls enjoy, remember later we will be facing foes that we don't even know, we might as well enjoy this moment while it lasts", Hiccup sighed then said "Yeah?" I just hope we would be able to protect Elsa, though I'm curious, what is Hans relations to Elsa anyway?", we all sweated nervously as we knew that information is kind of sensitive topic to me but he's going to protect me and deserves to know.

I sighed then spoke "Alright guys, we'll just tell him, but first we might as well get comfortable", we looked for a spot then saw a nearby cafe, we entered then ordered some drinks and sat for awhile, I ask "So, Hiccup, what do you want to know about Hans?", Hiccup thought for a second then spoke "Everything you know I guess", I sighed then Ji spoke "Well, firstly Hans is Elsa's ex boyfriend", Hiccup's eyes went wide in surprise. Anna glared at Ji then spoke "Yeah?" but we don't need to give that detail to him instantly", Ji shrugged then spoke lamely "Well, Hiccup does deserve to know, he's putting his neck on the line for crying out loud", I sighed in defeat seeing the logic on Ji's words. I continued "Alright?" yes.. he was my boyfriend, though I would like rip him to shred if I could", Hiccup asked confused "Why not just rip him to shred then, I've seen some people like you Elsa, you're not the typical helpless woman", Anna, Miwayumi and I smiled at him in respect as Hiccup raised an eyebrow and asked oblivious "What?", Kristoff patted his back then chuckled lightly, he spoke "that's a plus points in women's book", Hiccup looked down embarrassed while rubbing the back of his neck sheepishly.

Ji continued "so yeah.. now Elsa, please continue". I nodded then spoke "So yeah, he was my boyfriend, nothing much really special in our relationship, we don't kiss just hug", Kristoff nudged Hiccup with his elbow then teased "wooh, looks like you hit the jackpot, you got her first kiss", Hiccup and I blushed as I faked cough, Kristoff snickered then said "Please, continue", I nodded then said solemnly while hiding my distress "So yeah.. I couldn't rip him to shreds since he seemed to keep making lies that will turn the tides and make me look bad, so Hiccup, since you're the blessed one to protect me, I ask you as a simple person, pleaseâ€¦| kick Han's ass for me", Hiccup smiled lightly then spoke comforting "Don't worry, I will, plus I would give him some piece of my mind for assaulting me", he stressed the syllable 'ass', we all chuckled at that statement, suddenly a voice was heard "Vanellope! Look out!", Hiccup turned around then suddenly he saw a kid was heading towards him and saw the girl was having trouble controlling the skates due to the momentum as she was plummeting towards a concrete wall.

Hiccup's POV

We looked at the scene with such fright for the girl's safety, I dashed hoping to save the little girl, time slowed while I thought "_Come on Hiccup, you can do it, fasterâ€¦| run fasterâ€¦|._", suddenly I felt my whole body felt really light, I just kept running, time resumed at normal speed as I ran and managed to get in front of the girl then stood firmly as I bent my knees a bit for to help balancing upon impact, I managed to caught the girl as I was a bit pushed back but was able to balance myself, Vanellope hugged me a bit, I could hear her sniffing, she looked up to me then spoke "Thank you Mr.", a giant man ran towards me as he exclaimed "Vanellope!", the girl ran towards him then shared a warm loving embrace, we all have found that scene very heartwarming and I could tell that Elsa was also touched by the scene despite that she was known as Ice Queen due to her cold personality, but I guessed that it was caused by Han's douche works. I sighed in relief, they broke the hug as they walked towards me, the big guy spoke "Thank you young man, I wouldn't know what to do if Vanellope got hurt", my friends walked towards me then I nodded then said "Well, that's very understandable, even I would do anything to keep my daughter safe, if ever I would have", the big guy laughed heartily then said "Don't worry, if a big intimidating guy like managed to have a wife that loved me for who I am then what more when a guy who's selfless and caring person can have", Kristoff, Anna and Miyaumi smirked while looking at Elsa.

I raised an eyebrow at the three while Elsa just looked away thought I could have sworn that she was blushing, I just shrugged the thought out of my head then replied " I guess that is possible", the big guy nodded then said "Oh, I forgot, the names Ralph, Ralph von Schweetz", then he pointed at the little girl and said "and this is Vanellope von Schweetz, now Vanellope you should thank this young man for saving your behind", Vanellope nodded then looked at me and said "Thank you Mr.?", I spoke "Hiccup", Vanellope asked a bit concerned "Hiccup? Would you like some water", she offered a water bottle. I shook my head then spoke "No, my name is Hiccup", she snickered a bit then burst out laughing, few seconds later she recomposed herself then spoke while suppressing her giggle "Thank you, Mr. Hiccup", Ralph excused "Alright now..", he was interrupted by Vanellope, Vanellope asked "So, Hiccup how did you move soo fast? That was really cool, could you teach me?", I could see her eyes gleamed, I sighed then spoke while trying to find an excuse "I'm sorry.. umm.. you see it can't be taught", she frowned sadly and asked "but why not?", I sighed then replied "because you could only do that if you eat allot of vegetables", Vanellope's mood lighten up instantly and asked for confirmation "Are you sure?", I nodded then said "Yes.. I'm sure", Vanellope looked back and forth between Elsa and I, I looked at her confused then she asked "So, what's between you and that girl", she pointed at Elsa, she asked in surprise "Me?", she nodded and said "yeah, you", I replied simple "We're just friends Vanellope".

Elsa's POV

I could feel that this conversation might turn badly for me then she asked again "Are you sure? Because from what I can see you two looked like couple", Anna, Kristoff and Miwayumi snickered while Ji tipped his hat down and smiled as I just blushed profusely, Hiccup asked really oblivious "what do you mean?", Vanellope sighed then spoke "nevermind, don't want to ruin surprise for you", she looked at me then smirked, I sweated nervously as my cheeks heated up, Ralph chuckled lightly and said "Wow, what a lively friends you have Hiccup, though I would say your girlfriend is really pretty", I blushed brightly as Hiccup asked "girlfriend? But I don't have a girlfriend", Kristoff, Miwayumi and Anna burst out laughing, Ralph raised an eyebrow and teased "Are you sure? Isn't that lovely lady your girlfriend?", he pointed at me, Hiccup traced where he was pointing at then saw me, he blushed then said defensive "N-no! no, you see Elsa isn't really fond with male, so yeah.. she isn't really interested in guys", as much as I don't have anything against on what Hiccup said but I could feel that my chest tightened, I spoke solemnly than I planned "Yeah..", Ralph raised an eyebrow and said "Alright, well, we got to go, say goodbye to Hiccup, Vanellope", Vanellope nodded and said "will do stinkbrain".

Vanellope bowed slightly then said "Alright see you later Hiccup", she giggled for a moment then continued "and you two Hiccup's girlfriend", I blushed at her proclamation as I looked away, I glanced at Hiccup who blushed profusely, I smiled inward as I felt hope that Hiccup and I could have that kind of relationship but then thought "_Stop Elsa, you must get a hold of yourself, as of now you kept giving Hiccup the wrong signal, you already accepted that you have feelings for him, it's time for you to give him the right signal_", I sighed in thought, I guess I couldn't help but to argue with myself before, but now knowing that Hiccup is different than those typical men, he isn't a disgusting loner, greedy murderer and power hungry sociopaths (A/N: those lines were from Honest trailer of Frozen, just letting you know, not gonna take credit for something I didn't even made). Though he has been alone all of his life, just like me I thought "_Hiccup.. if ever that I accepted you in my life" would you accept me?_", I shook those thought out of my head, Vanellope and Ralph bid farewell then left. Miwayumi teased "Soo, Elsa, I guess your new title now is Hiccup's girlfriend huh?", I fumed a bit then spoke "Hiccup isn't my boyfriend and there's no way a guy like him can become my boyfriend, he's not even a boyfriend material", Hiccup looked down sadly then spoke "yeah, like I said she really isn't interested in guys, specially me", I thought "_No Hiccup, its just_", he continued "alright, let's just continue".

~Month later~

~Cafeteria~

-DAY-

Hiccup and the others really trained hard, I myself also trained but secretly of course, I didn't want them to know my powers since they might hate me and stop protecting me from Hans, it might be selfish but I also didn't want to lose them, as much as I wanted to tell them but I can't.. specially Hiccup.. Ever since the event at the mall I could tell that Hiccup was becoming distant towards me, he still greets me and talks to me but I couldn't feel his gentle and caring anymore.

Anna's POV

Ever since the incident at the mall I noticed that Hiccup was became distant towards my sister, though I couldn't blame him, I could tell that he was saddened by Elsa's words, I know she had gone below the belt but neither could really blame them, both of them were just sensitive in such topic, Hiccup was an outcast in his life while Elsa was betrayed by her loverâ€¦ well more like seemed to be loverâ€¦ I am glad for Hiccup for still trying so hard for Elsa, Ji spoke "Alright guysâ€¦ Miwayumi and I still have to go to the library so we had to rush eating", Miwayumi nodded then said "Yeahâ€¦", I sighed then spoke "alright see you guys", the two nodded as it was now only four of us, no one seemed to have the guts to break the silence so I just decided to break it if they won't, I spoke "Sooâ€¦ Hiccup, you seemed working hard, I would like to thank you for trying so hard for my sister", he smiled lightly then nodded, Elsa looked down then Kristoff spoke "Oh hey Elsa I forgot, there's a ball coming up next week, who do you think you would be going with?", Hiccup tried to remain passive but I could tell that he's in a turmoil, Elsa replied "Uh.. well.. I don't know". Lunch ended with such awkward atmosphere.

Moments Later

~Haddock's Residence~

-DUSK-

Hiccup's POV

Dad was still at work, I walked towards the fridge and took out a milk, I took a bowl then headed upstairs, I walked towards my room then opened the door, Toothless barked happily then ran towards me, I spoke "Oh, hello bud, missed me?", Toothless barked again, even though I don't even understand his language I just thought of it as a yes. I place a bowl in front of him then poured a bottle of milk then he happily drank it as he licked it all up. Suddenly I heard the doorbell rung, I exclaimed "Coming!", I rushed downstairs I looked at the peek at window first and saw Elsa, I thought "_Elsa? What is she doing here? Must be important_", I opened the door and said "Oh, hey Elsa, how may I help you?", she spoke with such serious tone "Oh hello Hiccup, we need to talk", it sounded really important so I just nodded then said "Alright, come in", I stepped back to make way, she entered then I closed the door, I walked and led her to the living room, I sat down at the sofa then gestured her to take a seat as well, she sat beside me as I raised an eyebrow in confusion.

She spoke "Uh.. Hiccup, I just wanted to thank you for trying so hard for meâ€¦", I rubbed the back of my head sheepishly then said "Nah, it's nothingâ€¦", she shook her head and said "it's nothing Hiccup", she looked down as I looked at her in confusion, she looked at me with teary eyes then said "I'm sorry Hiccup", she hugged me tightly as she burrowed her face onto my chest, I asked worried "Elsa?", she cried and muttered not letting go "I'm sorry, I'm sorryâ€¦ I didn't mean toâ€¦", my chest tightened, I couldn't really bare to see her like this, soo vulnerable.. it really pained me to see this, I spoke trying to comfort her "It's okay, Elsa, It's alright", she broke the embrace and exclaimed "It's not alright!", I could really see her tears flowing from her face uncontrollably, she exclaimed "It's not! Despite you doing your best just to help me while I treat you badly, you never gave up", I didn't know what to say but "uhh.. well, it's nothing, it's what fr-", I was cut off by Elsa pressing her lips onto mine".

Elsa's POV

I didn't know why I did that but hearing the word friend to indentify my relations to Hiccup really pained me, he really didn't thought that there's a possibility for I to fall for his caring personality, it saddened me to think that partially it was my fault, it really devastated me when he didn't kissed back as I thought "_Hiccup isn't kissing backâ€¦ doesn't he like me anymore?_", I'm very afraid to admit that he lost interest at me, I knew that he liked me it was easy to tell on the way he look at me, I sighed in the kiss then broke it then faced, he's eyes widened in surprise, I couldn't tell whether he's surprised happy or surprised scared, I gulped nervously, then something happen that surprised me, his eye shed a tear, my world shattered at the thought that he doesn't like me anymore or he was saddened that I kissed him and now hates me, but that feeling went to drain we he suddenly embraced me tightly, I just hugged back letting all the tears flow on my face as I whispered to him "Please don't let me goâ€¦", he replied "I won'tâ€¦", I could feel the honesty in his words but suddenly the door burst open, we looked at the person who opened the door as we looked with such horrified expression.

Somewhere...

Vanellope spoke "Hey stinkbrain, are you sure it's alright to leave them alone for now? I mean we could just tell them that we're here to help you know". Ralph chuckled then spoke "Nope, if there's a chance for them to protect her without our help then we're just going to watch them, but if ever they really need our help and can't handle the situation then we'll do what we can to help". Vanellope pouted then whined "Oh come on lazy musclehead, we can't just lazy around and let them suffer". Ralph explained "No pain, No gain. Besides if anything it will make them stronger and everyone knows when people are desperate, their andrenaline would help a lot making them stronger plus the idea of super rejuvenation,well kind of, really helps them. Vanellope sighed then threatened playfully "your plan better work or you'll be stuck in the fungeon. The two couple kind of cute and I like to see happy ending". Ralph laughed then spoke "Sure kid".

Chapter 9: Beloved

Hiccup's POV

We looked at whoever burst open the door, we saw my dad and Anna, they looked at us in a total astonishment but Anna's astonishment expression faded and replaced by a smirk, my dad spoke "Hiccup, I told you to not go that far". I thought confused "_Far? what the heck is he suppose to mean, we're not doing anything_". I looked at our position and saw that Elsa was leaning on me and looking like she was on top of me. Elsa immediately wiped off her tears, luckily they didn't seemed to notice. I defended "Dad, it's not what it looks like", dad put his hands on his hips and looked like he's going to listen, I continued trying to find an excuse "Well, we wereâ€¦ um just doing homeworkâ€¦", dad raised an eyebrow then asked "they teach children to have s-", I immediately cut him off "dad! Not that", Elsa blushed and thought quickly while she spoke "No sir Haddock.. we didn't do anything like that, it's just that we had some homework, well more like practice for the school play".

Elsa's POV

I noticed Hiccup paled when I told his dad about the school play, his dad asked "School play? Hiccup, why didn't you told me that you have a school play? I would've liked to see you on stage", Hiccup sweated nervously as he tried to reason out "Ah, well dad, I just didn't want to disturb you", Stoick looked at Hiccup incredulously as he spoke "Disturb me? Nonesense, you should have told me, it's not like every day you get to your son on stage you know", Hiccup sighed in defeat and said "Ah, well alright". I noticed that Anna was staring at me with a look saying 'I know your lying sis'. I blushed lightly then looked away from her, Anna asked to Hiccup "Soâ€¦ does that involve Elsa on top of you while kissing ?", Hiccup and I blushed profusely as we both waved our hands in defense, Hiccup spoke stuttered a bit "N-no, we d-don't have that s-such part, she j-just tripped w-when we w-were practicing", I continued trying to be seriously to make it believable "yeah, though we do have kissing part but doesn't mean we're practicing that", Anna and Stoick laughed then Stoick spoke "Ah, don't worry about that part lad, Hiccup never kissed a lady besides his mom so he doesn't know how to kiss a lady, you could practice that but just don't get carried away alright?", Hiccup blushed while I felt relieved as I thought "_Oh.. so that's why he didn't kissed backâ€¦ he just don't know how_". I giggled inward as I felt sorry for Hiccup for not knowing how, it's not that I don't mind, actually I loved it, it means I'm really his first and mine.

Anna teased "ooh, Hiccup didn't know how to kiss, well that's a good thing that Elsa is there, however I do fear that they might suck each other's faces. I blushed lightly as Hiccup looked confused, I exclaimed in embarassment "Anna! Don't say such thingâ€¦ we don't suck each other faces off", Stoick laughed heartily then said "Alright, anyway since it's almost supper time, why don't you two join us, and Anna we'll talk later and please tell me about Hiccup and his ladie later", Anna grinned evilly then said "will do", she looked at Hiccup and I mischievously then spoke "Of course, we'll join though I'm afraid Elsa might not want to remove herself from Hiccup or she preferred Hiccup more than the chair", Hiccup and I looked at each other and saw that we're still in a awkward position, I immediately remove myself from him as we both look away then recompose ourselves, Stoick spoke "alright lad, continue that later, but don't get carried away, and Elsa, please be gentle with Hiccup", I looked down embarrassed as Hiccup just sat there blushing facing a wall in embarrassment.

~Meanwhile at Hiccup's Room~

-Toothless's Dream-

No one's POV

Toothless, was limping around as he whimpered scared at his surrounding, he's still a puppy so he's easily frightened, a voice was heard "Do not fear me little pup for I don't mean you harm". Toothless eyed the mysterious person carefully, she appeared out of the shadow, she spoke again "My name is Hlin, goddess of protection". Toothless eyes widened in surprise, he backed away in fear even animals knows that they couldn't harm gods and goddesses, she spoke in a caring tone "Do not worry, I'm here to ask you a simple question", Toothless stood firm despite that he only have three natural limbs while the other, not so much. Hlin asked "young pup, would you stand by your master even in the face of death?" Toothless's eyes narrowed then nodded with conviction. Of course no doubt Toothless wouldn't even hesitate to reply, his answer was clearly that no matter what happens he will stood by Hiccup for the young man cared for him, loved him and even did everything he could to restore his missing limb, his compassion to almost everything made him admire Hiccup.

Hlin smiled at Toothless then said "great", she walked towards him as Toothless stood firm with no fear can be seen, Hlin knelt and leaned towards Toothless then whispered as she petted him "what a great pup, you cared for the young man so dearly, I blessed you for he would struggle to protect his love, families and friends, he needs you dearly, his best friends, protect each other 'til the end", a light shinned on her palm while she petted Toothless, Toothless was confused at the light, she stood up then backed away for a bit as Toothless shined brightly, the goddess continued "As of now young pup, with the power I've blessed you, you can now protect your master, protect him and he will protect you as well.. farewell", with that the goddess shined brightly then vanished afterwards.

~Back with Hiccup and Elsa~

Hiccup was sitting besides Elsa much to their both glee but never showed it due to embarrassment that it will and and might bring. Stoick spoke after he took a bite of his meal "So, son, tell me more about your lady", Hiccup nearly choked on his food, Elsa was soo concerned to care about what Stoick said, Hiccup drank water then breathe heavily, after recomposing himself he replied "Dad, she's just my...", Elsa didn't want to be a friend to Hiccup, she wanted more, she was debating whether to proclaim to Hiccup's dad that she's his girlfriend or just take the pain of being called a friend of Hiccup, she was debating with herself, Hiccup stopped when he saw Elsa's distress, he looked at her with questionable expression, Elsa sighed and decided that if anything, she would refuse to be alone, not anymore, if there's a person willingly to stand by her side it would be Hiccup without a doubt. She continued what Hiccup's reply "girlfriend", Hiccup was completely flabbergasted as his father whistled in amusement while his sister was awe struck at the scene, she was happy that her sister broke out of her shell, Elsa moved her hand towards Hiccup's and gripped it lovingly then she looked at him with a warm smile, Hiccup didn't know how to react.

He was happy, in the first time in his life a girl actually liked him just like his mother used to say, he smiled back then his father cleared his throat then said "I don't mind you two oogling around but we're in a middle of a supper, continue that later". Hiccup and Elsa chuckled sheepishly as Anna giggled in amusement then teased playfully "So Elsa, are you staying over Hiccup's house for tonight, or Hiccup's staying at our house for tonight?", Stoick laughed heartily then said "well, I don't mind her staying over but of course I don't like these two to start making grand kids this early". Elsa blushed while Hiccup was stunned but completely embarrassed, Elsa replied "I'm not staying over Hiccup's", Hiccup sighed in relief then spoke "Yep, by the way, Anna did you know what are Ji and Miwayumi doing in the library lately?" Anna thought for a second before answering "Well, they said they had to get started on their training in knowledge so I guess they're improvising or something", this got the attention of Stoick.

Stoick spoke "Training you say? Well that's sounds great, Hiccup why don't you join them, it will help you to protect your lady", he chuckled at his own statement, unbeknown to him that Hiccup's already training for Elsa. Hiccup, Elsa and Anna found this awkward and decided to just laugh as well to make it seemed less awkward. After awhile they continued to eat in silence, they bid farewell to each other while Anna teased for a bit before Elsa and her left.

~Moments later~

Stoick spoke "So, tell me about these two doing in school", he then pointed at the two couple. Hiccup and Elsa sweated nervously as Anna giggled then spoke "Ah, well those two are like water and oil at first but you could tell Hiccup likes Elsa but unlike any other he's content on having Elsa as a friend". Hiccup jaw dropped at how did Anna found out about his inner thought as Elsa couldn't help but to smile at that statement, she knew that Hiccup's very unique and kind person. Stoick chuckled then spoke "I see, that's definitely Hiccup. It's a shame that he lacks confidence at some time". Anna nodded then giggled as Elsa found that statement very agreeable but she can't say she didn't like that about Hiccup, I mean its better to have a lack of confident than to be arrogant bragging bastard. Elsa was happy to say that Hiccup is the exact opposite of Hans which she hated everything about Hans so that makes Hiccup like the perfect guy for her. Anna spoke "Yes, but it's not that bad. It's kind of better than an arrogant guy".

Stoick nodded "Yeah, I would have straighten him up if he is but I know he isn't after all he took after his mother, he smiled solemnly as Hiccup smiled happily. Anna asked curiously "So... where's Mrs. Haddock?". Stoick sighed then answered "She passed away". Anna felt guilty for bringing that up as Elsa felt the urge to comfort Hiccup. Stoick asked "So how about you two? We're new here so how's life here?". Anna answered "Ah, well. It's nice and all, living with my sister. Simple life but content with it". Stoick nodded while Hiccup asked "Don't you live with your parent or something?". The two sisters looked at each other then Anna answered "well... they died a year ago...". Hiccup felt an urge to smack himself as he replied solemnly "I'm very sorry to hear that...". Elsa patted his back then spoke "It's ok. I mean at least Anna's still with me". Anna nodded in agreement then added "Yeah, plus we still have a cousin though she would be coming back here though she didn't say when. She said it was a surprise".

Stoick smiled then spoke "Ah, well that's good".

~Next day later~

~Ji's Training Room~

~Hiccup's POV~

This is where we've trained for a while, it's a nearly empty room with really huge space, there's a bit of equipment that have been used for training, I decided to let Elsa know about my abilities as well, but before we got here, somehow Toothless managed to convince me to bring him along today, I couldn't say no to his puppy eyes. I removed my bracelets, Elsa asked "Um.. Hiccup why did you removed your bracelets? It's not like it's going to hinder, is it?", I replied "Ah wellâ€¦ it's best just to show youâ€¦", my hands began to spark in a surge of a bit electricity, I exclaimed "Pull!", Ji threw a can bottle and a few metallic circular objects at the air as I aimed my hand at the can then released a weak surge of electricity towards it, the can attracts the metals towards it as the metals stick to it for a few seconds before it detach from the can.

~Elsa's POV~

I was surprised, so he has electric powers, at this moment my confidence on telling Hiccup my powers began to rose. Hiccup then spoke "I have a theory though, if I could use the electricity to affect neurons in the brain it means I could erase memories...", I just needed to plan out on where could I tell Hiccup about my secret. He then showed another trick, he raised his arm a bit then began to surge some electricity on his hand then he swiped his hand horizontally, it created an electricity that seemed to be suspended in the air, he grabbed it with his right hand then swung it vertically to his right side, the electricity dissipated as it revealed a beautiful made sword, it's dark gray base sword with dark blue colored at the edge as it seems to glow while you can see the electricity flowing through it, I spoke in awe "woah" then Hiccup replied "Yeah, it's really cool, as much as I wanted to slice that cynical Hans, but I would like for you to have his judgment", I smiled at Hiccup in grateful.

Suddenly Toothless nudges his leg as it barked seemed to try saying something, Hiccup asked "What is it boy?" Toothless back away a bit then shaped shift into a huge dragon, not huge like a house size, just huge enough to be said shoulder length. Hiccup and I was completely stunned, I felt a bit fear as I clinged to Hiccup's arm. Suddenly Kristoff appeared with Anna holding boxes of pizza, Kristoff spoke "yow, guys, we bro- HOLY SHIT! WHAT THE HELL IS THAT THING!", Kristoff and Anna nearly dropped the pizzas while Toothless looked at him with an unamused look. Kristoff and Anna backed away in fear, Kristoff stood in front of Anna in protection, Toothless then began to nuzzle Hiccup, Kristoff asked "Uh.. Hiccup, what is that thing want with you?", Hiccup replied unsure "uhh.. well.. this is Toothless, I'm not really sure on what happened but I am positive that he wasn't like that before", I asked "maybe it's one of the blessing?", he thought for a moment and said still unsure "it could be", he then sighed in defeat not knowing what could've been the possibility on that to happen.

Ji and Miwayumi stopped meditating as they looked around, Miwayumi was first to spot Toothless, she exclaimed "SHIT! Step aside Hiccup, we'll take care of it", Miwayumi and Ji prepared and stood in their fighting stance as Miwayumi pulled out her three tanto, she gripped the two with her two hands as she used her mouth to grab the third one while Ji unsheathed his Odachi and held it on his right hand while he held a dagger in a reverse grip on his left hand, they prepared to attack Toothless 'till Hiccup spoke "No", Toothless just nuzzled Hiccup affectionately, Miwayumi seemed to understand why, she looked at Ji then nodded, they dropped their stance as they let their guard down seeing that there's no danger towards the huge reptile, Ji asked "What the heck is that thing? I never seen anything like it before", Hiccup sighed then replied "it's Toothless", Ji asked "Toothless? Isn't he a dog?", Hiccup replied "Yes, but it seemed that there was more blessing than the power that have been bestowed upon my by Thor".

Ji sighed in annoyance, Kristoff and Anna stepped closer, Anna walked towards Toothless but then stopped when it came to face-to-face with Toothless, she squealed in delight as she seemed to find Toothless cute, I would even say that Toothless is cute, she began to scratch Toothless, Toothless purred, suddenly Toothless eyes widened then fell unconscious, Anna asked concerned "Is he okay?", I giggled at the thought that Toothless is still a softie behind all that thick dark scales, Hiccup poked Toothless curiously, resulting a snore from Toothless with a goofy grin, we chuckled at how such a big softie like him turned out to be, we continued on training, Hiccup focused and channel the electricity towards his body, he said that he's being in tune with electricity, after awhile we watched Ji and Miwayumi sparred, they used weapons that are made of wood to avoid fatalities, they seemed to dance, it was amazing, despite that they both wore weight they were still fast, though Ji dominated when it comes to speed but Miwayumi's comebacks were just outstanding, her tricky tactics, unpredictable moves, flexibility made it difficult for Ji to spar with her, it ended with a draw as we took a rest for a while then ate pizza as well, we thanked for the food and the place then bid farewell to each other, I asked Hiccup if I could stay at his house for tonight if I'm allowed, he nodded and said I was allowed and the fact that his father said that I was allowed in the first place, of course he said that in a very polite manner

~Hiccup's Room~

-DUSK-

We arrived at Hiccup's room as I flopped down on to his bed, he stared at me and raised an eyebrow, I then saw him holding Toothless like a baby, I couldn't help but to smile at the sight, Hiccup really looked like a loving father without a doubt, his caring nature is really amazing and his best attribute. He asked "so what do you want to talk about Elsa?", I gulped nervously as I removed my gloves hesitantly then said "Whatever you doâ€¦ please don't freak out and hate me okay?", he gulped nervously then nodded, he spoke "Alrightâ€¦", I sighed then I raised my hand a bit as I began to the ice power began form while I mold it, after few seconds it appeared to be a sculpture of a snowflake, his eyes widened as I fearfully looked at him with a thought of he might hate me now, or dislike me and say that he doesn't like me anymore. He stared at me in surprise then his expression changed, he smiled and said in awe "That's soo awesome! Wow..", I looked at him in surprise as I couldn't help but to smiled at him as well.

I couldn't hold my tears any longer as it just flowed onto my face and asked "Aren't you scared or hate me?", he looked at me confused and asked "Why would I? I have a beautiful girlfriend that has Ice powers, what's to hate in that?", I pounced at him as I just embraced him warmly as I just kept crying while burying my face on his chest, he asked a bit concerned "hey, are you alright", I broke the hug and faced him, I smiled at him lovingly then said "yes, yes I am, I'm just happy", he replied "well.. that's g-", I rolled my eyes then pressed my lips towards Hiccup, he still wasn't kissing back though I don't mind since I knew the only reason why he wasn't kissing back since he doesn't know how", he wrapped his arms around me as I kept kissing him, the moment was perfect, just me and him and nobody else besides the knocking sound behind me. Knocking? That's when it hit me, I broke the kiss as I saw Hiccup opened his eyes clearly enjoying it, we looked behind me then heard a voice saying "Hiccup? I respect your privacy by knocking but asserting my authority as your father by coming in anyway", he opened the door, I knew Hiccup didn't locked the door and no time to react so I just prepared myself.

Stoick looked around and saw us, he smiled then said "you guys are really clingy to each other, anyway dinners ready, you two should come down stairs later after your practice for your play", he closed the door and left, I blushed lightly as he just reminded me that that the play would be help on next month, I thought "_I guess I could both teach Hiccup how to kiss while practicing, hitting two birds with one stone_", I smiled devilishly at Hiccup, he sweated nervously and asked a bit frightened "Elsa?", I then began to push him down on the bed, he tried to speak but I just pushed my index finger *(A/N: At this point I really wanted to put it as "I just pushed my department of justice on his lips" but only few people would understand that reference and some people would find it offensive... soo... nvm...) on his lips as I teased "shhhh.. now.. let's practice shall we, we only have a month left to practice, might as well teach you how to kiss a lady properly", I could clearly see that Hiccup was really nervous, I couldn't help but to squeal inward, I slowly leaned closer towards Hiccup then resumed the passionate kiss that had been disturbed by his father, he then started to embrace me again as he began to do weird movement of his lips, he was really trying to learn how to kiss back, I couldn't help but to laugh inward on how weird Hiccup's doing but his effort for trying just made my heart flutter, at this day I now accept the fact that I'm in love with Hiccup and he's the only one who would banish my loneliness and empty feeling in me, I sighed in content and focused on enjoying the moment.

That's all for now, of course good things always comes to an end, and bad things always ends with a rainbow.. hope you enjoyed.

11. Chapter 10

*Sven would appear in next chapter, well he will appear here but just a glimpse in a sense... ****

*Disclaimer: I don't own How to train your dragon and Frozen ****

Chapter 10: Dirge defective

Anna's POV

Kristoff and I pretended to go home since I found this a chance to tell Ji and the others. Moments later we looked around to check if Hiccup and Elsa was gone, seeing that they left, we immediately rushed towards Ji's house then knocked at Ji's door. He opened the door then raised an eyebrow and asked "Oh Anna... and Kristoff, do you guys need something?", we nodded then Kristoff spoke "Ah, well Anna said that she has something important to say so call Miwayumi", Ji nodded then said "alright, although Miwayumi's just right at the kitchen, she's helping me cook dinner but we will have to go to the grocery store since we're missing some ingredients so we don't need to call her", Kristoff asked "She's here? And cooks dinner?", Ji shrugged then said casually "yep", Kristoff and I looked at each other then shrugged, we looked at Ji then he spoke "Ah well, since you guys are here and want to tell us something important, might as well come with us on food shopping", I nodded then he exclaimed "Miwayumi!", she replied "coming!". Few seconds later she came then approached us, she spoke "oh, Anna and Kristoff, please don't tell me you guys need photographer for your date...".

Kristoff and I chuckled lightly then I replied "no". Ji continued "yeah well, these two said that they're going to tell us something important so they decided to follow us, Miwayumi nodded. She threw something towards at Ji then spoke "You forgot your wallet, how are you going to buy groceries without money". Ji sighed then muttered "thanksâ€¦". After awhile we walked towards the grocery store, Ji asked "so what's the important thing you have to say?", I replied "Ah well, it's about Elsa and Hiccup", they looked at me with curious stares, I continued "yeah well, Elsa kind off confirmed that she and Hiccup are now a couple right in front of Hiccup's dad". They all went wide eyed surprise, Miwayumi asked in disbelief "You're kidding right?", I shook my head then smiled "Nope, I was there when she proclaimed", Ji sighed then grabbed his hat down as he tilted it down and said with a smile "that fast huh..", Kristoff agreed "yeah, really fast.. it's only a been a month and already in such relationship, I hope Elsa isn't taking this too fast", I sighed then nodded but still smiled and said "Yeahâ€¦ but if it makes my sister happy, well I'm happy as well for her". We all smiled at that statement, Ji spoke "Yeah.. I guess we could just support and be there for the two love birds".

Suddenly I remembered about the play, I gleefully spoke "Oh, I almost forgot, Hiccup and Elsa are in a play, and already starting to practice their KISSING SCENE", Miwayumi smirked while Kristoff grinned, Miwayumi spoke "Wow, she works really fastâ€¦ though I could say that Hiccup does fare as well, after all they did kissed at the first day in school", Kristoff snickered as he remembered the scene, it was fairly awkward and embarrassing. Ji asked "so, you guys want to join dinner with us?", Kristoff asked "You two eat together?", Miwayumi and Ji nodded then Ji asked "yeah, so you guys want to join?". I thought for a second then nodded and said "We would love to", Kristoff shrugged then said "Meh.. what the heck, might as well taste your and Miwayumi's cookings", we continued our walk in peace and silent, we went to a grocery store and buy some ingredients and it seems that they were planning to cook curry. After awhile we exited the store then headed back to his place, we walked through an empty street, it's quite heck you can even consider it looked like a ghost town, suddenly Hans appeared from the shadows then smirked at us, he spoke "Well, well, well, if it isn't the dysfunctional idiots", Ji spoke unamused "your appearance is soooâ€¦ clichÃ©", Hans chuckled lightly then said "well, it doesn't matter, you guys are going to be dog food", after he spoke two freakishly terrifying dogs appeared as they barked at us aggressively.

Hans continued "might as well see you guys suffer", he smirked as the dog charged at us, Miwayumi suddenly opened her jacket as we saw her hidden weapons, there as three Tantos, I looked at Ji as I thought that he may have a hidden weapon as well, surprisingly he lifted his jacket a bit and saw a handle sticking out of his right upper part of his pants, he took out his Odachi then took out a sheathed dagger from his jacket's pocket, he immediately unsheathed it then pushed Kristoff off out of the hounds' path as Miwayumi did the same to me as well, they side stepped then they both used the momentum of the hounds' rush to give their slash more power, the hound rolled as they got hit by Ji's and Miwayumi's attack, the hounds' stood up a bit harmed from the attack, Ji asked Miwayumi "what the heck are those?", Miwayumi replied more rude than she had planned "How the heck am I suppose to know", Hans chuckled then answered "Hellhounds", Ji gritted his teeth then prepared himself as he got into his defensive stance, he held his sword with his right hand behind him while the tip of the blade pointed upward then he raised his left arm up to his shoulder length high with a reverse gripped dagger, the hound stared at him fiercely he muttered silently but enough to be heard
"Sairento Setsudan - Tengoku no Maiagaruâ€¦/_Silent Cutting â€œ Heavenly Soarâ€¦|_".

He spun quickly and used the momentum to threw the sword upward then the dog charged at him ready to pounce, he continued spinning as the dog pounced at him, he used the spin's momentum as he stabbed the hound on it's neck, the hound cried in pain for a bit then spun around as he pounced at Ji, Ji jumped as he used the dagger as platform, the hound cried out in more pain as Ji caught his Odachi then spun vertically as he used that momentum and gravity pull to give more power complete decapitating the hound as it lifelessly fell as the blood hissed from its neck, it's blood was quite interesting since it's hot as a lava, Miwayumi then spoke unamused "Show offâ€¦|", Ji shrugged, Hans just watched them as he evaluated their skills as of now it's Miwayumi's turn. Miwayumi held the two tantos with her both hand and held her third tanto with her mouth, the hound growled at her as she crossed her hand then bent her knees preparing to strike, she immediately dashed at the hound and the hound dashed at her as well, she muttered "Shibito no Yona Tsukisasu â€œ Goon Shogekiha o/_Deathly Impale â€œ Roaring Shockwave_", she jumped and stabbed the back of the hound while the hound tried to pounce at her, she remained balance then used the hilt of the tanto as a platform then jumped as she fell head first, she took the tanto on her mouth then slashed the hound's body as half of it was cut, blood gashed out of its body, fortunately Miwayumi used her flexibility to dodge the sizzling blood as she landed gracefully then quickly backed away from the gash of blood.

Ji rushed beside Miwayumi as he asked if she was alright, Miwayumi nodded and said that she was unharmed, Hans clapped his hands and congratulated them "well, that was entertaining but..", he suddenly dashed towards Ji as Ji just prepared himself, Hans smirked as his right hand flared, he swiped the air as the fire was suspended in air then immediately grabbed it as he swing it smugly, Ji stood firm as he prepared to block Hans's attack. Much to Ji's surprised when their weapons have clashed, Hans weapon sliced through his Odachi, he managed to side stepped away from the sword's path as Hans smirked then he raised his foot then kicked him on the ribs, Ji used his speed and backed away as he dodged the kick but suddenly Hans swing his sword again but not towards Ji but instead it was headed towards Miwayumi, on impulse she tried to parry but Hans merely faked then readjusted his aim and slashed towards Miwayumi, Ji managed to regain his balanced he rushed towards Miwayumi then pushed her out of the way, there was no time to dodge the attack so he tried to use the dagger and handle of the Odachi to block the attack, so far his attempt were futile as Hans sword sliced through the dagger and the Odachi handle like a paper, Ji cursed under his breath as he received a slice through his chest as he dropped down in pain as he felt the sting of the wound and the heat of the flaming sword.

Miwayumi cried out Ji's name as Kristoff and I just stood watched the tragedy played out in front of us. I couldn't help but to shed tear as Kristoff hold me tightly in comfort, I buried my face on his chest as I peek at their conditions, Kristoff just gritted his teeth at the scene as Miwayumi glared at Hans who wore a smug look on his face, Miwayumi charged at him with her two tantos, the third one was still lodged on the hellhound's and smelting. Miwayumi knew that his sword could cut through her tantos so she decided to dodge his swords, Miwayumi side stepped every time Hans slashed and hacked her her, Ji was completely incapacitated as he was forced to watch a disadvantaged battle, Hans yawned mockingly though Miwayumi wasn't effected but she was soo keen to kill Hans for hurting her best friend, Hans flared up his left hand then tried to hack Miwayumi as she dodged it with ease, knowing this he used this as an opportunity as he aimed his hand at Miwayumi and expelled a fire ball towards her, Miwayumi's reaction time is impeccable but her body sometimes couldn't keep up with her, knowing that she was completely defenseless, she crossed her arms as she used her tantos as a shield while she braced herself, the fire ball made an impact to her tantos at it exploded, Miwayumi cringed in pain as she was sent back and hit a wall nearby behind her.

Hans laughed at them as he spoke smugly "Is that all? I thought you two would have made a challenge, what a disappointment", Ji and Miwayumi glared at him, Miwayumi stood up barely as she used the wall as a support while Ji crawled up to the nearest wall then sat down wincing a bit from the pain on his chest. Hans turned his back on them and said smugly "patheticâ€|", he walked away with a evil smirk on his face, once the battle ended Kristoff and I rushed to Ji and Miwayumi, I cursed inward as I felt useless and let my friends got hurt, I could tell that Kristoff was feeling the same as I can clearly see the rage on his face. I ran towards Miwayumi as he headed towards Ji, I spoke flustered "Let's get them to the hospital quick", Ji passed out from blood loss and pain while Miwayumi was gritting her teeth in rage, Hans just mocked them and made them look like weak because of his inhuman abilities. I sighed in annoyance, I took out my phone then called an ambulance, few minutes later the ambulance came as they immediately took Ji and Miwayumi towards the hospital, we followed as well, after awhile I decided to call my Hiccup, knowing that they're together it would be easy to get them here, I dialed Hiccup's number.

Hiccup's POV

I woke up as I heard my phone rang, I felt a weight on my chest as I looked down and saw a comfortably sleeping Elsa, I sighed in content then I gently reached toward my phone across the table hoping to not disturb the sleeping Elsa, I look at whoever is calling and saw it was Anna, I answered "Hello?", Anna spoke "Hiccup, Hans attacked, Ji and Miwayumi were both injured, Hans defeated them, he used somewhat Fire magic or whatever", my eyes narrowed as I thought "_Damn itâ€¦ well, he is Hades disciple... it was fairly obvious that he would have a fire affinityâ€¦ but damn it, he's picking is us off when we're separated from each otherâ€¦_". Anna continued "so far we are completely out matched, Hiccup, you're our only hope, please protect my sister, I would rather give my life for my sister than the creep have his way with her and use her as a hostage just so that freaky pedo can take over all the realms, as of now we figured if the titans were unleashed we could ask gods for help but it seems that it won't happen", I sighed then replied "Alright, we'll see you two tomorrow there, I can't disturb Elsa, she might hit me", Anna laughed lightly then replied "alright.. take good care of her Hiccup", Elsa moaned happily in her sleep as I smiled at her, I replied "Will doâ€¦".

~Meanwhile at the Hospital~

~Ji's dream~

Ji's POV

I was looking at a very beautiful scenery, he was at the top of the mountain cliff again, he could see the beauty of nature, it was tranquil and a very lively environment, once again a familiar voice spoke behind him "You've lost a great battleâ€¦", at that I narrowed his eyes then turned around to face Hoenir, Ji glared at him then replied venomously "great battleâ€¦ because of that great battle, many people could be harmed, including my friends.. there's no great in battleâ€¦ only painâ€¦", Hoenir sighed then spoke "Trueâ€¦ but it seems that your weapon hinders youâ€¦", I glared at him then said a bit fuming "my Odachi and dagger aren't hindranceâ€¦", Hoenir shook his head then walked to him calmly. I eyed him carefully as Hoenir extended his arm in front of Ji, Hoenir spoke "This would help youâ€¦" I was unsure on whether he should take it or not but decided to take the chance, he held out his palm in accepting notion, Hoenir placed an object to Ji's palm, I looked at it and saw it was a necklace and a bracer, the necklace was simple but with a mini sword attached to it, while bracelet was simple leather cloth but with gold trimmings at its edges, I was confused then asked "A necklace? And a bracer?", Hoenir nodded then spoke sagely "In time of grave importance, that would be your weapon and protection for your friendsâ€¦", Ji nodded confused but accepted nonetheless than thanked the god of silent "Thanksâ€¦". Hoenir nodded in acceptance as we looked towards at the scenery behind me as I sighed in content, nature surely is beautiful and amazing.

~Miwayumi's Dream~

Miwayumi's POV

I was at a beach it was dusk as I watched the sun sets suddenly I heard a voice behind me, I turned around and saw that it was different person, it wasn't Freya, she spoke "You seemed troubled child", I sighed and asked irritated a bit "What do you want?", she replied "It's not what I want child, what do you want?", I turned back towards the sun then muttered silently "I.. just wanted to end this pathetic battle it all started because of Hans, that lying manipulative power hungry socio path", she chuckled at that statement, I asked "So.. who are you supposed to be?", she replied with soothing voice "my name is Vor, goddess of wisdom, and I'm here to lend you a hand child, since you said it yourself, you hate this battle, I know that it has no sense in it, battles like this is completely ridiculous and infuriating", I smiled at her in understanding, she smiled back and asked "you wish to help your friends right?", I nodded and said "yes, and also might as well put an end to Hades schemes, hitting two birds with one stone if I may say so myself", Vor chuckled heartily at that then nodded, she approached me calmly then said "Held out your hand", I complied as I held out my hand exposing my palm, she placed a silver bracelet on my hand, it was simple bracelet yet there was a jewel embed on it but with engrave runes on it, I inspected the runes curiously as Vor spoke "Wisdom", I looked at her confused.

She explained "Wisdom, the runes engrave on it means wisdom, in battle, skills and strength isn't the only thing that matters, you have such potential in battle, your reasoning is simple yet true wisdom doesn't need deep meaning just understandable", I nodded then smiled at her, I thanked "Thank you very much", Vor smiled and placed her hand at my shoulder and said "No matter what happens, don't doubt what is right, doubt what is wrong", I nodded in understanding.

~Kristoff's Dream~

Kristoff's POV

I found myself in a beautiful meadow as I enjoyed the view but then frowned immediately as I remembered the tragedy lately, I fumed as I couldn't do anything to help Ji and Miwayumi, sure I could fight but that was just clearly out my league. Suddenly a flash of light appeared right in front of me, I tried to block the light with my arm, the light faded as a female appeared in front of me, she has golden hair, she looked at me then spoke "so, you must be Kristoff", I asked in disbelief "How did you know my name?", she smiled then spoke "Now it's not the time for that, I'm here to ask you", I asked "wait a minute who are you anyway?", she smiled then spoke "My name is Syf, Thor's wife", Kristoff jaw dropped as he stepped back a bit in astonishment, she asked "now I believe it's my turn to ask", Kristoff nodded dumbfound, Syf asked "would you want to help your friends?", I looked at her seriously then nodded, she spoke "alright, I'll be lending you an aid, though he would be your partner, a companion, he's not a weapon but a friend, you'll take care of him warmly understand", it was rhetorical so I didn't have to answer, she then smiled at me then spoke "so, I wish you for your future endeavours".

~Dream End~

Hiccup's POV **

Classes ended fast, our thoughts were in hopes if Ji and Miwayumi are alright, and we waited for each other as we went towards the Hospital to visit Ji and Miwayumi. Anna and Kristoff knew the rooms, Ji and Miwayumi were both confined in same room by request, it was granted since the two seemed to be close, we immediately rushed to their rooms, we opened the door as I jaw dropped at the scene, Elsa blushed as Anna snickered while Kristoff laughed like there's no tomorrow.

That's all for now, thanks for readingâ€|

Sairento Setsudan - Tengoku no Maiagaru/_Silent Cutting â€" Heavenly Soar _â€" _one of Ji's defensive moves though it could be used as offensive as well but meant for defence, tosses the sword up in the air then waits for the enemy to get closer then uses the dagger to maim the enemy then uses the dagger as platform to give pain for the enemy to stun them for a moment while giving a boost to easily reach the sword as he spins vertically using momentum plus the gravity pull and strength to give a powerful blow which usually used for decapitation or ease dismemberment._

Shibito no Yona Tsukisasu â€" Goon Shogekiha o /_Deathly Impale â€" Roaring Shockwave _â€" one of Miwayumi's offensive moves, she uses her three tantos to attack, she stabs an enemy on it's pressure point or if a case of non-human she stabs it to the most vulnerable area to stun the enemy then she shifts her tanto on her mouth to her hand then quickly makes a powerful blow, it's very tricky, whether the enemy block it or not, the shockwave from that attack will paralyze the enemy's muscle rendering them completely stunned and easily to be killed, preferably used to only one-on-one combat.

12. Chapter 11

There's nothing really to add here, anyways prepare for the appearance of Jack and Merida in chapter 13. ^ ^

Chapter 11: Dearest

Hiccup's POV

~DUSK~

I jawed drop at the scene not knowing how to describe this moment, Ji was lying on the bed while Miwayumi on top of him, holding to his collar as she shook him vigorously, berating him. The buttons on his polo were ripped apart as his polo was now opened exposing his chest a bit, they just looked at us with different emotion, Ji was quite sweating nervously as Miwayumi was still glaring. She asked rudely "What?". We sweated nervously at her emanating fury. I could only look at Ji with such pity as he somewhat lifelessly after being shaken vigorously. I hoped that Miwayumi didn't shake his head much. Anna fake coughed, just to ease the tension a bit and for Miwayumi to look at their compromising position. Miwayumi wasn't bothered as she got off Ji but still a bit ticked off at him. Elsa sighed in relief and tried to recompose herself while Anna and Kristoff just felt relieved that Miwayumi wasn't going to shake Ji's soul out of his body. I spoke hesitantly but a bit serious "So, How've you guys been?". Miwayumi sighed annoyed then replied calmly "Well, so far we're not permanently injured, though I might permanently injured a certain someone". Miwayumi's calm speech just made Ji shiver for a moment, I couldn't tell whether it's because of fear that he would be injured or just Miwayumi.

I sighed then thought "_At least she didn't killed Ji, though I doubt that she would do that_". Anna rushed towards Miwayumi as she tackle hug/glomp her. Miwayumi stumbled a bit then managed to balance herself from the impact as she hugged back, Anna spoke relieved "I'm so glad you too are alright". Miwayumi smiled warmly then admitted "I'm glad as well". Elsa smiled at the scene then she held my hand and squeezed it lovingly. I looked at her then smiled warmly, Kristoff fake coughed a bit then said "Alright, as of now, we experienced some casualtiesâ€¦ now men, are you ready for more training?". I deadpanned with unamused facial expression "is it necessary to act like a veteran soldier?", Kristoff smirked as he spoke not affected by my words "don't back sass me soldier, do train to protect your country, your friends and your wife". Elsa and I blushed at that statement, I retorted "Will you just cut it out, it's not helping, and I do not have a wife". Kristoff looked at Elsa for a moment, Elsa blushed then Kristoff smirked then looked back at me and said "I'm afraid you're lying to me son, now drop and give me 20". I raised an eyebrow then took out my wallet as I was going to take out 20 bucks but Kristoff stopped me as he spoke "I mean pushups". I sighed then said lazily "can we do it later, this is hospital, not a training center". Kristoff rubbed his chin as he thought for a moment then agreed, Ji smiled at this scene as the rest just laughed heartily.

After awhile we exited the room as we headed towards Ji's training room or somewhat dojo. He said that we could use it for a while to train, despite that he seemed to be fine, the doctor said that he's still in no condition to leave of course being wounded deeply means that it's not something you could recover in just a day so he just let us use the room for awhile, he gave us the keys before we left so that we could use the room anytime we wanted to train. Elsa and her sister left and headed towards their house as Kristoff left as well. I decided to take different route than usual so I was walking towards my home in another route as suddenly a two people behind me was rushing and I didn't noticed, I was completely oblivious at that as they tackled me behind. They bumped my back accidentally as we all fell to the ground. I cringed in pain as we all grunted in pain, I was going to exclaim at them but stopped when I turned and looked at them, I saw Astrid and another girl, I don't know who that person is but they seemed to be in a hurry. The girl has dark haired color, brown eyes and wearing a dark jacket with blue pants. Astrid exclaimed "Watch it where you're going punk!". I raised an eyebrow as I looked at her unamused then retorted "you do know that YOU GUYS just rushed towards me and came from behind". Astrid snorted clearly doesn't even know who I am and didn't care if I was injured or not.

I sighed in annoyance as I stood up and dusted myself, I extended my both arms, lending them both a hand. They reluctantly took my hand as they both stood, they dusted themselves off then Astrid spoke "Listen here punk, I have no time for you, as of now we're being chased by a dickwad thinking that just because he has looks means he could flirt with us". I chuckled inward as I thought "_Same old Astrid, though I would like to see how she punched Hans, I pretty sure he would howl in pain just like Snotlout do when he tries to flirt with Astrid_". I sighed then asked "flirt? I'm pretty sure the great Astrid wouldn't need to run just because a guy flirted with her". Astrid narrowed her eyes then glared at me, she walked towards me then grabbed my collar as she lifted upwards. She only managed to stretch the collar a bit since she couldn't lift me, she asked threateningly "Who the hell are you? How did you know my name and you better don't dare lie to me if you know what's good for you". My left eye twitched in annoyance as I held both of his hands then gripped it tightly then got her hands off of me and said "It doesn't matter who I am or how do I know your name, you do not interest me", I added mentally "_Not anymoreâ€¦_". I just sighed couldn't believe that I just said that to my crush or at least used to be crush, as of now her arrogance is a big disappointment though I already know that but seeing that she didn't matured a bit is just really disappointing.

She cocked her fist as she prepared to hit me, well of course with a month of training I could say that I've improved at least for a bit even though it mainly focused my extraordinary abilities. I simply leaned on my right narrowly evading her lethal punch, of course I would know, I saw how her punch affected Snotlout. He ended up with a broken nose, three broken ribs and a dislocated arm, that sight was just too much, anyone would pity that unless of course people that don't really like him much. She was going to prepare for another strike but stopped when we heard a voice "Hey, Hiccup, come over here and help me ". We searched where the sound came from and saw that it came from my dad, Astrid raised an eyebrow then muttered "Stoick?". I exclaimed "Coming dad", I immediately ran towards him, he can't use his car today since it's his coding day and he decides to take a walk sometimes as an exercise. Astrid and her friend didn't chased me, I sighed in relief as I was glad that she didn't if she did she might just continue trying to pummel me to the ground.

No one's POV

Hiccup didn't notice that he's being followed by two person, namely Astrid and her friend (A/N: Not gonna say who this person is until it's the right time). Astrid was really surprised that the hunk that she just almost beat up, at least in her perspective is actually Hiccup, the social outcast, the scrawny walking fishbone. Despite the fact that she wanted to kill him in the first place for blocking their way even if it wasn't completely his fault and intention. They followed them until Hiccup and his dad arrived at their house, Astrid's friend asked "Why are we even following him?". Astrid replied "Shhh, remember we need to talk to Mr. Stoick Haddock". Her friend spoke annoyed a bit "Yes, but that guy is definitely not Mr. Stoick Haddock, he's not bulk as described, sure he has exceptional muscle tone but not bulk". Astrid sighed then replied "He's not Stoick alright". Her friend replied clearly annoyed "Ughâ€¦ then why the hell we even followed him in a first placeâ€¦", she paused for a moment then thought for second, she continued "wait, since he knows your name, then you must know him, don't tell me that he's like your secret crush or something". Astrid was fuming and chose not to answer though after calming a bit she thought that why is she even acting like this, was it the fact that the guy she knew that was completely useless became a hunk and seems to be a bit talent in combat or that she didn't even bothered to notice his growth, either way she wouldn't let that bother her much.

Once that Hiccup and his dad was going to enter the house Astrid and her friend rushed towards them, Astrid exclaimed "Sir Haddock!". Stoick and Hiccup heard a familiar voice as they turned around and look for whoever exclaimed, they saw Astrid and her friend. Stoick asked "Astrid? Is there something I could help you?". Astrid nodded and spoke completely ignoring Hiccup's presence "Sir Haddock, you see mom and dad said that you need some help so we decided to apply for it, we do need some cash to help our families". Hiccup asked with a skeptic tone "We?" Astrid ignored him completely as Stoick stroke his beard thinking. Hiccup was annoyed by the fact that she was ignoring him again, she may have ignored him allot of times in the past but it's still irritating. Stoick spoke "Alright, so meet me at the 'Vast Lumber inc.', it's just near Hiccup's school. Hiccup could show you where it is". Stoick did showed Hiccup once his workplace, Hiccup knew that it was only ONE of his workplace. Astrid grudgingly nodded for some reason she just doesn't like Hiccup that much despite that she really liked how much Hiccup has changed, of course she wouldn't admit that to herself. Hiccup groaned annoyance and though "_Ughâ€| why me?..._". Stoick spoke "Alright since you two are here, might as well join us for dinner". Astrid and her friend bowed then Astrid spoke in gratitude "Thank you sir Haddock". Stoick nodded while Hiccup rolled his eyes in complete annoyance at the situation.

They entered as Hiccup took a bottle of milk and a bowl then head straight to his room. Astrid noticed that and asked "Is Hiccup's dinner only contains Milk and nothing else?". Stoick replied "Ah, no, the milk was for his pet. Errr.. I think he named his pet Toothless". Astrid's friend raised an eyebrow and asked "Toothless?". Stoick nodded then replied "Yes, Toothless, I'm not really sure why he name his pet that way but I guess it's his choice". Astrid mockingly thought "_Tch.. Toothless?... is he serious? Pets name should sound terrifying not a complete wussy_". She shook her head in disappointment. After awhile Stoick was preparing the dinner, they heard a knock, Hiccup was first to respond "I'll get it!". He came down rushing then opened the door, he saw that it was Elsa and Anna. They both smiled at Hiccup then Anna spoke "Ugh, well Hiccup, we're here to ask you for your help since Elsa was too shy to ask you herself", with that remark Anna earned a light nudge from her sister who was blushing lightly. Hiccup smiled at them then replied "sure, and", he looked at Elsa then continued "Elsa, don't be shy if asking me for some help, I would gladly to help you". Elsa was completely embarrassed as she nodded sheepishly.

Stoick asked from the dining room "HICCUP? WHO WAS IT?". Hiccup replied "IT'S ELSA AND ANNA, THEY KINDA NEED HELP". Stoick spoke "WELL THEN LET THEM JOIN US FOR SUPPER FOR NOW". Hiccup asked the two sisters "So, you guys mind if you two join us for dinner, at least for now". Anna cheerfully agreed as she nodded while Elsa was a bit hesitant but agreed happily. Hiccup, Elsa and Anna entered the dining room as they saw Stoick, Astrid and her friend already seated. Astrid raised an eyebrow as she saw the two other girl, she asked with hidden threat "Hiccup are you dating two girls at the same time?". Hiccup looked at Astrid with unamused expression and replied "No, I don't do such kind of thing and besides Anna is already with Kristoff, I don't intend on breaking their beautiful relationship". Anna smiled at Hiccup then placed her hand on his shoulder then spoke "thanks" while Elsa smiled at me as well. Astrid's friend spoke a bit rudely "I do not have any such relationship with Kristoff and I don't even know the guy". Anna, Hiccup and Elsa raised an eyebrow at Anna#2 (A/N: so yeah, her name is Anna, she's Ji's crush), Hiccup used his thumb to point Anna behind him and said "I was referring to her, her name is Anna". Anna#2 nodded then apologized, Hiccup accepted nonetheless as Hiccup, Anna and Elsa sat. They ate slowly, after swallowing Astrid asked starting the conversation "So Hiccup, how's life in here?". Hiccup replied "it's really great", he mentally added "WAY BETTER than berk_". Anna asked curiously "So, Hiccup, who are those two?". Hiccup replied "The blonde girl would be Astrid, and the brunette is Anna". Anna cheerfully spoke to Anna#2 "Oooh, you're an Anna too".

Anna#2 smiled at Anna then simply said "Yep". Astrid asked a bit seriously "So Hiccup, have you fancied someone yet?", Elsa blushed lightly at that as she fidget a bit. Hiccup spoke plainly "Yep", he isn't ashamed at that. Stoick spoke proudly "Of course, she's sitting right over there", Stoick pointed towards Elsa. Astrid narrowed her eyes then secretly glared at Elsa, of course only Elsa could notice that. Elsa could only glare back as she thought that Astrid hates Hiccup so bad that she wants him to be alone forever. They continued eating in a relative silence. After eating, Astrid and Anna#2 thanked for the meal and bid farewell then left while Hiccup lead the two sisters to his room. Hiccup asked "so what do you guys need help with?". Elsa explained "Well, you seeâ€¦ we actually don't need helpâ€¦". Hiccup raised an eyebrow and asked "so you're telling me that you two came here to ask for help but never really needed help at all?". Anna nodded cheerfully while Elsa rubbed her hair shyly. Anna reasoned "Well, after Ji and Miwayumi recovered, we kind of decided to take you to the amusement park, after all you've been here for like a month but never got the chance to go to the amusement park". Hiccup thought for a second then said "Alright I'll join". Anna clapped her hand happily as Elsa smiled warmly at Hiccup.

Elsa spoke "Alrightâ€¦ see you later hun". Hiccup blushed then teased Elsa "hun?". Anna snickered as Elsa blushed but smile brightly at them. Hiccup liked Elsa's bright smile though of course they could tell that. Anna spoke "alright, thanks for the meal Hiccup, and see ya". Hiccup nodded then said "no problem". Elsa kissed Hiccups cheek then Anna and her left a smiling Hiccup.

~Moments Later~

~Hiccup's Room~

-NIGHT-

Hiccup was sleeping happily but then he woke up from a grunting noise and some light bumps on the window, he looked at the window and saw it was Astrid, he was confused on why would Astrid come to his room in the first place. He shrugged that thought as he stood up and lazily walked towards the window. He opened the window as he tiredly spoke "Astrid? What are you doing here?". He rubbed his eye clearly still sleepy while Astrid entered. Astrid replied "Uh well.. what can't a person talk to his/her friend?". Hiccup didn't knew how to respond to that, half of him wanted to kick her out for calling him a friend when she ignored him in the past while also he the other half of him wanted her to stay since now his childhood crush wanted to be his friend though he didn't mind since he has already a girlfriend but a friend is still a friend. He replied lamely "Uhâ€| yeahâ€|". He lazily walked back to his bed and sat on it while Astrid followed him and sat on his bed as well. She leaned towards Hiccup with seductive eyes. For Hiccup that seduction is quite useless since he's already taken. Hiccup asked "What?", he wanted her to stop so badly that he just thought that speaking could diffuse this annoyance. Astrid sighed then lounged to kiss Hiccup but fortunately for Hiccup, Toothless woke up then growled at Astrid. Astrid stopped when she heard a growl, she looked around and saw Toothless. Hiccup was grateful to Toothless but wanted it to be unseen so he wouldn't provoke Astrid, her punch is packed and really painful.

~Meanwhile with Kristoff~

He's nervous because that there's an Elk stood proud and staring at him, for him it somewhat creepy. He asked "So umâ€| dude guy or whatever you are, what's your name?". The Elk spoke mentally "_I am Sven, and you are my partner.. speak and I'll obey your command, though I will not obey all of your comman_". Kristoff spoke in panic "WHAT THE HELL DID YOU DO TO MY HEAD?". Sven spoke "_I did not do anything to your head, I couldn't speak the language of your species so it might as well speak through your mind_". Kristoff asked amused "So I can talk to you through mind or telewhatever?". Sven answered "_No, you don't have the ability to send message with your mind, however I do understand your language just not able to speak it so I was forced to speak through your mind_". Kristoff sighed then said "I guess that could work, so Sven, can you help me? There's a douche that wanted my girlfriend's sister, so I just ask you to protect her". Sven nodded and said "_I will_". Kristoff smiled happily at Sven as Sven smiled back at Kristoff.

~at the Hospital with Ji and Miwayumi~

Miwayumi asked "So, Ji, where did you get the necklace and the bracer?". Ji replied "uh, well there was a dream that a guy gave me this stuff, by the way it seems you got a bracelet, care to tell how did you got it". Miwayumi sighed then said "Uh, well I guess I got them the same as you got yours but with different person who gave this gift". She held on to her bracelet as she rubs it gently. Ji held the mini sword on his necklace as it accidentally detached from the necklace, it grew and turned into a well build Odachi, its handle has a color red with gold trimmings while it's blade is silver that shines beautifully. His bracer glowed as he knew that the bracer could produce an unlimited dagger. He admired his weapon while Miwayumi cooed in awe at the sight "oooh". Ji traced the blade slowly with his left hand, then suddenly at the $\frac{1}{4}$ of the blade had been traced he heard a feminine moan "_mmmhm_". he paused for a moment then thought if it's just his imagination then continued , at the $\frac{3}{4}$ of the blade he heard the feminine voice again "_Mhmm, yes masterâ€| more.. rub me more_". Ji sweated nervously as he quickly pulled his left hand and stared at the Odachi wide eyes. Miwayumi asked confused at Ji's action "what's the matter Ji?". Ji looked at Miwayumi nervously then replied "The Odachiâ€| talkedâ€| somewhat weirdâ€|.". Miwayumi raised an eyebrow and asked "are you high? Swords don't talk".

Ji wanted to protest but stopped when he heard the familiar feminine voice again "_Pleaseâ€¦ don't stop..._". Ji sweated bullets at that and spoke nervously to the Odachi "N-no..". the Odachi spoke "_hmpâ€¦ what kind of man are you? Not finishing what you started_". Ji sighed then spoke to his Odachi "Ughâ€¦ whatever, anyways since you can talk then you probably have a name then". The Odachi spoke "_my name isâ€¦ Hiirohime_". Miwayumi just decided to ignore the weirdo and started to go back to sleep leaving Ji some privacy whether he's going crazy or weird guy puberty or something.

~Hiccup's Room~

-NIGHT-

Hiccup's POV

Toothless seemed to dislike Astrid, well he doesn't seem to like anyone at least at first. I spoke "Don't worry bud, it's okay. She's a friend", I mentally added "_Sort offâ€¦_". Toothless stopped growling but still glaring at Astrid. Astrid raised an eyebrow then spoke "I got to give it to the little guy, he may be small but he has guts". I asked skeptical "so, why are you really doing here?". Astrid innocently replied "oh, well like I said, I needed a job so I asked your father-", I cut her off not the answer I wanted. I asked "no, the real reason why you came in my room". Astrid sighed in defeat then spoke "Lookâ€¦ Hiccup, I'm just being friendly". I raised an eyebrow and asked incredulously "Friend?", she nodded. I felt my anger builds up, I took a deep breath as I relaxed. I spoke "look Astridâ€¦ I'm not sure if being friends is an option for you now, since you didn't even bother befriending me when we we're kids, I mean why now? What's the point? You ignored my existence, treated me low like a dirt and now you wanted to be friends? What's your game?". Astrid sighed then walked towards my window then prepared to jump out the window. She looked at me and said "Your paranoia is annoying sometimes but just so you know I mean no harm, I just realized how foolish I was but nevertheless wanting to repent from it but it seems you're seems to be in trouble since you seemed troubled more than usual, plus I knew that I was your crush once, but it seems you already have a girlfriendâ€¦" Astrid looked down "such a shameâ€¦ and how foolish I wasâ€¦ and lost a very rare kind of person was who looking out for me when we were kids".

My eyes went wide in disbelief then asked "You knew?". Astrid looked at him seriously then nodded, I didn't know what to say but spoke "Ohâ€¦" at that Astrid sighed then looked outside, she looked at me once more time then said "See you later Hiccup" then jumped out of the window. I was worried, jumping out of a window and land safely is no easy feat. I ran towards the window and look for Astrid and saw that she landed safely which made me realize how more skilled Astrid is, even though I knew Astrid is skilled but that's was too difficult to perform. I sighed in relief, I walked towards my bed then flopped down on it as I groans tiredly and said to myself "Today's very emotional exhaustingâ€|".

~Saturday~

Hiccup woke up tired, he didn't got enough sleep needed due to some events. A lot of things happened he didn't know what to think anymore but one thing that he's sure and that's protecting Elsa. Astrid may had his heart before but now it belonged to Elsa and he'll stick with her even if it would be the last thing he'll do. It was no doubt that Hiccup really fell for Elsa but it confused him of what would happen now that Astrid's in the picture, would it be awkward or a mess or even Elsa would get jealous which he hoped not even though he doubt that it would ever happen. He yawned then stood up a bit lazily and said "let's go down stairs Toothless and patch you up some breakfast bud". Toothless barked happily at Hiccup while wagging his tail excitedly then the two headed down stairs for some breakfast. After a few hours later the two decided to have a walk at the park. The duo walked then Hiccup remembered that Sakori is here, he now having a debate whether he would tell or not Ji about Sakori being here. He decided to tell him since he deserved to know.

Hiccup's phone rang, he took it out then saw Elsa was calling him. He answered "Hello? Elsa?", Elsa replied "Yeah it's me Hiccup, listen. where are you?". Hiccup answered "At the park, why?", Elsa sighed then asked "Hiccup, did you forget that we're going to visit Ji and Miwayumi today?". Elsa corrected herself "Well, mostly Ji since Miwayumi already got out but she is still there visit Ji though". Hiccup answered "No but don't you think it's too early to visit I mean, we both know that Ji isn't a morning person". Elsa shrugged then said "Eh, I think he wouldn't mind so let's just go ok?", Hiccup sweat dropped then sighed in defeat, he spoke "Fineâ€|". The couple went to the hospital to visit Ji and Miwayumi, they arrived and saw Miwayumi and Ji seeming to have a staring contest. Hiccup asked confused on what's happening "Uhâ€| what's going on here?". Miwayumi broke her stare at Ji then replied "I think Ji's having a nervous breakdown or something". Ji retorted in monotone " I do not". Miwayumi spoke irritated "oh yeah? You do know that no sane person would be talking to an inanimate object". Ji faced palm then spoke seriously "I'm telling you this bracer is really talking to me, I know that it sounds weird but it really does and the worst of all it sounded feminineâ€|", Ji shivered.

Miwayumi looked at Ji unamused then spoke in monotone "You're gay aren't you". Ji replied "I am not gay, I'm straight". Miwayumi looked at Ji unconvinced then asked "Then what's with you and avoiding girls?". Ji's face turned serious but said nothing then after few minutes he spoke "Nevermindâ€|". Hiccup spoke awkwardly "Oâ€|.kayâ€|. glad to know that you two are alrightâ€|" Ji simply nodded as Miwayumi spoke "yeah, it was boring staying at the hospital and I've got to tell you, being stuck with him was really boring as hell". Ji sighed then spoke solemnly "I liked you more when you were still shy and a bit timid". Miwayumi glared at him then replied "Tchâ€| sucks to be you". Ji sighed, Hiccup and Elsa could only watch that awkward scene. Hiccup spoke trying to end that awkwardness "Anyways, so Ji, thanks for lending the dojo or whatever it is". Ji muttered "mhm" as Ji and Miwayumi not looking at each other. Miwayumi walked towards the door but was stopped by Hiccup asking "Where are you going?". Miwayumi answered "Home". Hiccup eyes widened in surprise as Elsa asked "Aren't you staying?". Miwayumi didn't answer as she just left. Hiccup asked confused "Uh what just happened?".

Ji sighed then spoke "You guys should better leave as well you guys still need to train your power, for Hiccup you need to be flexible in your combat while Elsa you must control your power with positive emotions for a better control and possibly more powerful than with your negative emotion". Elsa and Hiccup could only nod at what Ji said, they both reluctantly left as they saw that Ji seemed to be in a deep thought.

Hiccup spoke wondering "I wonder what's wrong with the two?". Elsa sighed then answered "I don't know". Suddenly Elsa's phone rang, she answered "Hello?". Anna spoke "_Hey Elsa, how are you and Hiccup doing?". Elsa answered "we're both fine, no need to worry much". Anna chuckled lightly then spoke "_Ah well, sorry we weren't able to visit Ji and Miwayumi. Kristoff kind of got something unusual going on so, yeah". Elsa raised an eyebrow, she sighed then spoke "Don't worry about it, though I think Ji and Miwayumi seemed to have a tough time". Anna asked worried "_What do you mean?", Elsa answered sadly "I think they got in a fight, we still don't know why but it seemed serious". Anna sighed then reassured her sister "_Don't worry, those two might look like fighting but those two don't held grudge to each other plus Ji is kind of a person that gets angry at something like that and if he did, it only takes one sleep and he'll be forgetting why he's angry in the first place". Elsa hoped "I hope you're right, it would be a trouble if they didn't stop their fight".

Elsa then heard Anna screamed "_Kristoff! Get it off me, it's gross and smells weird!". Anna hung up as Elsa tensed, Elsa's eyes narrowed. Elsa looked at Hiccup seriously as Hiccup caught her gaze then nervously stood straight. Elsa spoke seriously "We're going to where Anna and Kristoff are immediately". Hiccup gulped nervously then spoke "S-sure". Elsa grabbed Hiccup's hand then immediately went off to Kristoff's house as Hiccup thought "_I wonder what made Elsa to be this serious". Meanwhile at Kristoff's, Kristoff thought "_I wonder why I get the feeling that someone wants me dead?", he shrugged afterwards.

~Moments later~

Hiccup's POV

Elsa and I arrived at Kristoff's house, Elsa took out a key from her pocket then opened the door as if she own the house. I asked nervously "U-uh Elsa, where did you get that key?". She didn't answer my question as she headed upstairs in hurry, I reluctantly followed behind. I felt that this is just getting weird as I called her "Uh Elsa?". She ignored me again as we arrived at in front of a door which I assumed Kristoff's room. I can't seem to think to say anything at this situation since i can sense that she's worried of something or just really paranoid because of her narrowed eyes makes me shiver. I suggested sheepishly "I guess we should knock huh".

Again she ignored me as she casually opened the door, we looked and saw Kristoff and Anna eating some fish and squids, there's an eel which seemed untouched. Elsa's face softened then asked "What's going on here?". Anna sighed then answered "Well, It's our anniversary so he decided to cook but it appears only knows seafood recipes and his eel is gross and smells weird". Kristoff exclaimed "Hey!". I chuckled lightly then spoke "I don't blame Anna, i mean i really don't like Eels as well". Kristoff pouted as Anna smiled in appreciation.

Elsa sighed then Anna asked "By the way, what are you guys doing here?". Elsa sweated nervously as she answered while trying to come up with an excuse "Uh... well... we, um... well... we just... umm...". Anna cut her off as she asked concerned "Elsa, are you alright?". Elsa blushed lightly, she nodded then answered "Yeah". Anna then remembered something as she smiled then asked "Ah, anyways Elsa. Kristoff and I are going in a date tomorrow, I was wondering if you and Hiccup would like to join and make it a double date as well since you two are an item now. So would you guys join us?" Elsa tensed as she looked at me shyly, I shrugged at the thought that it would might be a great idea. Elsa answered unsure "I guess we could...". Anna eyes gleamed as she spoke "Great, see you guys tomorrow. 1 pm".

Elsa's POV

I felt nervous, sure i would like to have a date with Hiccup but in front of my sister and her boyfriend makes it somewhat awkward and embarrassing. I replied "Uh, sure 1 pm". Anna smiled brightly then spoke "Since you two are here you guys could join us. i mean the food aren't much but i guess it's not that bad". I looked at Hiccup who just shrugged at me then spoke "Sure why not?". The two couples ate in a peaceful silence, just enjoying each other's company. Hiccup thought for a moment then asked "Do you guys have some drinks here? like colas or teas?". Kristoff answered "There's some Ice teas at the top shelf in the kitchen". Hiccup nodded then replied "Alright, i'll make some then". Hiccup went towards the kitchen and made some Iced teas.

Some time later he came back then placed an iced tea in front of me then asked "So yeah, I made this iced tea so Anna would you like some honey?". I froze in shock as I looked at Hiccup in disbelief as Anna looked at Hiccup strangely as well. Anna gulped nervously as I could her cheeks were flushed, I gritted my teeth in annoyance as Anna spoke "Um, can you repeat what you just said?". Hiccup spoke "I said, i made some iced tea and if you would like some honey in it". I sighed in relief as Anna nodded then answered awkwardly "Yeah sure". Hiccup then placed an iced tea in front of her. Anna asked "By the way, how come you only asked if i wanted some honey when you didn't asked Elsa". Hiccup answered "well, because for i know Elsa likes sweet so i assumed she would like some". Anna chuckled lightly at that statement then spoke "I suppose you're right about that".

~Moments later~

Hiccup sighed in content then spoke "That was a good meal, thanks guys". Anna and Kristoff smiled then Kristoff spoke as he waved dismissively "Don't worry about it, It's nice to have you two". Hiccup suddenly remembered something then spoke "Alright, so in Monday we'll resume the training". Kristoff and Anna nodded then Kristoff spoke

"Of course, though I guess that you should be training the hardest. I mean it's your girl friend's life on the line". I blushed a bit at his statement as Hiccup nodded seriously as spoke with such conviction "Of course, I wouldn't let anything bad to her". Anna smiled at Hiccup then spoke "thank you Hiccup". Hiccup nodded then smiled back at her as Hiccup and I left. An awkward silence took over as we walked the street so i decided to break it, I awkwardly asked "so, are you really up for a double date?". Hiccup answered sheepishly "Well, I really don't know... I never even been with a date before".

After a while, we arrived at my house. It was still a bit early to head home already so I asked "Do you want to stay here for a while? I would like your company at the house since I think Anna wouldn't be coming for today". Hiccup shook his head then replied sadly "Sorry, but I can't. I mean I'm still nursing little Toothless or at least taking care of him". I sighed sadly then spoke "Well, I suppose so... well se-". Hiccup cut me off as he spoke "But if you don't mind I would like you to come by and maybe sleep for tonight". I squealed inward as I replied happily "Sure, I would love that". Hiccup smiled at me then I suddenly remembered something, I asked "Wait... Is that really alright? I mean with your father". Hiccup nodded then replied "Yeah, it's alright. I mean you already announced that you like me in front of him". I blushed at that as I remember that scene as he continued "I mean... it was really surprising that a beautiful girl just said that yet I could say it was one of the best day of my life at least for now i suppose".

I giggled lightly as I replied "Don't get cocky about it". We chuckled at that statement then he asked "Though, I'm confused why you blurted it out at that timing, I mean why not before dinner or after?". I sighed then replied honestly "it's because... well, I guess it was just because of the timing... it's really hard for me to tell you that I love you since of I'm afraid that you would reject me or would be like Hans... but that time you're just going to say that we're just friends... I really don't like that. It pains me... If anything I really would like to be close to you Hiccup". Hiccup just looked at me with wide eyes then asked for a confirmation "really?". I nodded stifly as i rubbed my arm as I looked at him embarassed, he smiled goofily then spoke in awe "Wow...".

I giggled at his antics then spoke teasingly "Shall we continue walking my King". We chuckled at that then he replied "Why certainly my Queen". We walked towards his house as I remembered about Astrid and everything that transpired at the dinner last time. I asked "Hiccup, now that Astrid's here-". I was cutoff by Hiccup as he spoke "Elsa, Astrid's is just a girl i know... don't worry. There's nothing between us, besides I'm already happy being with you even you just endangered both of us... but nevertheless happy..." I winced at the endangering part then spoke "sorry...". Hiccup shook his head then spoke "Don't be, I'm alright with that. I'm happy that I've met you, you showed me despite being a 'no good' I can be still liked". I frowned at useless part then scolded him "You're not a 'no good' Hiccup if anything, you're a very wonderful guy".

~Inser music, Gintama OST - Women who ask more important work or me deserve a german suplex~

Hiccup smiled at me then muttered quietly "Thanks...". I smiled at him then replied "no problem Hiccup". The rest of the walk was filled with silence but peaceful as we enjoyed just enjoying each other's presence. We arrived his house, we walked inside as his dad greeted us "Well, welcome home son" he looked at me then continued "Ah Elsa, it's nice for you to visit us. Make yourself at home. Now there's some rule in this house you two, 1 - Meads are off limits for you two". I looked at Hiccup then asked "Meads?". Hiccup simply replied "Liquors". I nodded in understanding as Stoick continued "2 - no sex in this house or anywhere at all". I blushed as Hiccup groaned in embarrassment "Dad, we're not having sex...". Stoick replied "Good, now. behave yourself kids". Stoick left then headed back to his quarters which is a room where he sleeps and work but mostly work.

Hiccup sighed in relief then spoke "Sorry about that... Dad is just... well..." Hiccup seem to can't find what's the word he's looking for so I replied "Over protective?". Hiccup spoke "uh, yeah... that". Hiccup continued "Alright, so we should probably greet Toothless". We walked up stairs then greeted Toothless as we played with him for a while then we ate after some playing with Toothless. Hiccup cooked, it was very impressive since he made us some delicious dinner. After eating we watched some movies, Toothless even joined us watching. I guess Toothless is really a smart dog and he even manage to run now. After watching some movies we headed up stairs as we prepare to sleep. Hiccup spoke "Alright, so I'm taking the floor you get the bed"

I raised an eyebrow then spoke "No, we're both taking the bed". Hiccup looked at me with a surprised look then spoke "Are you sure? i mean I'm a guy and... and.. you're a girl". I sighed in amusement as I thought "_Very descent..._". I spoke "Yes, but you're my boyfriend. it's fine as long we're not doing anything beyond sleeping" Hiccup then sighed in defeat then spoke "Alright, i guess we could". I smirked then teased "Though I suppose you want something beyond that?". Hiccup shook his head as he waved his hands defensively then spoke "N-no, I-i'm j-just surprised that you even want to sleep with me". I sighed then lie down on one side of the bed and patted the other side. Hiccup gulped nervously as he lied down next to me. I spoke "good night Hiccup...". Hiccup blushed lightly. I continued "goodnight to you Toothless too". Hiccup chuckled light then replied "good night Elsa... good night Toothless". Toothless only barked happily as they assumed that he said good night as well.

No one's POV

Hiccup woke first as he tried to sit up but felt weight on his chest. He looked down and saw Elsa sleeping peacefully. To him Elsa sleeping peacefully was valhalla already, as if the life threatening problem they face faded. Hiccup smiled contently as he brushed her braided hair. Elsa stirred up then looked up as she saw a smiling Hiccup. She smiled back then greeted "Good morning". Hiccup greeted back "Good morning to you too". Elsa kissed Hiccup's nose as Hiccup blushed lightly. Hiccup kissed her nose back causing Elsa to giggle. Elsa sat up not noticing that she's still on top him, she looked at the clock then saw it was 9 am. She thought "_9 am? what time did we even slept?_". Hiccup sat up as well then looked at the clock then sighed. He spoke "I suppose we should get ready, Your sister might be worried when she came home and her sister isn't home yet". Elsa nodded then stood up as she went towards then took a shower while Hiccup decided to fix her some clothes then make some breakfast.

Hiccup took out some of his clothes which are some blue pants, boxers and a light blue sweatshirt. He sighed then headed downstairs to fix some breakfast. Hiccup prepared some simple breakfast, Oatmeal for him and some bacon and omelette for Elsa. Few minutes later, Elsa came down as she wore the clothes he prepared for her. Hiccup eyes widened as he saw that the clothes he gave to Elsa actually looked great on her though she realized that any normal clothes would look good on her. Elsa saw the look of surprise in Hiccup's face causing her to giggle as she finds his expression adorably cute. Hiccup finally regain his self from his daze then spoke "Uh... sorry about the clothes, it's not technically a girl clothing but it's all i got and I made you some breakfast. i hope you like it". Elsa nodded then looked at the table and saw the breakfast Hiccup made. It looked really delicious, Elsa spoke "Wow... you made all these? Thanks".

Hiccup nodded then spoke "Yeah, dig in". Elsa smiled then sat on the table then looked at Hiccup, she asked "Aren't you going to eat anything?". Hiccup shook his head then answered "Nah, already ate. Though I am going to fix Toothless some breakfast". Hiccup then turned as he grabbed some dogfood while Elsa ate. Hiccup sighed as he missed Toothless being... well a toothless dog. He found it adorable though Toothless hates being treated like a baby. He poured some on the bowl then poured some water on another bowl. Hiccup called out "Toothless! Breakfast is ready". Toothless immediately ran down the stairs, it was really fast despite being three legged dog with one prosthetic leg. Hiccup smiled at that, feeling happy that he somewhat restored a dog's leg. Toothless happily ate as he has now growned teeth but he doesn't mind being called Toothless.

Toothless was really grateful to Hiccup, I mean why wouldn't he?. Hiccup gave him a home, food and even restoring his missing limb. Toothless could say that Hiccup's the best person he ever met but that doesn't stop him from annoying by smothering Hiccup with his saliva. Elsa then realized that today was when Hiccup and her would have a double date with her sister, she thought "_A date with Hiccup..._". Elsa sighed happily then continued eating. Moments later, Hiccup and Elsa arrived at her house. Hiccup spoke "Alright, I suppose I'll be coming back here to pick you up then". Elsa nodded then pecked his cheek then replied "Yeah, Alright see you later". Hiccup smiled then spoke "See ya". Hiccup went back to his house as Elsa walked towards hers.

Elsa was heading to her room but stopped as she heard he sister's voice "I take it that you had a good at Hiccup's house". Elsa faced towards where she heard the voice then replied "Yeah, it was great". Anna squealed in delight then asked "So what did you guys do?". Elsa shrugged then replied "Not much. We played with Toothless, ate, watch movies and slept together". Anna gasped as she spoke in disbelief "Y-you s-slept t-together?". Elsa blushed as she realized what Anna meant then quickly waved her hands defensively as she expained "No, We just slept. I mean literally not the other thing". Anna sighed in relief "Ah, well that's alright". Elsa asked "So how's Ji holding up?". Anna sighed then answered "He's alright, he can leave the hospital I think Miwayumi's helping him carry stuff since it turns out that his right hand was injured badly. I turns out that in the fight he used too much force on his right hand and his body couldn't handle all the stress since he's been training soo much".

Elsa sighed then spoke "It's kind of annoying feeling that this is all happening is because of me". Anna placed her hand on her sister's shoulder comfortingly then spoke soothingly "it's not your fault... it's because of those dickwads" Elsa giggled lightly at Anna then spoke "I suppose you're right". Anna beamed then noticed that the clothes the her sister's wearing aren't hers. Anna gasped then spoke "Elsa, those clothes...". Elsa blushed lighty then replied "Uh... yeah... it's Hiccup's he lend me some". Anna smirked then spoke "Uhuh... marking your mate with your scent huh... not bad...". Elsa's cheek was flushing deep red then spoke defensively "It's not like that". Anna sighed in amusement then spoke "Alright, I'll let this one slide... we still have a date later, so be prepared". Anna left after she spoke not giving Elsa a chance to reply.

Elsa sighed but grinned as she thinks about her date with Hiccup and starts fantasizing about it.

~Elsa's day dream~

Hiccup and Elsa were strolling happily together then Hiccup spoke "You're so beautiful Elsa". Elsa blushed lightly then giggled as she pushed him playfully. Hiccup stumbled a bit but immediately regained his balance. Hiccup chuckled a bit then stoped. Elsa stopped as well as Hiccup faced her seriously then placed his hand on her cheek and spoke "My beautiful snowflake". Elsa smiled lovingly then replied embarassed "My, Hiccup. I-". She was cut off by Hiccup inching towards her face as it seems that he was about to kiss her. Elsa gulped as she closed her eyes then prepared for contact.

~Day dream end~

She suddenly snap out of her day dream as she heard a giggle. She looked around where the source of the giggle came from. She followed and it and saw it came from Anna's room. Elsa knocked on Anna's door and no one answered. She hesitatedly tried to open the door and it appears to be unlocked. She looked around and saw Anna giggling as she watched something on her computer. Elsa walked towards her sister and looked at what she was watching but paused when he heard Hiccup's voice. She quickly walk towards beside her sister and watch whatever she watching. Anna noticed her sister coming towards her then she spoke "Hey, haven't you ever heard of knocking". Elsa replied "I did knock and what are you watching? why do I hear Hiccup's voice in it?". Anna giggled then spoke "It's not a movie, remember the time when Kristoff and I left you with Hiccup and Miwayumi recorded your conversation?".

Elsa nodded stiffly then Anna continued "Yeah, well but it was like days ago". Anna giggled then replied "I know but you two were just sooo...". Anna squealed in delight then sighed happily. Elsa sighed then spoke "Ugh... alright well, I'll be going then". Anna nodded as Elsa walked back to her room. Elsa thought "_This is going to be a long day..._".

~1:00 pm at Elsa and Anna's House~

Hiccup's POV

I gulped nervously as I prepared my self as I held a bouquet of flowers tightly. I sighed then knocked at Elsa's door. To my surprised Kristoff opened the door and spoke "Oh, you came. Looking good my friend". Kristoff chuckled lightly as I replied sheepishly "Uh... yeah. So where are they?". Suddenly Anna exclaimed cheerfully beside Kristoff "We're here you know!". I looked around and saw Elsa looking dazingly beautiful as ever. She walked beside Anna as she seemed embarassed. I asked a bit awkwardly "So... are you guys all set?". Kristoff and the rest nodded then Anna excitedly answered "You bet we are". Kristoff chuckled lightly then spoke "Alright, let's go".

After a while the two couples arrived at a cafe. I looked around as I thought "_a cafe huh..._". We spotted a good spot and sat there as we wait for the waitress to come and take our order. Anna spoke "So Hiccup hows-". Anna was cut off as we noticed Astrid and Sakori (A/N: From now, I'm calling Anna#2 Sakori) came and spotted us. Astrid spoke "Hiccup?". I replied "Oh, hey Astrid". Astrid noticed Elsa and the rest then asked "What are you guys up to?". Anna answered "Well, we're in a date". Astrid raised an eyebrow then repeated "a date huh?". Sakori spoke "Ah, well Astrid let's go somewhere, let's not distur-". Sakori was cut off by Miwayumi and Ji walking in the cafe then Miwayumi saw Anna and called her out "Anna!". Anna and Sakori looked towards Miwayumi. Miwayumi rushed towards the Anna as she drags Ji behind. Miwayumi asked "so what are you guys up to?". Ji sighed then spoke "It's really obvious that they're-". Ji stopped as he noticed Sakori.

Ji's eyes widened in surprised as Sakori greeted with a sweet smile "Hello Ji, it's nice to see you again". Ji's face calmed then spoke "Hello Anna...". I sighed as I thought "_Is this a date or a reunion... I wonder where are they keep coming from..._". Miwayumi asked Ji "You two know each other?". Ji sighed as Kristoff answered "Remeber the Truth or Dare game we played". Miwayumi spoke surprised "Ooh". Sakori asked obliviously "What game?". Kristoff answered "it's nothing, just a game we played since we're bored". Hiirhime telepathically asked "_Is she the one you touched before?_". Ji blushed lightly as he went stiff for a moment then replied telepathically to his sentient sword "NO! I don't touch her, well sexually not...". Hiirhime spoke "But Master, your good at touching, touched me soo great... I want you to touch me again". Ji was on the verge on having mental breakdown as he nervously sweat. Elsa was fuming inward, she was angry that not only the girl who glared at her last time they met are here but also it got crowded and become less likely to be called as a date at all.

No one's POV

In the end they ended up sitting beside us. Anna asked awkwardly "Soo... what are you Miwayumi and Ji doing here?". Miwayumi answered "Ah, well Ji said that their parfeit is really great here and I thought I would like to try some". Ji added "I'm actually a regular customer. I mean I always come here for a parfeit or maybe some strawberry milk shake". Hiirhime suddenly asked telepathically to Ji "_Do they taste really that good?_". Ji replied telepathically "_Yes"._ Anna nodded as Hiccup asked curiously "so Astrid what are you guys doing here?". Astrid replied cassually "We we're hungry and this place looks nice and it's the closest place so we went here to eat". The waitress came and took their orders. Sakori asked "Soo... Ji, how you've been?". Ji tensed up a bit before replying "Ah, well... just usual I suppose". Ji took a glass of water to relieve some nervousness but suddenly Hiirohime asked bluntly "_Did you two have sex before?_". Ji's eyes widened as he gagged, he coughed as Hiccup and the rest looked at him strangely.

Ji coughed as he tried to recompose himself. Ji replied telepathically to his sentient sword a bit annoyed "_Of course not, I just told you I didn't touched her sexually so that also mean I never had sex with her_". Hiccup then noticed that Ji seemed to be flustered and isn't wearing his cap at all... it was really surprising since he usually has a bored look and wears his hat like all the time.

Ji asked "you?". Sakori shrugged then replied "Well, not much happened except for getting low on budget and needed money". Ji asked "so what happened to Torr?". Astrid fumed then spoke "never speak of that name again or I'll kill you". Ji sighed as Miwayumi snorted then retorted "Like you could". Anna spoke "guys, guys calm down". I sighed then thought "_Wow... this is becoming a disaster already_". Astrid spat "Who asked you?". Miwayumi stood then exclaimed "You want a-!". Miwayumi was cutoff by Ji. Ji spoke "Dude... calm down". Miwayumi sighed then spoke "Whatever...". Sakori sighed then answered Ji's question sadly "Well, we just... you know... we... ". Ji nodded stiffly understanding what she ment. The waitress came back with all the stuff we ordered.

The supposed date was filled with awkward silence. It was really weird since it may be quiet but the tension feels like a war is brewing. Sakori suddenly asked "So Ji, are you two together?", she gestured Ji and Miwayumi. Miwayumi snickered then burst out laughing as Ji slammed his head on the table causing to almost spill some drinks. Miwayumi spoke in between her laughter "To-to-to-ge-ther". She still kept laughing as Hiccup could have sworn that Ji was muttering curses or something. Sakori just looked at the two strangely then asked Miwayumi "What's so funny?". Miwayumi panted for a bit before answering "Man... that was a great joke... anyways, it's just something that won't happen.". Miwayumi grabbed Ji then put her arm around his shoulder then proclaimed "We're bros so yeah, not going to happen".

Sakori and Astrid just look at them strangely before sighing. Hiccup spoke awkwardly "Ooooooooooooooooooooo". Elsa just faced palm at this scenery. Suddenly we heard Hans' voice "Well, well, well... four pretty girls hanging around these three deformed apes". Hiccup slammed his face on the table as he muttered "gah... worst date ever...".

~Insert Music, The Foes Draws Closer~

Elsa heard what Hiccup said then frowned sadly as she know that it was true. Hans walked towards them with an innocent smile. Elsa and Astrid gritted their teeth seething as Anna and Kristoff frowned while Ji and the rest looked at him unamused. Hiccup asked venomously "What do you want now Hans?". Hans chuckled lightly then held out his hands towards Astrid and Sakori as he spoke arrogantly "Come with me, I'm more better company than these 'lame' guys". Elsa shook as she seethed. Hiccup sighed in annoyance then spoke "Look, just leave us alone, clearly we don't like you at all". Hans smirked then spoke "Ofcourse you don't but the ladi-" he was cutoff as he found himself getting cut by a knife flew narrowly missed his cheek. Miwayumi whistled in amusement as the knife came from Sakori.

Ji sighed then spoke emotionlessly "You're accuracy never ceased to amuse me". Sakori smiled at him then replied politely "Thanks, though i just noticed that you're wearing a bandage beneath your clothes now why is that?". Ji sighed as Sakori narrowed her eyes then spoke "You got in a fight didn't you...". Ji looked away as Hans spoke as if nothing happened to his cheek "Now missy, see that guy is a complete looser now why don't you two just come with me already". Elsa spoke harshly "Ugh... you idiot, if they wanted to then they probably went with you already". Sakori spoke "Ji, you promised that you won't fight anymore. why do you want to keep getting in trouble". Ji just gripped his hands tightly as Miwayumi looked at Ji strangely as she thought "_Promise?_".

Hans smugly bragged "promise to not fight huh? what a pussy? though did you know that we fought once and I completely beaten him". Sakori frowned as Miwayumi retorted "Last time I check, He didn't fought you. He just dodge all of your attack and you manage to stab him because of your dirty tricks". We all gritted our teeth except Ji, Sakori and Astrid in that memmory which surprisingly Sakori did seemed to be frustrated as well. Hans lied "Oh really? you do know that he was the one who started the fight. I mean I was just wondering the street then suddenly he came and attacked me". Sakori looked at Hans unamused then spoke "Nice lie... too bad it's easy to spot your lie".

Hans looked confused at her innocently then asked "what are you talking about?". Sakori spoke "It's obvious that Ji-chan doesn't attack people since he dislike seeing someone get hurt even if it's an asshole or worse". Miwayumi looked at Sakori dumbfounded as Ji sighed in amusement then spoke "Please don't call me that". Sakori pouted then asked "Why not Ji-chan?". Anna giggled lightly then teased "Ji-chan". Kristoff asked reluctantly "Ji... what's your real relationship with this Anna... well the other Anna". Miwayumi asked a bit hurt "How come you never let me call you Ji-chan?". Ji sighed then spoke "Miwayumi, I don't like being called like that... it's weird because I'm a guy you know and for Kristoff's question... well... we kind of dated before...". Astrid and Miwayumi looked at Ji strangely.

Astrid asked Anna while Miwayumi asked Ji in unison "You dated him/her?!". Sakori and Ji nodded then Ji answered nonchalantly "Yep". Hans burstout laughing then spoke in between of laughter "Ji-ji... ju-just got du-dumped". Ji stared at him unamused as Sakori looked down sadly. Miwayumi muttered in awe "Wow... you've actually dated someone...". Ji spoke "Ugh... can we not talk about this, it's kind of an awkward conversation". Hiccup whined "Ugh... how long that this dickwad going to stand there and try to flirt with the girls?". Elsa sighed in annoyance then replied "I don't know... I would really like to get away from him as much as possible".

~Music change Tsubasa Chronicles ost - Strange Games~

The gang looked at each other then nodded. They began to eat their food really fast then headed ran out of the cafe as fast as they could but before could Ji leave, he noticed that they didn't even paid for what they ordered so he threw money and something at the waitress. The waitress managed to catch it with ease. Miwayumi spoke "You do guys know that he could follow us behind". Ji shook his head then replied "He can't, though you guys awe me a lot". Astrid raised an eyebrow then asked "And why is that?". Ji sighed then answered "Because i paid all of your food. if you didn't noticed that I threw money and something to the waitress and besides after eating you guys just ran and never even bother of paying and that something that i threw the waitress was actually a letter, It was a letter saying that Hans' likes the cafe and would like to order all of the food that he could eat and would tip very well". Hiccup and Kristoff sweated nervously as they both muttered quietly to Ji "Sorry...". They reached a park and decided to take a rest.

~Music ends~

They all panted then took a seat in the nearest bench for some rest. Kristoff asked "Soo... how about some movies guys?". Anna nodded then answered "Yeah! we'll watch How to train your dragon 2 then Frozen" Hiccup and Elsa looked at each then shrugged. Miwayumi spoke "Cool! We're going to watch it as well". Ji looked at her confused then asked "We?". Miwayumi nodded then answered "Yes, me and you". Ji spoke "When did I said I want to watch movies". Miwayumi smiled innocently yet emitting a killer aura at Ji. Ji sweated nervously then spoke in defeat "Fine, we're watching movies". Hiccup spoke "Wait a minute, you guys just can't come with us. I mean we're on a date, so you guys need to have a date if you guys would join".

Ji and Miwayumi looked at each other then nodded. Hiccup asked in disbelief "Wait... don't tell me that you guys are going in a date toge-". Hiccup was cutoff as Miwayumi held a cat while Ji held a small dog then spoke in unison "date". Hiccup sweat dropped then spoke "You guys can't date an animal... and wait, where did you guys even got them" Hiccup sighed then muttered to himself "and i thought that you guys are going in a date...". Kristoff and Anna laughed as Elsa giggled at the two's antics. Ji answered Hiccup's previous question "We trained them very well". Hiccup sighed in defeat then spoke "fine...". Hiccup and the rest started walking but Hiccup suddenly noticed that Astrid and Sakori is following. Hiccup just sighed at seeing no point on trying anymore.

~Moments later~

The gang have watched the movie and have excited the theater. Anna spoke "Wow, that Queen in Frozen was very sweet and kind. Elsa nodded then replied "Yeah and in the How to train your dragon, there was that guy who had flaming sword which made the guy look intimidating but deep down he's really nice and emphatic". The two sister sighed happily then Elsa spoke "Alright, well I guess we should be heading home now". Anna nodded stiffly then spoke "yeah... I wish it could last I don't know... like forever". Elsa sighed then replied "Me too... but it just can't... maybe for now I suppose". Miwayumi spoke "Alright, Ji and I would be heading now see ya". Miwayumi and Ji walked away. Kristoff and Anna nodded then Anna spoke "alright, well let's go back home now".

The two couples headed to their homes. Meanwhile with Astrid and Sakori, Sakori spoke "I'm not really sure if watching a movie is worth it just to watch them date you know". Astrid looked away in a deep thought. Sakori sighed then asked "it's because of Hiccup isn't it?". Astrid nodded stiffly then spoke "Yeah... I mean. I feel so stupid... In the end I fell in love with him... and he's already taken...". Sakori sighed then spoke "Yeah... well you blew your shot now let someone else let try to make Hiccup happy besides if Elsa screw up then you can have your second chance I suppose". Astrid nodded then asked "What about you and Ji then?". Sakori giggled then answered "Well, we were a couple. We were also the best team I suppose. I mean Ji was awesome with swords while I'm good with Archery it's like a best team mate like one support and the one goes head on". Astrid raised an eyebrow then asked "so you dated him because of that?". Sakori shook her head in amusement then answered "nope, but all I could say that he's too simple that you couldn't predict him at all". Astrid raised an eyebrow then asked to herself "Isn't simple supposed to be predictable?".

~Meanwhile, somewhere in the outskirts of town~

A red haired lady spoke "So, do you think they really need help?". The white haired replied "Maybe, I dont know. But we're not really helping them all the way you know, it's just that I figured they might need help after all it's the fate of the world's at stake here". The brunette spoke "yeah well I heard that Hades had recruited another follower, some guy name Torr or whatever". Suddenly a voice spoke behind them "You guys are kind of a bit late". They turned around and saw Vanellope and Ralph. The white haired chuckled "Of course, only cool people comes late for a dramatic entrance". Vanellope deadpanned "So does the useless cops...". The white haired guy sighed then spoke "yeah... that too...". The red haired and the brunette laughed at their white haired companion. The white haired guy spoke "So, who's the hero and heroine and give me a brief of information about them".

Ralph replied "Well, The guy's name is Hiccup Horrendous Haddock, good guy, brunette messy hair. Madly in-love with the heroine, has a lightning affinity, have great inventions, really smart. The guys is a very Alturist. And theres Elsa Breezh, sensitive girl, platinum blonde braided hair. Insanely in-love with the hero, has a Ice affinity but has more potention and more diverse than yours, she likes the feeling of snow around her and Hiccup's embrace". The white haired nodded in understanding then spoke "Alright, Let's go".

Chapter 13: How to be a good Boyfriend

It's morning, Hiccup woke up tiredly. Hiccup sighed as it's back to school again, not that he was complaining. Hiccup did his usual morning routine and fed Toothless, now Hiccup's waiting for the bus. Minutes later, the bus arrived. Hiccup went in as he took a vacant seat, he looked around and saw the duo, not much changed happened to the two. Hiccup sighed at how peaceful thing are for now at least.

Soon they arrived at the school. They all went to their respective classes, the duo looked exhausted and Kristoff seemed to be in deep thought though Hiccup still haven't seen the two sisters.

Time passed as it is now lunch time. Ji and Hiccup headed for the cafeteria and only saw Anna and Miwayumi, apparently Kristoff headed home since he got a message that there was a burglar in his house so he had to check his house.

"Hey, where's Elsa?" Hiccup asked.

"Oh, wellâ€¦ Somehow, she got sickâ€¦" Anna answered sadly.

"I didn't knew Elsa can get sick" Hiccup spoke.

"Of course she can, she's still a human" Anna spoke with a huff.

"No I meanâ€¦ uhâ€¦ sorry" Hiccup apologized.

Anna giggled "I'm sorry Hiccup but I'm just messing with you, though do Elsa seemed to have a fever though" she spoke.

"Hey Anna, is it alright to come to you and Elsa's place later? You know to check her out if she's alright" Hiccup asked.

Anna nodded "Sure, you're her boyfriend so it's no big deal" she answered.

"By the way Hiccup, I-" Ji spoke but was cut off when the fire alarms went on.

People started to panic as they ran towards the nearest exit. Hiccup and the rest headed for the exit but unfortunately the doors are blocked by some sort of force field. Hiccup took off his bracelet on his right hand then shot an electric burst at the door but the force field was too strong.

"Oh you've got to be kidding me" Hiccup spoke frustrated.

"Hiccup, we need to get out here fa-" Anna spoke but was cut off when a hit her at the back that rendered her unconscious.

"Anna!" Hiccup and Miwayumi exclaimed in worry.

Hiccup and Miwayumi rushed to Anna's aid as Hiccup checked her hand for a pulse, fortunately she still has a pulse and just knocked out. Hiccup carried Anna on his shoulders.

"We have got to get out of here" Hiccup spoke then started to think for a solution.

Hiccup suddenly got an idea, he took off his bracelet on his right hand then shot an electric pulse. The electricity dispersed as it traveled around the room. Hiccup looked around and saw a some sort of crack on the left window.

"There!" Hiccup exclaimed then pointed to the left window where there was crack.

Hiccup closed his eyes as he generated electricity on his right arm and focused it, creating a lightning shaped spear. Hiccup threw it towards the window, with its concentrated power, it went broke through the barrier. They rushed towards the window and managed to get out. Hiccup inspected the fire and saw something weird.

"Quick! Let's get Anna to the hospital" Miwayumi spoke clearly worried.

"Right!" Hiccup spoke as they headed to the hospital.

Moments later, they have arrived at the hospital. They rushed for help, the doctors took a look at Anna and apparently there were no severed injury Anna got but only a slight concussion. Hiccup called Kristoff and told him Anna's situation. Kristoff immediately rushed to the hospital as soon as he heard from Hiccup that Anna's in the hospital.

"Is she alright?" Kristoff asked worried.

"Yeah, she just got knocked out" Hiccup answered.

Kristoff sighed in relief "Alright, you guys got some troubles already. I'll stay here and wait for Anna to wake up and take her home" he spoke.

"but-" Miwayumi was going to disagree but was cut off.

"No, it's alright. I won't let anything bad happen to Anna" Kristoff spoke reassuring.

"Fine but as soon as you sense trouble alert us" Ji replied.

"Will do" Kristoff spoke,

Miwayumi sighed in defeat then nodded in understanding. Hiccup headed to Elsa's place while Ji and Miwayumi headed back to their home. Hiccup took out his phone then texted his dad.

"_Dad, going to Elsa's place. Might be late for dinner_" Hiccup texted.

A few minutes later Hiccup's rang "_Alright, just try not to do anything drastic like having se-_" Stoic replied but Hiccup stopped reading as soon as he realized what he was talking about.

Hiccup sighed "_Dad_" he thought annoyed.

The time passed, Hiccup arrived at Elsa's home as he knocked. Minutes later, still no one answered. Hiccup sighed, he kicked the rug under his feet in annoyance but much to his luck the rug moved and revealed a spare key. Hiccup used the key and successfully opened the door. Hiccup locked it back then headed to Elsa's room. Hiccup knocked at Elsa's door. Elsa woke up from the sound of knocking on her door.

"Come in" Elsa weakly said.

Hiccup entered "Uh, hey" Hiccup lamely greeted.

Elsa smiled weakly "Hey, Hiccup" she greeted back.

Hiccup sat beside Elsa "How are you doing?" Hiccup asked.

"I don't feel so good" Elsa replied as Hiccup placed a hand on her forehead.

"You're burning up" Hiccup spoke.

Hiccup sighed as he looked around while he began to think, he looked at his watch and it late dusk already.

"Stay right here, I'm going to get you something to eat" Hiccup spoke.

"You don't have to do-" Elsa spoke but was cut off by Hiccup.

"Shhh. It's alright, I don't mind. Besides, you need to get some rest" Hiccup spoke.

Elsa sighed in defeat then nodded at Hiccup. Hiccup smiled at Elsa as she returned back to sleep. Hiccup headed to the kitchen as he prepared to make some soup for Elsa and some ice packs. Hiccup let the soup cook for a while then headed to Elsa's room with an ice pack. Hiccup gently placed the ice pack on Elsa's head as he took some then headed back to kitchen. After a while, Hiccup finished cooking then placed the soup, an apple and a glass of water on a tray. Hiccup headed to Elsa's room.

"Time for dinner Elsa" Hiccup spoke.

Elsa stirred up as she saw Hiccup holding a tray. Elsa noticed that there was an ice pack on her forehead, she removed it as she sat up weakly. Hiccup helped Elsa to sit up then place the tray gently on her lap. Elsa was going to hold the spoon but Hiccup held it, she raised an eyebrow at Hiccup. Hiccup took a spoonful of soup then held it towards Elsa's mouth.

"Open wide" Hiccup spoke with a small smile.

Elsa blushed lightly, she wasn't technically pampered this much but it warmed her heart so much. Elsa could only obey as she couldn't decline as much as she wanted to. Elsa opened her mouth as Hiccup gently placed the spoon on her mouth. Elsa smiled at Hiccup as she ate, the soup was great. They continued that until she finished eating the soup. After a while, Elsa finished eating the soup as Hiccup handed her a glass of water. Hiccup held the glass on her mouth gently as Elsa drank.

"Thank you Hiccup, for everything" Elsa spoke appreciatively.

"It's alright, It's really a no big deal" Hiccup said dismissively then started to slice an apple.

Hiccup held an apple towards Elsa's mouth "Say 'AH" he spoke.

Elsa pouted "I think I can eat an apple by myself Hiccup" she spoke.

"Elsa, please" Hiccup spoke sounding genuinely worried.

Elsa sighed as she opened her mouth and let Hiccup fed her. Elsa blushed lightly, It might have been annoying for her but in truth, she was enjoying it and loving every second of it. Few minutes later, Hiccup took the tray with then headed to the kitchen then cleaned the dishes and headed back to Elsa's room. As Hiccup got back to Elsa's room, he saw her sleeping already. Hiccup grab a thermometer and placed it in between of her arm pits, he waited and saw it was 38 degree celcius. Hiccup replaced the ice pack on Elsa's head with a fresh new one. Hiccup sighed as he laid his head on the bed beside Elsa then slowly began to fall asleep.

2 am. . .

Hiccup woke up from Elsa's chattering teeth, he checked out her temperature and it was 39.5 degree celcius. Hiccup's eyes widened in surprise and in worry, he grabbed another fresh new ice pack and replaced it with the old one. Suddenly, Hiccup heard Elsa was muttering something in her sleep as she hyperventilates.

"H-hiccupâ€|" Elsa muttered in her sleep sounding worried.

"Shhh.. It's alright Elsa. I'm here" Hiccup said soothingly as he rubbed Elsa's hand affectionately.

Elsa calmed down as she continued sleeping peacefully. Hiccup sighed in relief as he drifted back to sleep as well.

4:35 am. . .

Hiccup woke up as he checked her temperature again, it was 38 degree Celsius. Hiccup sighed in relief as her temperature lowered then replaced the Ice pack with a new one. Hiccup's head ache, sleep fragmenting was really taking its toll. Hiccup forced himself back to sleep ignoring the massive head ache.

5:45 am. . .

Hiccup woke up again as he checked her temperature again. Elsa's temperature went back to normal. Hiccup sighed in relief as he smiled at Elsa, though his head ache is getting worse due to sleep fragmenting. Hiccup groaned then went back to sleep.

6 am. . .

The alarm went off as Elsa woke up, she sat up slowly then extends her hands as she stretched. Elsa felt great, she inhaled deeply then exhaled. Elsa noticed Hiccup sleeping beside her, she smiled contently at Hiccup. Elsa leaned to Hiccup then kissed his cheek. Elsa decided to let Hiccup rest for a while, she went downstairs as she fixed Hiccup and herself some breakfast. After finished making some breakfast, Elsa went upstairs to wake Hiccup. Elsa was going to wake Hiccup up but noticed his eye bags, she decided to just let him sleep then she headed back to eat some breakfast. Suddenly Elsa heard the door opened and saw Anna.

"Anna? Where have you been?" Elsa asked.

Anna noticed her sister's already better "Elsa!" she called as she rushed to her sister and glomped her.

Elsa giggled at her sister "Jeez, calm down Anna" she teased.

Anna placed a hand on her sister's forehead "Hey, your fever is gone" she spoke.

Elsa nodded "Yeah, it's all thanks to Hiccup" she spoke.

"Yeah but it's kind of unusual to get sick after a so called date" Anna teased.

Elsa blushed "hey, it was your idea" she retorted.

"Well to be fair, we didn't want you to get sick or expected you to be sick after dating" Anna defended.

Elsa sighed "So what happened to you? Where did you go?" she asked.

"yeahâ€¦ about thatâ€¦ I just got out from the hospital" Anna spoke sheepishly.

Elsa's eyes widened in surprise, she inspected her sister for any injuries.

"Are you okay? Where did you got hurt?" Elsa asked like an overprotective sister.

"Relax Elsa, I'm fine. Thanks to Hiccup, he carried me all the way to the hospital and the doctors said I'm going to be fine" Anna said reassuring her sister.

"Yeah, but how did you got hurt" Elsa asked.

Anna frowned "From rubble, there was a fire at school. Apparently, they tried to kill us" she answered.

"What?" Elsa asked in disbelief.

"Yeah. According to Hiccup, it wasn't an ordinary flame considering it doesn't leave any residue and its flames seemed intense" Anna answered.

Elsa sighed "As long you were alright" she spoke.

"Yeah, Kristoff escorted me back here" Anna spoke.

Elsa nodded as she began to think how long this situation going to end.

"Anyways, classes are suspended for a week in the meantime" Anna spoke.

Elsa nodded in understanding, it was good news since Hiccup could get some rest after the things he did for her.

"Alright, I already made breakfast so help yourself" Elsa spoke.

Anna nodded "Alright, get some rest Elsa. You just got from your sickness" Anna spoke.

Elsa nodded then headed to her room where Hiccup was still laying his head on her bed. Elsa sat beside Hiccup's head as she gently stroke his hair. Elsa sighed as she remembered her nightmare from last night.

Flashback, nightmare. . .

_Elsa was in a dark room. There was Hiccup standing in front of her. Elsa ran towards Hiccup as she hugged him. Suddenly Elsa felt Hiccup somehow became stiff, she pulled away as she saw Hiccup frozen, lifeless and stiff like a statue. _

"_Hiccup!" Elsa cried Hiccup's name._

_Then Elsa was surrounded by flames while she heard a dark laugh.

"_You hold the powerâ€¦ the power of desolationâ€¦ you will destroy everyone you hold dear" the dark voice said. _

Elsa felt terrified and feel that she was going to burst then suddenly she heard a voice, it was Hiccup's voice.

"_Shhh.. It's alright Elsa. I'm here" a voice of Hiccup was heard._

_Elsa's eyes began to fill with hope, she felt relieved now that she heard Hiccup's soothing voice. _

"_I will not let my fear control this time" Elsa said to herself with such dedication._

Elsa stomped her foot as icicles crawled over the darkness as the darkness dispersed are she was now in a frozen room. It was beautiful, quite elegant looking room.

Flashback end. . .

Elsa sighed at that memory, she began to hum soothingly as she kept stroking Hiccup's hair. It was very peaceful for Elsa, it's like nothing would go wrong. Suddenly, Elsa heard Hiccup muttered something.

"Elsaâ€¦ I love youâ€¦" Hiccup muttered in his sleep.

Elsa's eyes widened in surprise as her heart was beating rapidly, she couldn't believe what she just heard. It was because it was too good to be true. Elsa leaned to Hiccup and kissed his lips, it was soft and addicting. Few seconds later, Elsa pulled back as she stared at Hiccup's sleeping form lovingly.

"Thank you for everything Hiccup, I love you tooâ€¦" Elsa spoke.

That made Hiccup wake up as he stirred up tiredly.

"Huh? What?" Hiccup asked as he looked around and saw Elsa.

"Hey, how are you feeling?" Hiccup asked.

Elsa smiled then peck Hiccup's cheek "I'm alright, thanks to you. Now go back to sleep" she replied reassuring.

Hiccup nodded as he smiled back at Elsa. Hiccup suddenly held his head due to a really massive head ache.

Elsa frowned sadly at Hiccup's suffering. Hiccup laid his head on Elsa's bed as he continued to sleep but this time Elsa's looking out for him.

Short chapter, been busy and all. I kinda over estimated my capabilities, sorry. Anyways, I'll be continuing this story now. Thanks for reading. R&R.

Chapter 14: while it lastsâ€¦

Hiccup woke up, he sat up tiredly then looked at the clock. It was 2 pm, Hiccup sighed and looked around. Hiccup was still in Elsa's room, then the door opened and revealed Elsa.

"How are you feeling Hiccup?" Elsa asked.

"a bit tired though that's kind of my line since you were the one who was sick" Hiccup answered a bit playful.

Elsa giggled then approached Hiccup "Yeah well, you were clutching your head lately so I was a bit worried" she spoke.

>"Yeah, I just needed some sleep" Hiccup replied.

"So-" Hiccup spoke but was cut off when Anna barged in.

"Hiccup!" Anna exclaimed as she rushed through the door.

Hiccup and Elsa just sweat dropped at Anna as Hiccup laughed nervously.

Anna hugged Hiccup "Thanks for taking care of me and my sister" she said appreciatively.

"Yeahâ€¦ it was nothing really" Hiccup said sheepishly.

"Now, don't be modest Hiccup" Anna spoke playfully.

"I'm not" Hiccup denied.

>"Uhuh, whatever makes you feel better" Anna spoke amused.

Elsa giggled at the two "Alright, break it up you two" she spoke.

"awâ€¦. Alright" Anna replied.

"Now, Hiccup. You must be hungry. Let's get you something to eat"

Elsa spoke.

Suddenly Hiccup's stomach growled, indicating that Elsa's right. Hiccup blushed at the peculiar timing as Anna giggled.

"Yeahâ€|" Hiccup spoke as they headed downstairs and get Hiccup something to eat.

Hiccup sat at the table and ate while Elsa and Anna watched.

"Uh, are you guys going to eat something or you two are just going to watch?" Hiccup asked feeling a bit uncomfortable.

"Yep" Anna spoke.

"Uhhâ€|" Hiccup spoke but don't know what words to use.

"So Hiccup, is the food ok?" Elsa asked sounding a bit worried.

"Yeah, it's okay. I mean it's delicious" Hiccup answered then continued eating.

Elsa sighed in relief as Anna squealed. Hiccup raised an eyebrow at Anna.

"Something wrong Anna?" Hiccup asked.

"I'm just glad that you like Elsa cooking" Anna admitted.

"Why? It's good, delicious even so what's not to like about it?" Hiccup asked.

Elsa blushed at Hiccup's compliment "don't mind her Hiccup" she spoke.

"Awâ€| she's just happy that you like her cooking" Anna teased.

Hiccup chuckled "Well. It is Elsa. You'd be amazing cook" he complimented.

"Thank you Hiccup" Elsa spoke appreciatively.

"Heh, you'd be really a great wife someday" Hiccup spoke not really thinking it through.

Elsa blushed brightly as she looked down smiling while Anna gasped then squealed. Hiccup suddenly realized what he just said then began to choke. Elsa and Anna began to worry about Hiccup but Hiccup immediately recomposed himself.

"I mean, you're really really great cook Elsa" Hiccup rephrased his embarrassing compliment.

"Nope, no take backs. You just said that Elsa's going to be a great wife" Anna teased.

Elsa and Hiccup just blushed at that as Hiccup continued eating while he and Elsa glancing each other shyly due to the embarrassing situation. After a while Hiccup finished eating.

"Thanks for the amazing meal Elsa" Hiccup thanked.

"Oh, it's no big deal. I mean after all, you help me and my sister soo much" Elsa spoke.

Hiccup nodded "Alright so Anna what happened to the school?" he asked.

"Well, they said that it might take a week to repair the damages" Anna answered.

"Ah, well. There goes our Saturday. They'd probably add make up classes on Saturday for 10 weeks" Hiccup spoke.

"What? OH MY GOODNESS. We'll only have Sunday left to goof around" Anna spoke horrified.

Hiccup and Elsa chuckled at Anna "Goof around? Seriously Anna you goof around too much already" Hiccup spoke amused.

Elsa giggled "It's going to be alright. It's not going to be forever just 10 weeks" she spoke trying to calm her sister down.

"10 weeks! Do you have any idea how long that is?" Anna asked dramatically.

"Alright, calm down Anna. I'll treat you two with chocolate buffet if you'd like" Hiccup spoke bribing Anna to calm down.

"Really?!" Anna asked in disbelief and slightly excited.

"Yes" Hiccup answered.

Anna immediately perked up as she recomposed herself. Elsa smirked at Hiccup as Hiccup looked sheepishly at Elsa.

"You really know how to bribe Anna huh" Elsa spoke amused.

"Not really, I just really guessed that maybe sweets would cheer her up" Hiccup replied.

Anna immediately dragged the two to the front door, really excited for chocolate.

"Uh, Anna. I have to go back to get cleaned up first" Hiccup spoke.

"Oh, right. Hurry back" Anna said excited.

Hiccup chuckled "don't worry, I will" he replied then went back to his house.

Hiccup got inside his house and saw his father staring at him seemingly unhappy.

"Where exactly have you been Hiccup?" Stoic asked.

"Uh, ohâ€¦ man sorry dad. I kind of stayed at Elsa's place" Hiccup apologized as he realized that he didn't told his dad about yesterday.

"Hiccup, you know that I don't mind you staying at your girl's place but you could at least tell me when" Stoic spoke.

"I know, I'm sorry Dad. Things just got out of handâ€¦ andâ€¦" Hiccup trailed off but was cut off by his dad.

"Hiccupâ€¦ did you and Elsa do thatâ€¦ thing?" Stoic asked suspiciously.

Hiccup blushed "No! dad, no. I mean she got sickâ€¦ and I kind of took care of her" he answered..

Stoic sighed in relief "Well. That's my boy, taking care of his girl properly" he spoke with a heartily laugh.

"So dad. I'm just going to get ready and treat them as thanks for the food" Hiccup spoke.

Hiccup was going to go the bathroom but stopped by his dad.

"Are youâ€¦ dating the two sisters?" Stoic asked.

"What? No! I mean Anna has Kristoff already. And besides, I only want Elsa" Hiccup answered.

"Good, good" Stoic answered as he let his son clean himself up.

Hiccup sighed in relief that his dad didn't get that mad at him. Hiccup then proceeded to take a bath then dressed up neatly. Hiccup then went back to the two sisters, he was greeted by an excited Anna and a seemingly calm Elsa. They went to a cafÃ© and met up with Kristoff.

"You know, days like this would be nice" Hiccup spoke.

"Yeah, might as well enjoy it while it lasts" Kristoff replied.

"Now, don't be too sullen boys" Elsa spoke.

"yeah! Especially if we're going to eat chocolate" Anna said enthusiastically.

Kristoff and Hiccup chuckled at Anna. Soon afterwards, the waiter came and took their order. Anna had chocolaty buffet, Hiccup had Yaknog, Elsa just ordered chocolate sundae while Kristoff ordered Carrot Salad.

"So What do you guys think with all thisâ€¦ I mean, I'm wondering what Hans is planning" Hiccup spoke.

"Well, I don't about that psycho but I'm pretty sure another way to get us in serious mess and probably-" Kristoff was cut off by a flash of light.

They were transported to Asgard. They gasped in surprise as they looked around in confusion with no familiarity at such place.

"Uh guys, am I hallucinating or we just got in a twilight zone" Hiccup asked.

"We kinda already in the twilight zone the moment we decided to protect Elsa" Kristoff answered.

Elsa looked down feeling guilty for causing troubles from her friends. Hiccup and Anna saw this as they glared at Kristoff.

"Sorry" Kristoff said sheepishly.

"We summoned you here for a reason" A voice was heard around the room.

Hiccup and the rest looked around, they searched for whoever said that. Suddenly a flash appeared and revealed 1 god and 2 goddesses which were Thor, Freya and Syf.

"We summoned you here. In 7 days there would be a war There's a way to prevent it and there's three things you should do" Thor spoke.

"And those are?" Hiccup asked

"1.) you must protect Elsa no matter what. 2.) Be wary of every situations, I'm getting a feeling that Hades isn't our real enemy. 3.) You three must venture to Tartarus and discover the truth and find evidence of Nordics' neutrality" Thor explained.

"Well there goes our break" Hiccup muttered.

Anna pouted at that but realized something.

"But what about Ji and Miwayumi? Why aren't they here? They can help too right?" Anna asked.

"Yes they can but they have a different purpose. They would be able to help but you four would have the big role, the duo are just ordinary people but you four aren't" Freya answered.

"What do you mean by that?" Kristoff asked confused and curious at the same time.

"You may not know these but you four are all connected to each other" Freya answered.

"What do you mean connected to each other?" Elsa asked.

"I'm sorry but that's all we could reveal lil ones" Syf answered.

"But don't worry, there are 5 more people that would help you if you guys needed" Freya added.

This gave the four a confusing look but just shrugged it off since they would be welcoming any help.

"Alright. Tomorrow you four must venture but for now, enjoy the peacefulness while it lasts" Thor spoke.

As soon as Thor finished his word, a flash of light enveloped Hiccup and the rest as they now appeared back at the café as if nothing happened.

"Wellâ€¦ that was interestingâ€¦" Hiccup spoke not really know what to say.

"Soâ€¦ we're going to travel for 7 days huh?" Kristoff asked.

"Yep! It might be dangerous but at least it's going to be an adventure" Anna said optimistically.
>Hiccup chuckled "Yeah, may as well have some sightseeing as well" he agreed.

"That's the spirit!" Anna spoke.

"Heh, you're too optimistic for your own good Anna" Kristoff spoke amused.

"Well someone has to be optimistic in this group" Anna replied.

Hiccup, Elsa and Kristoff smiled at Anna's statement. Moments later their order came. Anna immediately took a bite of her chocolaty order causing Hiccup and Kristoff to chuckle at Anna's eagerness.

"Slowdown Anna, you might choke" Kristoff spoke.

"mnohw mwhay" Anna replied as she was devouring her chocolaty buffet.

"Anna, swallow before you speak. It's un-lady like to talk with your mouth's full" Elsa reprimanded.

Anna swallowed "Fiiinneee" she replied a bit whiny toned voice.

"I'm quite surprised that Kristoff chose a salad instead of sweets" Hiccup spoke.

"Hey, they aren't that bad" Kristoff defended.

"I guess there's nothing really wrong about it" Hiccup admitted.

"So, what are you guys up to after?" Kristoff asked.

"I don't know, hang around with you guys I suppose" Hiccup answered.

"Oooh, how about we go to the carnival?" Anna suggested.

Hiccup thought for a moment as he never been in carnival, at least with friends around.

"Alright, but we leave early. We need to get ready for tomorrow" Hiccup answered.

Anna pouted "Fineâ€|" she replied a bit sadly.

"So, is this going to be like another double date again?" Hiccup asked.

Elsa smirked "I don't know, you tell me" she teased.

Hiccup blushed "I hope so" he replied.

Elsa giggled "Then it's a date" she replied.

"I mean I hope this time Astrid and Sakori wouldn't be sabotaging this one" Hiccup added.

"Well, they didn't intentionally sabotaged it" Anna defended.

"Why are you defending them Anna?" Kristoff asked curiously.

"I don't know, I just don't like it blaming them for something that was completely coincidental" Anna answered.

They finished their desserts then headed for the carnival. Anna dragged them to a carnival game.

"Step right up! step right up! Hit the bulls eye and win a prize. There's no losers here folks" the clerk spoke.

"Ooh, a prize. So do you think you guys are up to the challenge?" Anna asked the two boys.

Hiccup and Kristoff looked at each other then shrugged and decided to give it a shot. Hiccup and Kristoff payed the guy as he gave them a bow with 3 arrows.

"Alright, if you hit the center thrice you'd get the big price, hit the center twice you'd get the medium size prize and hit once you'd get the small one" the clerk instructed.

Hiccup made the first try, he shot the target and missed.

"_What?_" Hiccup thought as he realized how the arrow is slightly curved.

Hiccup mentally frowned at that rigged arrows as he fixed his angle and shot bull's eye. The clerk's eyes widened in surprise as Hiccup smiled triumphal. Kristoff observed Hiccup's shot and found out the trick, he mimicked Hiccup's aim then hit his target dead center. In the End Hiccup hit 2 bulls eye while Kristoff hit 3 bulls eye. Hiccup picked a cute medium sized polar bear stuffed toy and gave it to Elsa. Elsa smiled as she hugged the stuff toy, it was really cute and like it. Hiccup sighed in relief that she liked what he picked since Elsa didn't told him what to pick while Kristoff on the other hand gave Anna a really large orange teddy bear. Anna squealed at the cuteness and size of the stuffed toy.

"I'm sorry if I got you smaller prize" Hiccup apologized.

"What are you talking about? This is cute" Elsa spoke thankful.

Hiccup smiled at Elsa as Elsa hugged him In appreciation. Hiccup nodded.

"Alright where to next?" Hiccup asked Anna.

"oooh, how about the marriage go round?" Anna suggested as she smirked devilishly.

Hiccup and Kristoff looked at her weirdly "The what?" they asked in unison.

"The merry go round, it might be a good idea to start off with something nice" Anna spoke.

"You do know that the most reported a case of accidents in rides is the merry go round right?" Hiccup deadpanned.

"Shush, don't be such a kill joy Hiccup" Anna spoke.

Elsa giggled "Anna's right Hiccup, even though what you said is true, we should at least try to think positive on this one" she spoke.

Hiccup nodded then they headed to the merry go round, it was really simple ride but with the help of photo and Anna's imagination it became more amusing. The first photo is when Anna asked Hiccup and Kristoff to look like they were chasing her and her sister. The second photo was when Anna asked Elsa to sat on Hiccup's lap as they ride the horse and looked like in a romantic ride of their lives. The third photo was when Anna forced Hiccup and Kristoff to ride one horse, of course it was humiliating to Kristoff and Hiccup since it was a bit awkward and somehow a bit disturbing to some people. Afterwards they took a break and sat on a bench. Hiccup got Elsa some cotton candy and Kristoff got the same to Anna as well.

"Alright! We should totally ride roller coaster now!" Anna said as she sounded a little too pumped for that ride as Elsa's face paled.

"Are you sure? I mean it could get really fast" Kristoff asked a bit concerned.

"Don't worry, I like fast" Anna answered.

"I don't think we should ride that scary death trap" Elsa spoke nervously.

"Why? It's fun" Anna asked.

"Um.. wellâ€¦" Elsa trailed off.

"I think we should ride something else. Elsa seemed to be uncomfortable with it" Hiccup spoke.

"Oh come on, pleaseeeee" Anna pleaded as she the puppy dog eyes.

"That's not going to work Anna" Elsa spoke sternly.

Few minutes later, Hiccup, Elsa, Anna and Kristoff buckled up for the ride.

"I can't believe it woked" Elsa muttered as she sweated nervously.

Hiccup held her hand "It's okay. I'm here, I'm not going to let anything bad happen to you Elsa" Hiccup said soothingly.

Elsa gave a appreciative and loving smiled at Hiccup "thanks" she spoke.

"That's the spirit Elsa!" Anna spoke.

Kristoff chuckled "well, at least Hiccup's there to comfort Elsa" he spoke.

Anna nodded "hey can you do a countdown?" she asked the operator.

The operator nodded as he smirked.

"3. . ." the operator started counting down.

"I'm going to die, I'm going to die, I'm going to die" Elsa chanted fearfully.

Hiccup held her hand comfortingly, Elsa smiled at Hiccup as she took a deep breathe then sighed relaxing a bit.

"2. . ." The operator continued.

"I can do thisâ€|" Elsa muttered to herself.

"GO!" Anna exclaimed.

The ride started, Elsa closed her eyes as she gripped Hiccup's hand tightly. Elsa was never been in such extreme rides like this. In the end, Elsa couldn't stop herself anymore and screamed. Anna on the other hand liked the ride. After a while, the exited then took a break since Elsa was a bit shaky after ride.

"W-we're not doing that ever again" Elsa spoke.

"Aww, don't be like that. It was fun" Anna replied.

Hiccup rubbed the back of Elsa's back soothingly. Elsa smiled at Hiccup as she let a small moan escape her lips as she found Hiccup's touch both relaxing and pleasurable.

"You okay now?" Hiccup asked.

Elsa nodded "Yeah, thanks" she answered.

"Alright, last two rides" Anna spoke.

"please not anymore rides similar to roller coaster" Elsa replied.

"Don't worry, it's not. We're going to a ferry's wheel" Anna spoke.

Elsa sighed in relief "Alright" she spoke.

After taking a break, they headed for the ferry's wheel. They decided to not separate carts and just stick together. Few minutes later, they were at the top now. They've sightseeing.

"Well, this view is nice" Hiccup spoke as he looked out the window.

"Yep, we should totally do this again some other time" Anna spoke.

>"Yeah, it would be nice" Hiccup agreed.

"Well, it might not be much but I'd say the town looks nice" Kristoff spoke.

"yep, it sure is" Hiccup agreed.

"So Anna, what's your choice of ride this time?" Kristoff asked smiling in amusement.

"THE TUNNEL OF LOVE!" Anna exclaimed.

"The what now?" Hiccup asked.

"you know, boat going in a tunnel and you know the rest" Anna answered nonchalantly.

Hiccup gave an unamused look then sighed.

"Fine, fineâ€|" Hiccup said in defeat.

"Relax you'll be fine" Elsa said reassuringly.

"Iâ€| just don't know how the ride works" Hiccup admitted.

Anna and Kristoff looked each other then smiled devilishly as Anna giggled a bit.

"Well, Elsa. You'll have to lead this one" Anna spoke.

Elsa blushed "Well, alright" she replied a bit uncertain.

Afterwards the four went to the Tunnel of Love. Hiccup was reluctant though, it looked like a place easy to ambush. Anna and Kristoff lead, making the Hiccup and Elsa a bit behind. Suddenly before they were about to take a seat on the ride, Hiccup have accidentally bumped 2 women.

"I'm sorry, I was in a deep thought" Hiccup apologized.

"You're in a deep thought when going to ride the tunnel of love?" The woman#1 asked.

"I'm really sorry, if Hiccup caused you troubles" Elsa apologized thinking it's better to subdue this one with a submissive approach.

The woman#2 looked at Elsa and smiled "Nah, it's alright. We won't keep you and your boyfriend any longer" she spoke as the two left.

"Thanks" Hiccup thanked Elsa.

Elsa smiled "No problem. Anyways let's go, don't want to keep Anna and Kristoff waiting" she spoke as she grabbed Hiccup's hand and ran off with him.

Meanwhile, back with the two woman.

"My little girl is already grown up" Woman#2 spoke.

"Yes, though. I think this is one I can't interfere. I think Freya is making sure of that" Woman#1 replied.

"Yeah well. The boy is actually nice. Quite cute to be honest, I'm sure they'll make cute grandkids some day right Aphrodite?" The woman#2 asked.

"Yep, definitely Khione" Aphrodite answered.

Khione and Aphrodite sighed in amusement.

Back to the couples

The four sat on pink swan, 1st one who took a seat was Anna then Kristoff. Then another pink swan arrived, this time Elsa and Hiccup took the seat. They were about to enter the tunnel. Hiccup tensed a bit, Elsa noticed this.

"You alright Hiccup?" Elsa asked.

"Yeahâ€¦ just not comfortable knowing that this place is a good place to ambush" Hiccup answered.

"You worry too much Hiccup, though I must say you are right but I know it would be alright" Elsa spoke.

>"How do you know?" Hiccup asked.

"Because, you're right beside meâ€¦" Elsa answered as she held Hiccup's hand.

Hiccup smiled at Elsa, the two leaned towards each other and kissed as they entered the tunnel. Afterwards they reached the end of the tunnel as Hiccup and Elsa were still kissing. Few seconds later they broke the kiss, Elsa smiled a bit embarrassed while Hiccup smiled goofily. They exited the ride as they headed to the exit.

"Well that was fun. I can't wait to go here again" Anna spoke.

"Yea,, it was funâ€¦" Hiccup agreed still having that goofy smile of his.

Kristoff smirked "I'm guessing Hiccup enjoyed it too much huh" he said amused.

Anna elbowed her sister playfully "Wow, you must be really good to make Hiccup turn like that" she teased.

Elsa giggled "Well, he too did well" she admitted.

"Wow, Now I really can't wait to go back here again" Anna spoke.

Kristoff chuckled "Well, that's enough. We have to pack up for tomorrow. And you guys should text the duo" he spoke.

"On it!" Anna spoke as she took out her phone and texted the duo.

"_Tomorrow morning, 7 am meet us at my place, we're going to have an adventure_" Anna texted Ji and Miwayumi.

Next day. . .

The four met up at Elsa and Anna's place.

"You would not believe what kind of weird dream I had" Ji spoke.

"Yeah, we know. It's really something and it's true" Kristoff spoke assuming that it was about the mission they have.

"Really? So it's true that you're gay and dating Hiccup's dad?" Ji asked surprised.

Hiccup, Elsa, Anna and Miwayumi burst laughing at Kristoff's confession, sort off.

Kristoff blushed "W-what? No" he answered.

"But you just said-" Ji spoke but was cut off by Kristoff.

"I know what, I said. I just thought that we were talking about the same thing but apparently it's not" Kristoff spoke.

"I can't believe my own boyfriend is actually cheating on me with a guy, a father no less" Anna said dramatically.

"No, It was just a misunderstanding" Kristoff defended.

Anna just laughed some more.

"Ughâ€¦ this is going to be a long day" Kristoff spoke.

Heh, so that's all for now, ciao.

16. Chapter 15

Crudâ€¦ things really got out of hand for the past few weeksâ€¦ err monthâ€¦ Anywaysâ€¦ here's the continuation. At this point I won't be making any authors note in the story but either before the story or after the story or maybe both sometimes.

Chapter 15: A peculiar start to a past annoyance.

"Soâ€¦ Are we going to borrow your dad's car or. . .?" Kristoff asked Hiccup.

"I think none of us even have driver's license and I'm not sure about you guys but I'm suggesting we stick on riding bus and a little bit of walking" Hiccup answered.

"Alright, let's vote. I agree with Kristoff, it would be convenient and less stops we have if we borrow Mr. Haddock's car" Anna suggested.

"Well, I'd agree with Hiccup. There might be a time where a car would be useless and/or we would be going off road" Elsa voted.

"Meh, I'd agree with Anna. If we didn't need the car we could just park it and go" Ji voted.

Miwayumi elbowed Ji "You're just lazy to travel, anyways I'd agree with Elsa. Even though we might need all the energy we could get at this point, we could still get some rest by taking shifts or by having a frequent rest period. Hope for the best but prepare for the worst" Miwayumi voted.

Ji sighed "Fineâ€¦ I'd agree with Hiccup's idea" he said in defeat.

"Alright, let's check if we got all what we need" Hiccup spoke as they headed out.

They all checked their stuffs. Apparently they packed so well. They packed some first aids, extra clothing and a last resort food since they have many options which either they hunt, gather and buy if they see a food store or any restaurants nearby.

"Wait, where's Toothless?" Elsa asked.

"yeah, I think he's also part of the team" Anna agreed.

"He's nearby" Hiccup answered.

"Where?" Anna asked.

Hiccup whistled loudly then suddenly a three legged dog headed towards Hiccup.

Hiccup crouched "Here. I would never forget about my best bud" he spoke as he petted Toothless.

Toothless barked happily back at Hiccup then licked him appreciatively. Anna, Kristoff and Elsa smiled at Hiccup.

"That's really nice and dandy and all but you still haven't really explained everything" Ji spoke.

Miwayumi elbowed Ji "Why do you have to ruin the mood" she scolded.

"Oh I don't know, maybe it's because I'd rather end this problem as fast as possible" Ji retorted.

"Alright, break it up you two. Let's just go" Kristoff spoke.

Miwayumi huffed as Ji sighed in defeat.

"So by the way, how you've been you two" Anna asked curiously.

"Well, it was weird time. Ji here had a some sort of mental breakdown" Miwayumi answered.

"it's not a mental breakdown" Ji denied.

"Uhuhâ€¦ so why were you acting weird at training?" Miwayumi asked.

Short Flashback. . .

1st day. . .

"_Alright, let's see how this worksâ€¦_" Ji spoke._

Ji held his sword as he prepared his stance but suddenly he paused as he heard the feminine voice again.

"_Master, can you rub me again?" the sword spoke._

Ji immediately dropped his sword "Nope. Not happening. Nu uh, no sere" he spoke as he left.

_2__nd__ day__

"_What's with you? You left early yesterday?" Miwayumi asked._

"_I don't want to talk about it. Anyways let's try again" Ji replied._

The two prepared to spar but suddenly Ji heard that same feminine voice again.

"_Can you clean me again master? It felt really good yesterday" the sword asked._

Ji prepared to commit seppuku "Sayonara" he silently spoke.

Miwayumi immediately stopped Ji "What the hell! Are you insane" she spoke.

"_Let go of me. This is not worth it" Ji replied as he tries to cut open his stomach._

Flashback end. . .

"Hey. In my defense, the sword they lent me is a sentient sword. Not only that it talks poorly chosen words but it also sort of disturbing in my opinion" Ji defended.

Hiccup and Kristoff sweat dropped at Ji.

"So, isn't your dad going to be worried that we'll be gone for a long time?" Ji asked Hiccup.

"Not really, I had the perfect excuse... sort of" Hiccup spoke a bit hesitant at the end.

"uhuh" Miwayumi crossed her arms skeptically.

"Well" Hiccup trailed off.

Flashback. . .

Stoic saw Hiccup fully packed as he wondered where Hiccup would be going.

"_Hiccup? What's with all of these?" Stoic asked confused why his son packed so much._

"_Um" We're going camping" Hiccup half lied._

"_Really? Why didn't you told me earlier?" Stoic asked as he rubbed his chin critically thinking. _

This made Hiccup gulped nervously but tried to keep a straight face.

"_So, who are you going with?" Stoic asked._

"_Um" there's me, Elsa, Toothless, Anna, Kristoff, Ji and Miwayumi" Hiccup answered._

"_Uhuh. Very well, just be careful son" Stoic spoke._

Hiccup nodded "Yeah. Besides, I have Toothless with me, he's the most vicious dog there is" he spoke.

Toothless barked as he stood confidently.

"_Of course he is" Stoic spoke as he looked down at the puppy._

"_Keep my son out of trouble, Toothless" Stoic spoke._

Toothless barked back as if he was saying 'Of course I would. This human is a trouble magnet'

Hiccup was going to go but was cut off by his dad who gave him a small box.

"_What's this dad?" Hiccup asked._

"_In case you might need it" Stoic answered._

"_What's in this box anyway?" Hiccup answered._

Hiccup opened the box as he saw packs of condoms. Hiccup blushed brightly.

"_What the heck dad. I wouldn't need this. Elsa and I wouldn't do anything like that" Hiccup spoke._

"_I know you won't but it's just in case. I know you're already old enough to know what's right and wrong so if you decided to do it. You should at least use protection and-" Stoic spoke but was cut off by Hiccup._

"_No, nu uh. I'm not talking about this dad. I got to go, they're waiting for me. Bye" Hiccup spoke as he immediately left._

Flashback end. . .

"Your dad seriously got you a condom?" Kristoff asked with an amused look.

"Hey. It's not like I wanted to, it's just that sometimes he overthinks things" Hiccup defended.

"Uhuh... sure. So did you took the condom?" Kristoff asked.

"Yeah, I did" Hiccup answered.

Elsa blushed hearing Hiccup's answered.

"So. In the end you're planning to do it huh?" Kristoff asked.

Hiccup blushed as he waved his hands defensively.

"No. It's just that condoms have more uses than you think" Hiccup defended.

"Uhuhâ€¦| sure, whatever helps you sleep at night" Kritoff teased.

"Oâ€¦|kay.. since it's already awkward I suppose I could admit that I already touched myself" Anna confessed.

Hiccup and the rest, including Toothless slowly turned to Anna as they looked at her weirdly.

"What?" Anna asked confused.

"Annaâ€¦| I think that's one of the personal things that you should keep to yourself" Miwayumi answered.

"Anyways, let's just go" Ji spoke.

"Yeah. So where to?" Miwayumi asked.__

Hiccup was going to say something but realized that they really didn't said anything about their destination.

"Uhâ€¦| Umâ€¦| I don't really knowâ€¦|" Hiccup answered.

Suddenly there was a flash of light in front of them, they covered their eyes due to its brightness. Few seconds later, the light dies as they saw a lightning that spelled the place where they are going.

"Bermuda triangle? Are they serious? Do they really want us dead?" Kristoff asked.

"I don't know, but they wouldn't have chosen to help us if they really wanted us dead" Hiccup answered.

"Are they serious? That's like most dangerous place on earth" Ji asked.

"Yeah well, it might be something. Maybe there's more to it, well it's really a mysterious place if you ask me" Hiccup replied.

"Do they even know how far that is?" Ji asked.

"Ji just shut up. We can make it, we all just need to focus on getting there and not getting sidetrack" Miwayumi scolded.

Ji snorted "Fine whatever" he replied.

"Alright, let's go" Hiccup spoke.

"Alright. Toothless" Hiccup called then Toothless jumped towards Hiccup as he went inside Hiccup's jacket as he popped his head cutely out of the jacket which earned 'awws' from the girls because of his cuteness.

They all got their packs on and readied themselves to start their journey. They decided to take a bus first. Elsa frowned as she noticed all the girls were staring at Hiccup probably because of Toothless or maybe both of them. They were riding in silent but Hiccup noticed something out the window. Hiccup's eyes narrowed as he saw some shadows were following them, he gripped his bracelet firmly, ready to take them off if he has to. Fortunately, they disappeared for some reason. Hiccup was confused but didn't let his guard down. Suddenly the bus stopped as the six heard two and a half blind ladies speaking as they headed out.

"The bonds of the four must be tight. . ." The first lady spoke.

"To Fight the titan's might. . ." The second lady spoke.

"Shall not the bonds waver. . ." the third spoke.

"Or the bonds of the four would fall in the hands of the titan's band" The three said in unison as they headed out. *(1)

Toothless growled but Hiccup immediately calmed the lil puppy.

"What was that all about?" Anna asked.

"I don't knowâ€¦ but for some reason I feel that they're trying to warn us or something" Elsa spoke as she tensed a bit.

"Let's just try to relax for now. Stressing ourselves already isn't really going to do us good" Hiccup spoke.

Elsa sighed "yeah, you're right" she spoke.

Moments later, they arrived at their stop and exited the bus. Hiccup pulled out his phone for a moment then checked his GPS.

"Alright, let's head that way" Hiccup spoke as he pointed out at the forest.

"Are you sure? I mean, it's really more efficient if we kept riding busses" Anna asked.

"Yeah, it's kind of a shortcut" Hiccup answered.

"How? I mean even if it's a short cut we would still be fast as shamble at most" Kristoff asked.

Hiccup smiled "Who said anything about walking?" he asked playfully.

"What are you-" Elsa asked but was cut off by Hiccup taking out a small disk.

"How exactly does a disk going to help us at all?" Anna asked.

"Simple really" Hiccup answered then tossed it in front of them as it expanded.

The disk was now 6 foot radius.

"So how is this going to work?" Anna asked.

"Simple really, we're going to travel through magnetism" Hiccup answered.

>"I'm sorry, what?" Kristoff asked.

"Just hop on when it's ready" Hiccup spoke.

Hiccup assembled their transportation quickly that it only took a minute or so to assemble it. They saw a metal disk connected with a small metal rod which appeared to be almost covered in thick layer of rubber to a small metal disk below. (2)

"Alright hop on" Hiccup spoke as he sat in the middle then held the upper part which wasn't covered on thick rubber.

The disk levitated others shrugged then got on the disk. Hiccup pushed the rod forward a bit as they started moving forward at speed of 20 miles per hour.

"So, do you know what's beyond this forest Hiccup?" Miwayumi asked.

"Unfortunately I don't" Hiccup answered with a sigh.

"What do you mean?" Elsa asked.

"It's my used to be home village" Hiccup answered.

"What?" Anna asked.

"Never mind, we'll take a break there until dusk then camp at night" Hiccup answered.

"Isn't that a bit dangerous? I mean, isn't it better to stay in a hotel or Inn rather than camping?" Kristoff asked.

"It is but at this point I think it won't make any difference at all. So hold on" Hiccup replied as he threw horse shoe magnets in front of them as it attached almost immediately to the disk.

"What makes you say that?" Kristoff asked.

Hiccup pointed at the back with his thumb. The others looked back as they hellhounds chasing after them.

"Hold on to those" Hiccup spoke.

The others braced themselves as they held to the horse shoe magnets as Hiccup increased the magnetic repulsion. It increased their travel speed. They are now traveling 55 miles per hour. After an hour of chase, the hell hounds stopped and didn't follow them for the meantime.

"Phew. They're finally gone" Anna spoke in relief.

"Maybe, but they're probably going to come back" Hiccup answered.

"Yeahâ€¦ I suppose so" Kristoff agreed sadly.

"So. How far are we to your home village?" Kristoff asked.

"We're almost there actually" Hiccup answered.

After a half of an hour has passed, they finally arrived to Hiccup's used to be home village.

"This place seems nice" Anna commented.

"Well. It only seems so" Hiccup replied.

They wandered and went to get some food in a nearby cafe. They ordered simple dish yet nutritional. Surprisingly, nobody have yet to notice that Hiccup's back. To Hiccup it was going great so far but is a bit paranoid as he somewhat getting a feeling that something bad is going to happen. They ate in peace when suddenly a familiar guy who kept bullying Hiccup in his childhood.

"Well, well. If it isn't Hiccup" A buffy fat-ish boy spoke earning the gangs' attention.

"_Just ignore himâ€¦_" Hiccup whispered to his friends.

Kristoff and Ji raised an eyebrow at Hiccup but shrugged nonetheless while Elsa felt worried as Anna gave Hiccup a confused look.

"Is there something wrong Hiccup?" Elsa asked.

Hiccup wasn't able to answer Elsa's question as the boy got beside Hiccup and paced his hand around Hiccup's shoulder.

"Well. It's been a long time eh, Cuz" the boy spoke.

"Cuz?" Anna asked.

"Yeahâ€¦ Well, we're kind of busy Snotlout.

"Uhuh" Snotlout spoke as he let go of his cousin.

"So, who might be these three wonderful ladie-" Snotlout spoke trying to flirt with the three girls as he kissed Elsa and Anna's hand but was cut off when Miwayumi punched Snotlout at the face.

"Welllâ€¦ At least its great to remember that Miwayumi doesn't like flirty guys" Kristoff spoke.

Ji sighed in amusement "Yeah, it comes in handy when you're annoyed with a flirty guy" he agreed.

Snotlout winced as he rubbed his sore nose, it really stings.

"Wellâ€¦ maybe just the two ladies. So, may I know the names of the two lovely angels?" Snotlout continued.

"I'm Anna and my sister Elsa. Also, we're taken you know" Anna said as a matter of fact.

"Oh really? By who?" Snotlout asked.

Anna cling to Kristoff's left arm as he blushed a bit but smiling goofily.

"Well, I'm taken by my Kristoff" Anna spoke.

"your Kristoff?" Miwayumi asked amused.

Anna nodded "Yes, he's my boyfriend so he's mine and I'm his as well. And also that goes with Hiccup and Elsa" she answered.

"Hiccup? That wimp? Oh please I'm way more better than him in anyway. I'm more good looking, tougher and stronger than that loser" Snotlout bragged.

"Uhuh, whatever helps you sleep pal" Ji retorted.

"I doubt it. So far Hiccup's the best boyfriend I ever have. And I really couldn't ask for more or better boyfriend than him" Elsa defended.

Hiccup's eyes widened in surprise as he didn't expected, he smiled appreciatively at Elsa.

"_Thank youâ€¦_" Hiccup whispered to Elsa.

Elsa smiled back "_No problem Hiccup. I'm just stating the truth_" she whispered back.

Suddenly, Snotlout's back ups have arrived, namely the twins along with Fishlegs and Astrid.

"_Astrid? What is she doing here?_" Hiccup muttered to himself but was heard by Elsa.

"Hiccup? What are you guys doing here?" Astrid asked.

"Uhâ€¦ I should be asking you that question? I thought you were working for dad" Hiccup replied.

"I am, but on a break" Astrid explained.

"Hello Hiccup" Fishlegs greeted.

Hiccup gave a small smile "Hey Fishlegs" he greeted back.

"Umâ€¦ excuse us for a moment" Ji spoke as he dragged Hiccup, Elsa and the rest away.

Ji sighed as he looked back to see if Snotlout and the other followed or approaching them.

"Umâ€¦ Hiccup, as much I would love to relax for now but staying here would give us more trouble" Ji spoke.

"I agree. Plus that cousin of yours is really flirty. It's soo annoying" Anna agreed.

"Uhâ€¦ yeah. Sorry about that" Hiccup apologized.

"I'm really surprised that he's your cousin. You two are like complete opposites" Kristoff commented.

"Alright, let's just pay for the food then let's leave" Hiccup spoke.

They all nodded at each other as they walked back. Suddenly, they heard a scream nearby. Hiccup and the rest looked around as they heard Astrid spoke.

"Over there!" Astrid exclaimed as she pointed at the direction where people running away from the hell hounds.

"Not them againâ€¦!" Ji spoke annoyed.

Ji and Miwayumi glared at the hell hounds, their last encounter didn't really made a good impression.

"Alright guys, be careful, try to draw their attention away from the civilians" Hiccup spoke.

"Hiccup, there's too many of them" Anna spoke.

"Don't worry. We've trained for this" Hiccup spoke reassuring.

"You do know that none of us really finished our training right?" Ji asked.

"Wow, thanks a lot for the vote of confidence" Miwayumi spoke sarcastically as she rolled her eyes.

Hiccup and the rest spread out as they drawn the attention of the hell hounds. The civilians managed to fled safely thanks to Hiccup and the rest. Snotlout and the gang stared awe at Hiccup and his friends. Hiccup lured three hell hounds nearby a dumpsters, he threw small metallic balls towards the three hell hounds. The hell hounds snarled at Hiccup but then suddenly the magnetism attracted the metal dumpsters and crushed the three hell hounds. Hiccup looked around and saw 5 more hell hounds headed his way. Kristoff saw this as he whistled loudly. Suddenly, there was a some sort ball of light speeding towards them. It tackled the 5 that was going to charge at Hiccup.

"Thanks Sven" Kristoff thanked Sven.

The light dissipated and revealed a reindeer. The reindeer gave a nod to Kristoff then charged at the hell hounds. Elsa and Anna were surrounded by the hell hounds. Seeing that there's nowhere to run, she froze the ground beneath them. Much to Elsa's horror, the ice melted when the hell hounds stepped on it. The hell hounds pounced at the two sisters. Elsa gritted her teeth as she released a massive ice shockwave, the hell hounds were frozen in midair as the icy shockwave also froze everything in its path. The hell hounds who were frozen in midair fell and broke into pieces. Elsa stomped her right foot as an ice path appeared towards the other hell hounds behind her. An icicles appeared beneath the hell hounds and pierced their bodies upwards. Ji and Miwayumi stuck together as they went back to back with the hell hounds. Like twins, Ji and Miwayumi fought as one and managed to held themselves against such creatures.

"Are all the civilians have fled to safety?" Hiccup asked while he unsheathed his twin fang blade. (3) **

Ji hacked a hell hound who pounced at him "Yeah, it seemed so" he replied.

"Let's finish this quickly, we need to move. We can't let them catch us" Hiccup spoke.

>"Easier said than done" Kristoff spoke as he smack a hell hound with a wooden club alongside with Sven.

Meanwhile with Snotlout and gang, Snotlout jaw dropped while the twins were grinning happily as they saw soo much destruction.

"Let's go. Let's help them" Astrid spoke.

"Uh, how?" Tuffnut spoke dumbly.

"Uhâ€¦ fighting with them of course pea brain" Astrid replied.

Snotlout puffed his chest "Well, if that's what my babe's decision then I'll-" he spoke but was cutoff by Astrid as she punched him on his stomach.

Snotlout wheezed as he fell down clutching his stomach in pain.

"Don't call me babe. Got it?" Astrid threatened Snotlout.

Snotlout weakly stood up "Yeah got itâ€|" he said weakly with a cough.

"Those things decided to terrorize our peaceful village, they must be punished. We're berkians! WE DON'T LET PEOPLE STEP ON US!" Astrid explained chivalrously

"Everyone, grab a weapon and join them to fight thoseâ€| things" Astrid spoke.

"YEAH!" Tuffnut explained.

Ruffnut rolled their eyes while Fishlegs slightly trembled in fear.

"Quick, tell me what did I just agreed on?" Tuffnut asked.

"Ughâ€|" Ruffnut groaned as she rolled her eyes.

Astrid and the rest immediately grabbed their own weapon of choice. Astrid chose an axe, The twins choseâ€| helmets? Fishlegs chose a shield while Snotlout chose use a sickle. The four berkians charged towards the hell hounds. Hiccup and the rest saw this as they were surprised at this but nonetheless appreciated their help. After a while, they finished all the hell hounds. Hiccup and the rest panted for a while but regained their breath after a few seconds.

"So, can you tell us what was that about?" Astrid asked.

"It's-" Hiccup was going to say something but was cut off by one hell hound who pretended to be dead as it pounced on Hiccup.

Hiccup's eyes widened as he was too shock to move. Suddenly, an arrow flew by and hit it dead center at the head. Ji whistled in amusement as he knew who shot that arrow.

"What's going on? What was that?" A familiar female spoke.

"Somethingâ€| still good with a bow I see Ms. Garvoir" Ji replied.

"Haha, at least I'm not trying to compensate that sword with your manliness Mr. Gragerd" Sakori mocked.

Ji snorted "So where have you been?" he asked.

"Was in archer competition, won 1st place. So what happened here?" Sakori replied.

Ji "it's best for you to not know" he spoke.

"Yeah. Let's just keep to ourselves what happen today" Kristoff agreed.

"What are you talking about? A lot of people saw that and apparently that kind of crisis is forgettable" Astrid spoke.

"Crisis?" Sakori asked.

Hiccup was going to answer but couldn't find an answer then suddenly he remembered something. Hiccup looked at his hands as he thought that theoretically mind can be erased or altered with electricity.

"Just gather everyone in the hall" Hiccup answered.

"Fine. But you still haven't explained what is going on. We deserved an answer since it just attacked our village" Astrid spoke.

"I'll explain later, now come on. We've don't have much time" Hiccup answered.

Astrid and the others to tell the civilians witnesses to go to the hall for some explanation as they left Hiccup and his friends.

"So. Hiccup, what's the plan?" Elsa asked.

"Do you remember how electricity can change and/or erase memories? Well, that's what we're going to do" Hiccup answered.

"But, that's kind of dangerous. Isn't it?" Elsa asked.

"Well it's not really dangerous, at least not life threatening. At worst I could give them amnesia but that's only would happen if I sent too much voltage" Hiccup answered.

"Isn't there any other way? That's kind of risky. I mean Amnesia, it can be permanent" Anna spoke.

"Yeah, I mean what's the matter they knowing about them? I mean I see no harm in it" Kristoff agreed.

Before Hiccup could answer Ji cut off him of as he answered for him, cynically of course.

"It's because people are dumb as hell" Ji answered.

"What are you talking about? People are smart, there are like people smart as Einstein and Newton" Anna spoke.

"A person is smart, thinking and all but what happens when people see dangerous animals?" Ji asked.

Before anyone could answer Ji already answered it for them.

"They panic. When there's disaster happen? people panic. That's not all, their fear will also add to the equation" Ji answered.

"Yeah, they would be paranoid and probably cause people to panic more and would slowly drift into chaos at worst" Hiccup continued.

"But that's-" Anna was going to retort but was cut off by Miwayumi.

"Anna, try to understand. It's like what happened to Elsa. People got scared of her just because she's not normal. Which isn't really a bad thing I mean look at Hiccup who's head over heels for Elsa" Miwayumi reasoned.

Hiccup and Elsa blushed lightly as Hiccup scratched the back of his head in slight embarrassment.

"Well-" Anna was going to answer but was cut off by Astrid.

"Hey, the civilians have gathered in the hall already so let's go" Astrid spoke.

Hiccup and the rest nodded as they headed to the great hall. Moments later, they arrived in front of the great hall.

"Alright, you guys stay right here. I'll be going alone. It'll be quick so don't worry" Hiccup spoke.

Elsa and the rest nodded trusting Hiccup's decision as they waited at the entrance. Astrid raised an eyebrow at Hiccup but shrugged it off. Hiccup and Astrid entered the hall. Hiccup stood in front of the crowd at the stage as Astrid stood beside him. Hiccup removed his bracelet.

"Um, people of Berktons. What you've just witness here isn't really-" Hiccup spoke but cut himself off.

Hiccup immediately shot a chain of electricity at the crowd as it struck their head. Astrid gasped in surprise.

"What? Whar are you doing Hiccup? And what's with-" Astrid spoke but was cut off by Hiccup.

"I'm sorry Astrid but none of you should remember this" Hiccup spoke solemnly as he shot an electricity towards Astrid.

With the electricity shot through their brains, the people were in daze as they we're in a recovery. People remained stood still, as Hiccup sighed.

"People of Berkton. You're here to celebrate Ms. Garvoir's winning 1st place in Archer's competition" Hiccup spoke as he left and walked back to his friends.

Hiccup saw his friends sitting on a bench relaxing themselves while Toothless seemed to be napping but woke up as he smelled Hiccup walking towards them.

"So how it'd go?" Kristoff asked.

There was a loud noise came from the hall. It seemed roars of laughter and cheers.

"I think it went well. Since they were celebrating so I guess I'd assume it went well" Hiccup answered.

Kristoff and the rest shrugged.

"So. Let's keep going then" Anna spoke.

"Yeah. Let's go. It's almost dusk" Hiccup agreed as they prepared for another travel.

Moments later, they have left Berkton. They walked through the woods this time since Hiccup would have to recharge a bit, he wouldn't exhaust himself so in case of emergencies or desperate times. Suddenly, they have arrived at a clearing. It was some sort of mirror shop.

"Huh? What's a mirror shop doing in a forest?" Anna asked.

"Obviously a trap" Hiccup deadpanned.

"Let's just continue walking" Elsa spoke.

Before they could continue a guy approached them. The man wore a simple clerk uniform.

"oh customers, now may I interest you with my mirrors?" The clerk spoke.

"Uh, we're not interested" Hiccup answered.

"Nonsense, you could at least check it out" The clerk spoke.

"Umâ€¦ we're in kind of a hurry" Anna spoke.

"Now, now. There's need to rush. This would only take a few minutes" The clerk spoke as he ushered Hiccup and his friend into the shop.

"But we're not really here to buy any mirrors" Hiccup spoke.

"Now, now. Take a look at these mirrors. It might interest you" The clerk spoke.

The six knew that this smelled trouble as they keep trying to leave but the clerk is persistent. They sighed as they gave up, they decided to just look at the mirrors together as they decided to not split up. They looked around as they noticed that the clerk is missing. For some reason, Elsa have accidentally separated from the group. It took a few minutes before Elsa realized this, she looked around then searched for them but to no avail. Elsa found herself in front of a door. There was a sign at the door, she read it mentally 'Alternative Mirror. See yourself in another perspective' then below it was some foreign language that she can't read. This made Elsa confused. Elsa's curiosity got the best of her as she opened the door as she entered the room as it. Elsa saw mirror, just plain mirror but there was a some sort of symbol on top (4).

Elsa looked at the mirror and saw herself, nothing out of the ordinary. Elsa inspected herself as nothing seemed to be different so she decided to leave. Unknown to Elsa, her reflection was still in the mirror as it smirked as soon as she left. It stepped outside the mirror as it followed her. Meanwhile with Hiccup and the others, they finally noticed Elsa was missing as they got worried.

"Elsa!?" Hiccup called worried.

"Elsa!" Anna called.

Elsa heard voices calling her, she followed it and finally found them.

"Where did you go Elsa?" Anna asked.

"Uhâ€¦ I got lostâ€¦ sorry, I was looking around" Elsa answered sheepishly.

They sighed in relief, they went back to where the clerk was but apparently he was gone.

"Trapâ€¦ Obviously, let's just go. He must have thought we would trigger the traps here. Alright let's go" Hiccup spoke.

Kristoff nodded "Yeah" he agreed.

They exited the mirror shop. So far, it seemed well but unknown to them there was someone hiding. They continued traveling.

"Well. That mirror shop wasn't bad. I mean it seemed interesting. Maybe it wasn't a trap" Anna spoke.

"It's a trap, why would you have a shop in the middle of nowhere" Hiccup spoke.

"That was a weird trap. I mean we got out unscathed. Which is weird" Miwayumi spoke.

"Maybe we got lucky" Kristoff suggested.

"Doubt it, maybe it was meant to make us relax so we would be caught off guard later on" Ji spoke.

They decided to drop the subject as they continued walking though they did have some small talks on the way to keep themselves bored. Moments later, the sun's setting as they stopped to gather for some wood and food for the night. They split the job. Anna, Kristoff and Ji were assigned to find some food or at least additional foods to help them ration. While Miwayumi, Hiccup and Elsa set up the tent and cooking station. Anna almost ate a nightshade berry as it looked but thankfully Kristoff stopped her before she could eat it. Finally it was night time, they decided to separate this time. there's the boy's tent and girls tent. They went to their respective tents to sleep, however Kristoff and Ji preferred sleeping outdoors so they slept outside leaving Hiccup alone in the tent.

At the girls tent, Elsa and Anna were preparing to sleep but Elsa kept thinking about the future as it bothered her as she imagine what would happen if they failed. Elsa sighed , this caught her sister's attention.

"Are you alright Elsa?" Anna asked.

"Yeah, just a lot of things on my mind" Elsa spoke.

>"Well that would obviously won't help" Anna spoke.

"I knowâ€¦ it's just. I couldn't really help it" Elsa spoke.

Anna looked at her sister as she listened intently.

"It's just. I'm worried for everybody. What if we failed? I can't stand seeing you or any of our friends hurt because of me" Elsa admitted.

"Have some faith Elsa! Everything is going to be ok. After all, we're doing well" Anna spoke reassuring.

"For now. It's the first day but we already encountered hell hounds and some guy tried to trick us, fortunately we got away" Elsa replied.

"Don't stress yourself Elsa. It's best you should focus on the present rather than the future. People have been too occupied imagining for the future that they forgot that they exist in the present not in the future, just like in equation, the present is like the constant number and our decisions are the variables. Our future is the result of the two" Miwayumi spoke.

"That's a weird way to put it. But it does makes sense" Anna commented.

"Yeah. But anyways let's get some rest. We would need all the energy for tomorrow. And don't worry, I know Ji's sleeping outside. He would alert us if there's danger" Miwayumi spoke.

Elsa sighed in defeat as she nodded in acceptance. They laid down as they slept. Back to Hiccup, Hiccup wake up as he heard the tent's zipper opening up. Hiccup looked to see who was it and saw it was just Elsa.

"Oh, hey Elsa. Something you need?" Hiccup asked.

"Yeah" Elsa replied sultry.

Hiccup raised an eyebrow. Hiccup eyed Elsa carefully as she was acting weird.

"uh, you alright Elsa?" Hiccup asked.

Elsa slowly approached Hiccup as she laid down on top of him.

"I feel fine, great even" Elsa replied with a smile that made Hiccup uncomfortable.

Elsa ran her hands on Hiccups chest as she was clearly feeling him up, Hiccup shivered a bit as her hands brushed on him.

"Hiccup" Elsa called.

"yeah?" Hiccup replied.

"Can I ask you a favor?" Elsa asked.

"Yeah, sure what is it?" Hiccup asked.

Elsa only smiled as he took Hiccup's hand as she put it inside her dress as she placed it on her bare breast. Hiccup blushed as he jumped back.

"Wha? Wha-What are you doing?" Hiccup asked.

Elsa pounced on Hiccup as she immediately took off his shirt as she removes hers as well.

"Gah!" Hiccup exclaimed in surprise.

This alerted the rest as Kristoff and Ji immediately went towards Hiccup. Kristoff jaw dropped at the scene as before Ji could look a gust of wind carrying dirt blew towards him as he closed his eyes due to the contact of dirt on his eyes. Ji stumbled back a bit as the girls rushed to Hiccup. It confused Kristoff as he saw Elsa heading towards Hiccup's tent while she was there with Hiccup. The girls eyes widened in surprise as Elsa gritted her teeth at the sight of another girl on top of Hiccup, half naked nonetheless.

"Would you mind? Hiccup and I were about to get busy so go away" Dark Elsa spoke.

"Wha? Who are you? Why do you look like my sister?" Anna asked.

"Foolish sister. I am your sister you idiot" Dark Elsa answered.

"Hey, nobody talks to Anna that way and gets away with it" Kristoff spoke as he was about to punch Dark Elsa.

Dark Elsa smirked as he aimed her hand towards Kristoff then snapped her fingers as an ice torrent pushed Kristoff backwards.

"Kristoff!" Anna exclaimed in worry.

"Who are you?" Elsa asked.

"Well. I'm you. Duh" Dark Elsa answered mockingly.

Ji finally regained his posture as he joined the others.

"What do you mean?" Elsa asked.

"I'm you. I'm your deepest desires. All of your darkest and extreme emotions that you put on to me. All of your hate, your sadness. BECAUSE OF YOU I SUFFER, so now I'm going to take your happiness and see if you'd like it" Dark Elsa spoke.

Elsa gasped in surprise then glared at her other self "I wouldn't let you" she replied with such conviction.

"humph" Dark Elsa snorted as she forced Hiccup in a heated kiss.

Elsa gritted her teeth as she sent an Ice blast towards Dark Elsa as the blast separated Hiccup and Dark Elsa. Dark Elsa stood up as she just shrugged off the attack as she dressed up.

"Heh, you forgot that both of us neither bothered by the cold so Ice attacks useless" Dark Elsa spoke.

"I would never let you take Hiccup from me ever" Elsa spoke.

The two Elsa stared at each other. Dark Elsa snapped her finger as a line encircled around her and Elsa.

"Whoever stepped into that line would be frozen instantly, so no one can interfere" Dark Elsa spoke.

Dark Elsa smirked as she stomped the ground as an ice appeared beneath her then the earth shakes. Elsa felt that something is moving beneath her as she rolled to her side and a spikes of ice pierced through the ground where she was. Dark Elsa then held her hand upwards as she immediately created a huge Ice spike and send it crashing towards Elsa. Elsa immediately created an ice dome then run away from it. Elsa narrowly avoided the attack, thanks to the dome slowing it down to at least help her avoid it. Elsa held her hands forwards as a rune appeared as Ice arrows launched aimed at Elsa. Elsa held her hand in a sign of stop as a wall of ice appeared blocking the ice arrows. Dark Elsa smirked.

"Not bad. Let's see how you deal with this" Dark Elsa spoke as she created hails at the size of basket balls headed towards Elsa.

Elsa swiped her hands upward creating a curved wall, shielding her. Suddenly there was an ice boomerang appeared on the sides, Elsa ducked as she dodged the boomerangs. Elsa peeked towards Dark Elsa as she sent an Ice blasts towards her. Dark Elsa merely yawned as she deflected it with a wave of hand. Elsa gasped in surprise as she gritted her teeth in frustration. Elsa held her hands forward as she concentrated her ice magic as an Ice Archangel appeared with a bow. The ice Archangel shot an ice arrow towards Dark Elsa. Dark Elsa punched the air towards the arrow as an huge Ice hand punched the arrow as it collided creating a huge Ice blast. The Ice blast froze everything within a 5 km radius. Fortunately Hiccup's instinct told him to create an Electric barrier, shielding them from the blast. Elsa panted from exhaustion as she sweated a bit.

"_She's so strongâ€|_" Elsa thought.

"Why are you doing this?" Elsa asked.

"Why am I doing this? You damn well know why. YOU GAVE ME NOTHING BUT PAIN SO IT'S YOUR TURN" Dark Elsa answered.

Dark Elsa punched the air towards Elsa again as a huge ice hand appeared and punched Elsa. Elsa immediately created an Ice dome, shielding her. Dark Elsa snorted.

"Resistance is futile" Dark Elsa spoke as she conjured an ice bow and arrow.

Dark Elsa aimed at the center of the dome, she focused some much ice magic on it. Dark Elsa shot an arrow, it pierced the dome slightly but still held. Elsa sweated from exhaustion. Dark Elsa fired another Ice arrow as it pushed the arrow as the arrow now was half way through. Dark Elsa fired another arrow, Elsa's eyes widened in surprise. Elsa ducked as the ice pushed the Ice arrows as the Ice arrowed pierced the dome and have managed to graze Elsa's right shoulder. Elsa clutched her bleeding right shoulder as she winced a bit. The ice dome broke and revealed a kneeling injured Elsa.

"Elsa!" Hiccup exclaimed in worry.

Suddenly a masculine laugh was heard around the forest. A man appeared, the store clerk.

"You!" Ji sneered.

"Yes" The clerk replied as he shined as he revealed his true self.

"Who are you?" Kristoff asked.

"Because of you two. I can't get laid because you distracted the slut" The clerk spoke.

"What?" Hiccup asked confused.

"ARES!" A familiar voice was heard.

They all looked around and saw Ralph and Vanellope.

"What? Ralph? Vanellope? What are you guys doing here?" Elsa asked.

"Doesn't matter. Anyways, Ares. Have you forgotten that you can't challenge mortals in a fight plus you must relinquish your godly powers temporarily if you wish to fight mortals" Ralph warned.

"Blagh! Screw the rules. I'd gut this two for ruining my fun time" Ares replied.

Suddenly another Flash of light appeared and revealed a beautiful woman with a very revealing outfit.

"Ares" the woman growled.

"So finally agreeing?" Ares asked.

Aphrodite gritted her teeth as she punched him so hard, as Ares was knocked down.

"Sorry about that kids. I finally regretted seeing him" Aphrodite spoke darkly.

"I'm very sorry about Ares" Aphrodite apologized.

"Uh, it's nothing. So can you get rid of her?" Elsa asked as she pointed at Dark Elsa.

"oh, sorry but I can't if I get rid of her then you would be too. You see, you and her soul are one and the same. You see when you've seen yourself in my husband's mirror, it split your soul as a result it created her which is your deepest and darkest inner self" Aphrodite explained.

"So what should we do?" Elsa asked.

"I'm sorry but that's something you have to figure out" Aphrodite spoke then turned around.

"I wish you guys good luck on your journey" Aphrodite continued.

"Wait, you know our mission?" Hiccup asked.

"Yeah, I can't do anything to help you since it's out of my jurisdiction. Sorry, ciao" Aphrodite spoke then left with a flash of light along with Ares who's were teleported back to Olympus by Aphrodite.

Dark Elsa chuckled amused as she listened to their conversation.

"heh, looks like there's nothing to save you now Snow princess" Dark Elsa mocked.

Dark Elsa prepared another arrow as she aimed at Elsa. Before Dark Elsa could fire the arrow, Hiccup went in front of Elsa in a protective manner.

"I can't let you do this to yourself Elsa" Hiccup spoke sadly.

"H-how did you passed through the barrier? You should've been frozen as soon as you stepped in" Dark Elsa asked in surprise, worry and fear for Hiccup.

"Yeah. I figured but you told me that your emotions affects your power and it made me realize something" Hiccup answered with a smile at the end.

"You love me. I know you wouldn't be able to hurt the people you love. At least in purpose" Hiccup spoke.

"Get out of the way Hiccup, once I killed that bitch we can be together and make love all day long" Dark Elsa spoke as she ignored Hiccup previous statement.

"Elsa... don't do this" Hiccup pleaded.

"NO! That bitch deserve this. Because she made me suffer. She's also the reason why we can't be together Hiccup" Dark Elsa spoke.

Hiccup sighed as Elsa listened intently, she felt guilty as she knew she was right.

"Well. Yes and No. Yes, she might be reason you suffer. But I know one thing. I love Elsa Glacie and I'll do whatever it takes to make her happy" Hiccup said with such conviction.

"What's your point?" Dark Elsa asked.

"Who are you?" Hiccup asked back.

"What?" Dark Elsa asked confused.

"Who are you?" Hiccup repeated.

"I'm Elsa" Dark Elsa answered with a bit hesitant.

Hiccup nodded as he took a deep breathe then sighed.

"That's right. I love Elsa. Both of you. That's why, I'll do anything to make you two happy as much as I can" Hiccup spoke.

Dark Elsa's eyes widened in surprise as Hiccup approached her slowly.

"Elsaâ€¦" Hiccup spoke lovingly.

Dark Elsa's heart skipped a beat, she liked the way he say her name. Dark Elsa waited patiently for Hiccup. As soon as Hiccup was in front of Dark Elsa, Hiccup embraced her warmly.

"I love Elsa. Both of you, I didn't just pick the good stuff about Elsa. I pick all of Elsa. It includes you, you two are both misunderstood and treated horribly. So let me help you" Hiccup spoke soothingly.

Dark Elsa hugged back as she cried onto his chest. Dark Elsa vent out her sadness and frustration. Elsa gave a sympathy looked at her other self as she let her be at Hiccup's arms for now. Hiccup's right of course. Hiccup loved everything about her even her dark self, her flaws and all. Elsa smiled softly as she sighed and rested.

Few minutes later, Dark Elsa's cries turned into silent sobs. Hiccup held Dark Elsa's shoulder.

"Elsaâ€¦ you need to forgive yourself. As much as I love both of you but you two should fuse back together, I don't want to feel like cheating on both of you with yourselves" Hiccup spoke as he sheepishly said the last part. Dark Elsa smiled then chuckled at Hiccup's statement, but she nodded in understanding.

"Hiccup, can I have one last request?" Dark Elsa asked.

"Sure" Hiccup answered with a small smile.

"Make love to me" Elsa spoke as she put her arms around Hiccup's neck.

Hiccup blushed as he stuttered spluttering nonsense. This caused to make Dark Elsa burst out laughing.

"I'm just kidding, you're too easy Hiccup" Dark Elsa spoke then pecked Hiccup's lips.

Dark Elsa stood up as she walked towards Elsa.

"heh, you're lucky to have Hiccup, he managed to seduce me to fuse back to you or Else you'd be daad" Dark Elsa spoke.

"Seduce?" Kristoff asked confused to no one particular.

"No. We're lucky to have Hiccup" Elsa spoke as she hugged her other self, causing Dark Elsa's eyes widened in surprise..

"I'm sorry for everything" Elsa apologized.

Dark Elsa smiled but then snorted.

"Hmmpf. I'm just fusing back to you again so you can't hog Hiccup all to yourself" Dark Elsa spoke.

Elsa chuckled "of course" she replied.

Dark Elsa slowly faded as she turned into some sort of sparkles then went inside Elsa. Elsa sighed in relief as she was glad that it was finally over.

"Alright everyone. We should get some sleep" Ji spoke as they nodded in agreement.

They all went back to their previous resting place. Meanwhile with Elsa, she slept with smile on her face.

Mt. Olympus. . .

Aphrodite approached the blacksmith god.

"Husbandâ€¦" Aphrodite spoke solemnly.

Hephaestus raised an eyebrow "What?" he asked as he was pounding on a metal.

"Iâ€¦ justâ€¦ you know bonding with my husband" Aphrodite spoke.

Hephaestus shrugged as he soaked the metal in the water, he paused for a moment.

"I'm not sure what's going on Aphrodite but I have no time for your weird fetish. I'm not interested with threesome" Hephaestus spoke like it was ordinary thing.

"Well. Not really, I just learned something from the two mortals latelyâ€¦" Aphrodite spoke.

This got the god of blacksmith pause for a moment again as he began to think. Aphrodite learned something, that was rarely happens unless she talking about another sexual position.

"Hmm? Another sexual position?" he asked as he pulled out the metal and began to inspect it.

"No, aboutâ€¦ well. Let's just say. It taught me to stick to one and look beyond beauty" Aphrodite spoke.

Hephaestus looked weirdly at Aphrodite "Who are you and what did you do to my slutty wife?" he asked.

"It's me my Husbandâ€¦" Aphrodite spoke as she held Hepaestus rough hands.

"I just realized why did Freya thought Hiccup and Elsa a good match" Aphrodite continued.

>"Ah, that mortal Hiccup. Well, if I do say so myself. He's very interesting fellow. He could've been mistaken as my son with his skills of his" Hephaestus spoke with a chuckle.

"Yeah. Well, those two are something. Which reminds me, I still owe you soo much. I was thinking if you'd have me again as your faithful wife this time" Aphrodite spoke.

Hephaestus shrugged "We'll see" he spoke Aphrodite smiled as she hugged her husband "Thank you" she spoke.

That's all for now. I hope this kind of long chapter made it worth the wait. . . Thanks for reading. R&R.

A/N A/Q:

This is kind of rhyme I just thought of to give a warning for our heroes. Also those 3 ladies are fates.

I'm not sure if this works but it seemed possible.

Twin Fang blades are Hiccup's original Dragon blade and the 'Dragon's breathe' which is the opposite of Dragon blade, Dragon breathe has 2 version. In Modern AU, it's a blade that is fueled by electricity that can almost freeze instantly everything it touches while it also has the gas chemical that when mixed with carbon turns into an ice, also just like the switch is the same except that Dragon blade's switch is spark while in Dragon breathe's switch emits carbon. In Canon AU it's blade is coated in Beweilderbeast's saliva from the saliva they got from the dead one and same principles except instead of carbon gas the Dragon breathe uses powdered Coal.

Hephaestus symbol, 'nough said.
